Luther And Late Medieval Thomism A Study In Theological Anthropology:

Luther and Late Medieval Thomism Denis R. Janz, 2009-12-15 A careful analysis of Luther's thought in the context of his age this volume examines Luther's links with later medieval Thomism The study is organized on the theme of theological anthropology the state of humans within a theological system In the course of the discussion Janz studies parallels and divergences between the thought of Luther and the thought of Thomas Aquinas Peter Lombard John Capreolus Henry of Gorkum Conrad Koellin Karlstadt and Cajetan Janz suggests that at some crucial points late medieval Thomist teaching misrepresents the teaching of Thomas Aquinas This compounding Luther's lack of direct knowledge of Thomas helps to explain Luther's opposition not only to his own nominalist teachers but to the scholastics generally Students of late medieval and Reformation theology will find the wealth of primary citation and the detailed readings of the sources invaluable guides to the issues Students of religion interested in contemporary problems in theological anthropology in the natural capacity of humanity for good and evil for example will find the historical Christian perspective of great interest Fruit for the Soul Dennis Ngien, 2015-12-01 Given a life spent in scholarship and controversy it is easy to forget how much energy Martin Luther devoted to helping the common person understand and take comfort from God's word This commitment extended to even the most challenging of biblical texts and nowhere is this more apparent than Luther's work on the lament Psalms Difficult to understand and perhaps even more difficult to implement in life and devotion the lament Psalms played a key role in Luther's thought More importantly the lament Psalms were for Luther an essential part of the Christian's understanding of the life of faith In this volume Dennis Ngien helps contemporary readers engage Luther's commentary on the lament Psalms What Luther intended for the education and encouragement of everyday Christians Ngien unpacks and illuminates for life in the twenty first century Introduced and commended by Robert Kolb the volume will be appreciated by teacher and student alike Protestant Scholasticism: Essays in Reassessment Carl R. Trueman, Scott R. Clark, 2007-10-01 Traditionally Protestant theology between Luther's early reforming career and the dawn of the Enlightenment has been seen in terms of decline and fall into the wastelands of rationalism and scholastic speculation In this volume a number of scholars question such an interpretation The editors argue that the development of Post Reformation Protestantism can only be understood when a proper historical model of doctrinal change is adopted This historical concern underlies the subsequent studies of theologians such as Calvin Beza Olevian Baxter and the two Turrentini The result is a significantly different reading of the development of Protestant Orthodoxy one which both challenges the older scholarly interpretations and clichés about the relationship of Protestantism to among other things scholasticism and rationalism and which demonstrates the fruitfulness of the new historical approach Contributors D V N Bagchi David C Steinmetz Richard A Muller Frank A James III John L Farthing Lyle D Bierma R Scott Clark Donald Sinnema Paul R Schaefer W Robert Godfrey Carl R Trueman Philip G Ryken John E Platt Joel R Beeke James T Dennison Jr Martin I Klauber Lowell C Green and David P Scaer Jean Gerson and De

Promissory Notes on the Treasury of Merits

Robert Swanson,2018-11-12 Promissory Notes on the Treasury of Merits is a volume of 12 essays by a distinguished team of international scholars dealing with the place of indulgences in the religious life of Europe between roughly 1250 and the outbreak of the Reformation Some of the articles offer regional analyses stretching from Spain to the Netherlands from England to Bohemia and Italy Others deal with the theology and theological and practical controversies provoked by indulgences or with thematic issues like the place of indulgences in fifteenth century crusades in pilgrimage and the early exploitation of print in their distribution The complementary nature of the articles builds into a fuller picture of the central but hitherto neglected role which indulgences had in late medieval European religious life

The Oxford Handbook of the Protestant Reformations Ulinka Rublack,2017 This Handbook takes a broad overview of the Protestant Reformations seeing them as movements which stretched far beyond their European beginnings Written by a team of international scholars of history and theology the contributions offer up to date perspectives on Reformation ideas and the lasting historical impact of Protestantism

To Stir a Restless Heart Jacob W. Wood,2019 To Stir a Restless Heart tells for the first time the story of how Thomas Aquinas conversed with his contemporaries about the dynamics of human nature s longing for God and documents how he deliberately utilized Greek Arabic Hebrew and Latin sources to develop a version of Aristotelian natural desire that was uniquely Augustinian natural desire seeks the complete fulfillment of human nature insofar as is possible and so comes to rest in the highest end that God offers to it Depending on whether God offers the free gift of grace to humanity one and the same natural desire can come to rest in knowing God through creatures or seeing God directly

Toward a Priestly Christology Adriani Milli Rodrigues,2018-11-02 Toward a Priestly Christology is a constructive theology on the person and work of Christ from the standpoint of a systematic thinking about his priesthood This priesthood is usually discussed in biblical scholarship on the Christology of Hebrews and also explored in historical or systematic theology with its connections with soteriology and ecclesiology However there is a scarcity of studies that attempt to systematize this topic in its basic components and their ontological foundations in order to provide conceptual clarity for a constructive discussion of the priestly Christology in systematic theology The book makes a contribution to this discussion by engaging firstly with the main models of Christ s priesthood in Christian theology and then with a theological reading of the letter to the Hebrews In both steps the author conceptually articulates the priesthood in terms of need agent actions and goal Then he observes the conceptual articulation from the macro hermeneutical point of view of ontology especially noticing how assumptions on time and space impact the internal logic of Christ s priesthood By using existing models of this priesthood as heuristic tools for systematic thinking the work attempts to push Christian theology toward a more dynamic understanding of Christ s priesthood especially regarding the relationship between the ascended Christ and our Christian life

The Essential Luther Martin Luther,2018-09-15 This is a wonderful anthology Its texts not only span the whole of Luther s reforming career but also cover the theological political and social issues that mattered most to him and his age Best of all the original integrity of the texts remains perceptible even when abridged This valuable collection will be a great teaching tool and also a most useful resource for anyone interested in Luther or the Protestant Reformation Carlos Eire Yale University author of Reformations The Early Modern World 1450-1650 Yale University Press

Trinitarian Grace in Martin Luther's The Bondage of the Will Miikka Ruokanen, 2021-05-13

Miikka Ruokanen reveals the powerfully Trinitarian and participatory nature of Martin Luther's conception of divine grace in his magnum opus The Bondage of the Will The study establishes a genuinely new understanding of Luther's major treatise opening up its ecumenical potential Luther's debate with Erasmus signifies not only a disagreement concerning free will but the dispute reveals two contrasting understandings of the very core idea of the Christian faith For Erasmus the relationship of the human being with God is based on the rationally and morally acceptable principles of fair play For Luther the human being is captivated by the overwhelming power of unfaith and transcendental evil Satan only the monergistic grace of the Triune God and the power of the Holy Spirit can liberate him/her Ruokanen verifies the Trinitarian vision of salvation by grace alone as the center of Luther's theology This doctrine has three dimensions Firstly the conversion of the sinner and the birth of faith in Christ are effected by prevenient divine grace justification through faith alone is the sole work of God's Spirit comparable to creation ex nihilo Secondly participation in the person life and divine properties of Christ as well as participation in his salvific work his cross and resurrection are possible solely because of the presence of the Holy Spirit in the believer Justification means simultaneously the forensic declaration of the guilty non-guilty on the basis of the atonement by Jesus' cross as well as a union with Christ in the Holy Spirit Thirdly sanctification means the gradual growth of love for God and neighbor enabled by the believer's participation in divine love in the Holy Spirit Ruokanen's work offers a crucial modification and advance to the world renowned Finnish school of Luther interpretation Luther's classic use of Pneumatological language avoids the problems caused by using an ontological language
