Discourse on Free Will Desiderius Erasmus, Martin Luther, 2013-06-27 Desiderius Erasmus 1466-9-1536 was the most renowned scholar of his age a celebrated humanist and Classicist and the first teacher of Greek at Cambridge An influential figure in the Protestant Reformation though without ever breaking from the Church himself he satirised both human folly and the corruption of the Church Martin Luther 1483-1546 was the founder of the German Reformation His 95 Theses became a manifesto for reform of the Catholic Church and led to his being tried for heresy He remained in Germany Professor of Biblical Exegesis at the University of Wittenburg until his death publishing a large number of works including three major treatises and a translation of the New Testament into German Comprising Erasmus's The Free Will and Luther's The Bondage of the Will Discourse on Free Will is a landmark text in the history of Protestantism Encapsulating the perspective on free will of two of the most important figures in the history of Christianity it remains to this day a powerful thought provoking and timely work Luther and Erasmus: free-will and salvation : Library of Christian Classics v.17 E. Gordon; Watson Rupp (Philip S.), 1969 The Captivation of the Will Gerhard O. Forde, 2017-01-01 The Captivation of the Will provocatively revisits a perennial topic of controversy human free will Highly esteemed Lutheran thinker Gerhard O Forde cuts to the heart of the subject by reexamining the famous debate on the will between Luther and Erasmus Following a substantial introduction by James A Nestingen that brings to life the historical background of the debate Forde thoroughly explores Luther's Bondage of the Will and the dispute between Erasmus and Luther that it reflects In the process of exposing this debate's enduring significance for Christians Forde highlights its central arguments about Scripture God the will and salvation in Christ Luther recognized that the only solution for humans bound by sin is the forgiveness that comes from Christ alone Convinced that this insight represents the heart of the Christian gospel Forde concludes with ten sermons that proclaim the message of salvation through Christ alone while elegantly relating theological inquiry to everyday life The End of the Church Ephraim Radner, 1998 In this first serious assessment of the meaning of church division Ephraim Radner provides a theological rationale for today's divided church in the Christian West that goes far beyond the standard socio historical explanations of denominationalism Through an examination of controversial post Reformation discussions about the church Radner offers a significant theory that describes the relation between Christian division and the work of the Holy Spirit within Western modernity Radner s description of the church is based on the traditional notion that a divided church is in a significant sense a dead church after the figure of the pneumatically abandoned dead Christ who himself suffers redemptively the disintegration and restoration of divided Israel in his physical and spiritual passion The hermeneutical basis for the usefulness of this figure lies deep in the scriptural practice of the undivided church and was common up through the Reformation Radner s recovery of this figural perspective is applied to the cluster of pneumatological issues that define ecclesial life

Humanism and the Rhetoric of Toleration Gary Remer,2010-11-01 Religious toleration is much discussed these days But where did the Western notion of toleration come from In this thought provoking book Gary Remer traces arguments for religious toleration back to the Renaissance demonstrating how humanist thinkers initiated an intellectual tradition that has persisted even to our present day Although toleration has long been recognized as an important theme in Renaissance humanist thinking many scholars have mistakenly portrayed the humanists as proto Enlightenment rationalists and nascent liberals Remer however offers the surprising conclusion that humanist thinking on toleration was actually founded on the classical tradition of rhetoric It was the rhetorician s commitment to decorum the ability to argue both sides of an issue and the search for an acceptable epistemological standard in probability and consensus that grounded humanist arguments for toleration Remer also finds that the primary humanist model for a full fledged theory of toleration was the Ciceronian rhetorical category of sermo conversation The historical scope of this book is wide ranging Remer begins by focusing on the works of four humanists Desiderius Erasmus Jacobus Acontius William Chillingworth and Jean Bodin Then he considers the challenge posed to the humanist defense of toleration by Thomas Hobbes and Pierre Bayle Finally he shows how humanist ideas have continued to influence arguments for toleration even after the passing of humanism from John Locke to contemporary American discussions of freedom of speech

THE BONDAGE OF THE WILL Martin Luther,2023-12-01 In The Bondage of the Will Martin Luther presents a profound theological treatise that grapples with the nature of free will and divine sovereignty Written in response to Erasmus s On Free Will Luther articulates a compelling argument for the Lutheran doctrine of justification by faith alone With an incisive rhetorical style that combines clarity of thought with passionate conviction the book delves into the implications of human sinfulness and the necessity of God s grace challenging the Renaissance humanist perspective of self determination prevalent in Luther s time This work not only establishes Luther s theological framework but also signals a pivotal moment in the Reformation movement Martin Luther 1483 1546 a seminal figure in the Reformation was driven by his own spiritual struggles and profound insights into scripture leading him to question the established theological norms of the Catholic Church His deep commitment to the teachings of the Bible and his quest for spiritual solace ignited his conviction that human beings are inherently unable to achieve salvation through their own efforts thus forming the basis for his arguments in The Bondage of the Will. The Bondage of the Will is an essential read for anyone seeking to understand the complexities of Christian theology and the historical context of the Reformation. Through its rigorous examination of free will and divine intervention, the book invites readers to reflect on their own beliefs about autonomy and faith, making it a timeless work that remains relevant in contemporary theological discourse.

The Bondage of the Will Martin Luther, 2001-09 This edition of The Bondage of the Will was translated by Henry Cole in 1823. Free will was no academic question to Luther; the whole Gospel of the grace of God he held was bound up with it and stood or fell according to the way one decided it. It is not the part of a true theologian, Luther holds, to be unconcerned or to pretend to be unconcerned when the Gospel is in danger. The doctrine of the Bondage of the Will, in particular, was the cornerstone of the Gospel and the foundation of faith. 40-41 emphasis added. In particular, the denial of free will was to Luther the foundation of the Biblical doctrine of grace, and a hearty endorsement of that denial was the first step for anyone who would understand the Gospel and come to faith in God. The man who has not yet practically and experimentally learned the bondage of his will in sin has not yet comprehended any part of the Gospel. Justification by faith only is a truth that needs interpretation. The principle of sola fide (by faith alone) is not rightly understood till it is seen as anchored in the broader principle of sola gratia (by grace alone). For to rely on one's self for faith is not different in principle from relying on one's self for works. The Bible teaches that faith itself is and has to be a gift of God by grace and not of self (Ephesians 2:8). It is safe to deduce that for Luther, any evangelist who advocates free will has not only not yet comprehended any part of the Gospel but also that he has not yet preached the Gospel at all; his is a counterfeit Gospel. Luther was ordered to recant his teachings on threat of excommunication. Luther thundered, "Unless I am convinced by Scriptures and plain reason, for Luther this meant logic, my conscience is captive to the Word of God. I cannot and I will not recant anything. Here I stand, I can do no other." From a review in The Trinity Review, Martin Luther (1483-1546) shattered the structure of the Medieval Church by demanding that the authority for doctrine and practice be the Scriptures rather than popes or councils and ignited the famous Protestant Reformation. The Roman Catholic hierarchy could not refute his logic, so they attempted to have him killed. But he was protected by Frederick. It has been said that more books have been written about Luther than about any other person except Jesus Christ. 164 pages, hard cover.
