Music. Accessions, pt.[1]-94 British museum dept. of pr. books, 1884 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1975 Edward MacDowell's European Piano Music Paul Bertagnolli, 2024-09-10 Edward MacDowell's European Piano Music is a critical study of the piano music that MacDowell composed during his European sojourn 1876 1888 steeped in reception history and with a special emphasis of programmaticism The book expands current knowledge of MacDowell's childhood in four of the chapters based on his previously uninvestigated sheet music collection thereby achieving a better balance among the stages of MacDowell's life than is evident in most books of the life and works variety. Prolific contemporaneous music criticism meticulously preserved in MacDowell's scrapbooks is likewise undervalued in the MacDowell literature but it furnishes penetrating observations about the expressive and programmatic content of numerous compositions especially as it was revealed to critics when MacDowell performed his own works. Lastly the book offers explanations for why MacDowell immersed himself in European culture for decades and then at a crucial juncture in his career embraced diverse American heritages and worked toward a conception of a pluralistic music that was American in a creative sense. The book's content and methodology would appeal most directly to specialists within the broad fields of musicology and music theory particularly within American art music and its composers, nineteenth century music program music, reception history and piano literature.

Piano Works Paul Dukas, 2013-12-18 The composer's two piano transcription of his famous symphony includes four additional works: Piano Sonata Prélude l'agreste Variations interlude et final sur un thème de Rameau and La plainte au loin du faune.

A Descriptive Catalogue of the Music Collection at Burghley House, Stamford Gerald Gifford, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2002. Burghley House, Stamford, was built between 1555 and 1587 for William Cecil, Lord Burghley, the Lord High Treasurer to Queen Elizabeth I. The library there contains an extensive collection of manuscript and printed music dating from about 1650 to 1850, substantially formed during the latter part of the 18th century by the Ninth Earl of Exeter. The collection is given particular significance by the inclusion of several rare and in some cases apparently unique volumes. This catalogue examines the Burghley House music collection in the light of contemporary documentary evidence. The opening section describes the people who added to the collection and their musical enthusiasms. This approach brings the collection to life and also enables us to appreciate emergent trends in British music history of the period. With each entry fully described and the printed music referenced to RISM or CPM, this catalogue should form a valuable reference source for all scholars of British music from the 17th to the 19th century.
