Machine Wreckers:

Representing Social Precarity in German Literature and Film Sophie Duvernoy, Karsten Olson, Ulrich Plass, 2023-10-05 Using Germany as a national case study this volume examines the historical genesis of precarity its evolution from 19th century industrial modernity to the present and its reflections and reconfigurations in artistic production in particular with relation to work gender and sexuality Precarity is everywhere now sociologist Pierre Bourdieu declared almost thirty years ago Not only declining middle class standards of living but also debt drug addiction housing and food insecurity depression and deaths of despair are now being recognized as symptoms of the downward pull of social precarity Although these and similar ills have been attributed to neoliberal policies of deregulation privatization and willful neglect of the common good precarization has accompanied the booms and busts of industrial modernity from its beginnings

Representing Social Precarity in German Literature and Film explores how German and Austrian literature film and social history have engaged with social precarity from the period of Romanticism and early industrialization to the present The chapters in this volume deal with precarity as both an objective phenomenon reflected in literary and filmic representations and as a subjective phenomenon that gives these representations their particular shape Representing Social Precarity in German Literature and Film opens new critical perspectives on diverse forms of lived precarity and their creative manifestations by reflecting on the history of capitalist modernity from the vantage points of weakness vulnerability marginality impoverishment and otherness
