Necrogeopolitics Caroline Alphin,François Debrix,2019-10-08 Necrogeopolitics On Death and Death Making in International Relations brings together a diverse array of critical IR scholars political theorists critical security studies researchers and critical geographers to provide a series of interventions on the topic of death and death making in global politics Contrary to most existing scholarship this volume does not place the emphasis on traditional sources or large scale configurations of power force leading to death in IR Instead it details theorizes and challenges more mundane perhaps banal and often ordinary modalities of violence perpetrated against human lives and bodies and often contributing to horrific instances of death and destruction Concepts such as slow death soft killing superfluous bodies or extra ordinary destruction disappearance are brought to the fore by prominent voices in these fields alongside more junior creative thinkers to rethink the politics of life and death in the global polity away from dominant IR or political theory paradigms about power force and violence The volume features chapters that offer thought provoking reconsiderations of key concepts theories and practices about death and death making along with other chapters that seek to challenge some of these concepts theories or practices in settings that include the Palestinian territories Brazilian cities displaced population flows from the Middle East sites of immigration policing in North America and spaces of welfare politics in Scandinavian states

How to Learn Danish (Dano-Norwegian). ... Elise C. Otté,1887 National Identity and the Varieties of Capitalism John L. Campbell,John A. Hall,Ove Kaj Pedersen,2006 Denmark has out performed most other advanced capitalist countries since the mid 1980s Contributors to National Identity and the Varieties of Capitalism draw from the literature on capitalism and small states and corporatism to explore why this is the case They find that Danish political and economic institutions facilitate bargaining and consensus building in ways that have enabled the state businesses and labour unions to adapt to the challenges of globalization Moreover by virtue of its small size homogeneous population and response to a variety of international challenges both economic and geopolitical Denmark has developed a strong national identity that further bolsters consensus building The result has been an adaptable and flourishing national political economy
