Introduction to the Study of the Chinese Characters Joseph Edkins, 1876 Sinologism Ming Dong Gu, 2013

Why for centuries have the West and the world continuously produced China knowledge that deviates from Chinese realities Why since the mid nineteenth century have Chinese intellectuals oscillated between commendation and condemnation of their own culture and between fetishization and demonization of all things Western And why have some of the world s wisest thinkers expressed opinions on Chinese culture which are simply wrong In order to answer these questions this book explores the process of knowledge production about China and the Chinese civilization and in turn provides a critique of the ways in which this knowledge is formed Ming Dong Gu argues that the misperceptions and misinterpretations surrounding China and the Chinese civilisation do not simply come from misinformation biases prejudices or political interference but follow certain taken for granted principles that have evolved into a cultural unconscious Indeed Gu argues that the conflicting accounts in China West studies are the inevitable outcome of this cultural unconscious which constitutes the inner logic of a comprehensive knowledge system which he terms Sinologism This book explores Sinologism s origin development characteristics and inner logic and critiques its manifestations in the writings of Chinese Western and non Western thinkers and scholars including Montesquieu Herder Hegel Marx Weber Russell Pound Wang Guowei Guo Moruo Gu Jiegang Wen Yiduo and many others in diverse disciplines from arts and humanities to social sciences In doing so Gu demonstrates why the existing critical models are inadequate for Chinese materials and makes an attempt to construct an alternative theory to Orientalism and postcolonialism for China West studies and cross cultural studies Sinologism crosses over the subjects of history thought literature language art archaeology religion aesthetics and cultural theory and will appeal to students and scholars of East West studies with a particular focus on China as well as those interested in cultural theory more broadly

Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 Muslim Sanzijing Roberta Tontini, 2016-06-21 In Muslim Sanzijing Shifts and Continuities in the Definition of Islam in China 1710 2010 Roberta Tontini traces the development of Islam and Islamic law in the country while responding to two enduring questions in China's intellectual history: How was the Muslim sharia reconciled with Confucianism? How was knowledge of Islamic social and ritual norms popularized to large segments of Chinese Muslim society even in periods of limited literacy? Through a comprehensive study that includes a rigorous analysis of popular Chinese Islamic primers belonging to the Sanzijing tradition, Tontini offers fresh insights on the little-known intellectual and legal history of Islam on Chinese soil to convincingly demonstrate its evolving quality in response to changing social norms.

In addition to current approaches to WE research, this book proposes a novel theoretical and analytical framework based on classical Chinese and Western philosophies. The volume has an empirical basis drawing upon interview and questionnaire survey data from proficient speakers of Chinese English. It is also based on an extensive review of the relevant literature on both WE and Chinese English and it draws upon the author's research experience of over two decades on the subject.
