A Transnational History of the Australian Animal Movement, 1970-2015 Gonzalo Villanueva,2017-10-20 This book offers the first transnational historical study of the creation contention and consequences of the Australian animal movement Largely inspired by Peter Singer and his 1975 book Animal Liberation a new wave of animal activism emerged in Australia and across the world In an effort to draw public and media attention to the plight of animals such as the rearing of pigs and poultry in factory farms and the export of live animals to the Middle East and South East Asia Australian activists were often innovative and provocative in how they made their claims Through lobbying disruptive methods and vegan activism the animal movement consistently contested the politics and culture of how animals were used and exploited Australians not only observed and learnt from people and events overseas but also played significant international roles This book examines the complex and conflicting consequences of the animal movement for Australian politics as well as its influence on broader social change

The Stage Lives of Animals Una Chaudhuri,2016-10-04 The Stage Lives of Animals examines what it might mean to make theatre beyond the human In this stunning collection of essays Una Chaudhuri engages with the alternative modes of thinking feeling and making art offered by animals and animality bringing insights from theatre practice and theory to animal studies as well as exploring what animal studies can bring to the study of theatre and performance As our planet lives through what scientists call the sixth extinction and we become ever more aware of our relationships to other species Chaudhuri takes a highly original look at the animal imagination of well known plays performances and creative projects including works by Caryl Churchill Rachel Rosenthal Marina Zurkow Edward Albee Tennessee Williams Eugene Ionesco Covering over a decade of explorations a wide range of writers and many urgent topics this volume demonstrates that an interspecies imagination deeply structures modern western drama

Critical Theory and Animal Liberation John Sanbonmatsu, 2011-01-16 Critical Theory and Animal Liberation is the first collection to approach our relationship with other animals from the critical or left tradition in political and social thought Breaking with past treatments that have framed the problem as one of animal rights the authors instead depict the exploitation and killing of other animals as a political question of the first order The contributions highlight connections between our everyday treatment of animals and other forms of social power mass violence and domination from capitalism and patriarchy to genocide fascism and ecocide Contributors include well known writers in the field as well as scholars in other areas writing on animals for the first time Among other things the authors apply Freud's theory of repression to our relationship to the animal debunk the Locavore movement expose the sexism of the animal defense movement and point the way toward a new transformative politics that would encompass the human and animal alike
