Lullaby of Birdland George Shearing, 2004-04-27 Pianist George Shearing is that rare thing a European jazz musician who became a household name in the US as a result of the Shearing sound the recordings of his historic late 1940s quintet Together with his unique locked hands approach to playing the piano Shearing's quintet with guitar and vibraphone in close harmony to his own playing revolutionized small group jazz and ensured that after seven years as Melody Maker's top British pianist he achieved even greater success in America His compositions have been recorded by everyone from Sarah Vaughan to Miles Davis and his best known pieces include Lullaby of Birdland She and Conception His story is all the more remarkable because Shearing was born blind His candid reminiscences include a behind the scenes experience of New York's 52nd Street in its heyday as well as memories of a vast roll call of professional colleagues that includes all the great names in jazz

They Left Their Hearts in San Francisco Bill Christine, 2017-12-21 George Cory and Douglass Cross wrote just one hit song I Left My Heart in San Francisco They were unknown before they wrote it and were unknown after it became a standard Their lives were a tangle They eked out a meager living in San Francisco and Brooklyn for 15 years before Tony Bennett serendipitously came across the song which had languished His recording revived his career and made the songwriters rich Wealth didn't bring happiness The duo broke up Cross drank himself to death Cory died from drinking as well widely believed to be a suicide In 2016 San Francisco dedicated a monument to the city's official song in front of the iconic Fairmont Hotel a statue of Tony Bennett

On Jazz Alyn Shipton, 2022-05-05 Few

musical genres inspire the passionate devotion of jazz. Its mystique goes far beyond the melodies and rhythms with its key players and singers discussed by aficionados with a respect that borders on reverence. Some books on jazz offer little more than theory or dry facts thereby relinquishing the essence of the music. This book is different. One of the most influential and internationally known writers on the subject describes through vivid personal contacts, reminiscences and zesty anecdotes his life in jazz as a player, broadcaster and observer. Alyn Shipton recalls friendships with legendary musicians while revealing fresh discoveries about such luminaries as Fats Waller, Louis Armstrong, Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Charlie Parker, Abbey Lincoln and Geri Allen. On Jazz powerfully evokes the atmosphere of clubs and dancehalls and takes us behind the scenes and up onto the stage so that this electrifying world is unforgettably spotlighted as never before. The Essential Jazz Recordings Ross Porter, 2008-11-19. A guide to the all time must have jazz recordings by a maven of the genre. Possibly the twentieth century's greatest musical innovation, jazz is now more popular than it has been for the past fifty years. But with the plethora of new recordings and the phenomenon in jazz of the same standards being recorded seemingly by almost every artist and band or trio, it's very hard to know where to start or to improve a CD collection. The Essential Jazz Recordings provides a trustworthy, concise guide heavily skewed to Porter's personal favourites and showcasing Canadian talent where it's merited. With background information on the music, the artist and the recording, Porter explains the unique merits of each recording from Louis Armstrong to Wynton Marsalis, Billie Holiday to Diana Krall. With this guide, dedicated jazz aficionados can ensure a complete collection and novices can expand their knowledge. Both will hugely enjoy the musical riches in The Essential Jazz Recordings.

Lullaby of Birdland : the Autobiography of George Shearing, 2004. Pianist George Shearing is that rare thing, a European jazz musician who became a household name in the US as a result of the Shearing sound. The recordings of his historic late 1940s quintet, together with his unique 'locked hands' approach to playing the piano, Shearing's quintet with guitar and vibraphone in close harmony to his own playing, revolutionized small group jazz and ensured that after seven years as Melody Maker's top British pianist, he achieved even greater success in America. His compositions have been recorded by everyone from Sarah Vaughan to Miles Davis and his best known pieces include Lullaby of Birdland, She and Conception. His story is all the more remarkable because Shearing was born blind. His candid reminiscences include a behind-the-scenes experience of New York's 52nd Street in its heyday as well as memories of a vast roll call of professional colleagues that includes all the great names in jazz. Shakin' All Over George McKay, 2013-10-28. Given the explosion in recent years of scholarship exploring the ways in which disability is manifested and performed in numerous cultural spaces, it's surprising that until now there has never been a single monograph study covering the important intersection of popular music and disability. George McKay's Shakin' All Over is a cross-disciplinary examination of the ways in which popular music performers have addressed disability in their songs, in their live performances and in various media presentations. By looking closely into the work of artists such as Johnny Rotten, Neil Young, Johnnie Ray, Ian

Dury Teddy Pendergrass Curtis Mayfield and Joni Mitchell McKay investigates such questions as how popular music works to obscure and accommodate the presence of people with disabilities in its cultural practice He also examines how popular musicians have articulated the experiences of disability or sought to pass or have used their cultural arena for disability advocacy purposes
