Exhibition catalogue 100 Works in 100 Years European Women in Architecture and Design 1918 2018 brings together a selection of some of the most significant and representative examples of European architecture and design created by 100 women from the end of the First World War up until today The number of works is symbolic as one hundred could also mean countless as in the Latin word centium While the number of authors each work has a different author derives from MoMoWo s choice to represent many different creators consequently popularising lesser known figures too It includes biographies of women architects civil engineers furniture and industrial designers urban planners interior and landscape designers It represents the main trends and major schools of architecture and design all over Europe The biographical data covers education and training professional histories networks women have operated in including informal societies memberships in trade bodies and associations their profile as international national local and regional designers as well as looking at how women have promoted their work i e in exhibitions publications competition entries etc The catalogue entries are followed by thirteen thematic essays on women architects and designers and by the outdoor exhibition catalogue Women's Tale A Reportage on Women Designers where photographs by ten finalists of the MoMoWo Photo competition are presented By seeking to identify women who worked in Europe as well as European women who worked outside Europe over last 100 years the main aim of this catalogue is to increase the awareness of historians and the general public about their enormous contribution to architecture and design and indirectly providing accessibility to their works _____
