Of Mice Men:

Of Mice and Men John Steinbeck, 2024-03-26 Of Mice and Men is a novella written by John Steinbeck first published in 1937. Set during the Great Depression in California, it tells the story of two displaced migrant ranch workers, George Milton and Lennie Small, who are trying to make a living during tough economic times. George is a small, quick-witted man, while Lennie is a physically strong but mentally disabled man with a childlike innocence. The two have a close bond, with George serving as a protector and caretaker for Lennie. The story follows their journey as they seek employment and dream of owning their own piece of land, which they call a little farm where they can live off the fat of the land. However, their dreams are constantly threatened by the harsh realities of their circumstances and the cruelty of the world around them. The novella explores themes of friendship, loneliness, isolation, and the harshness of society, as well as the plight of marginalized individuals during the Great Depression. It is a poignant and timeless work that continues to resonate with readers due to its powerful portrayal of human relationships and the struggle for survival.

Of Mice and Men John Steinbeck, 1937 THE STORY Two drifters, George and his friend Lennie, with delusions of living off the fat of the land, have just arrived at a ranch to work for enough money to buy their own place. Lennie is a man-child, a little boy in the body of a dangerous.

reality when Candy offers to pitch in 350 with George and Lennie so that they can buy a farm at the end of the month in return for permission to live with them The trio are ecstatic but their joy is overshadowed when Curley attacks Lennie who defends himself by easily crushing Curley's fist while urged on by George Nevertheless George feels more relaxed to the extent that he even leaves Lennie behind on the ranch while he goes into town with the other ranch hands Lennie wanders into the stable and chats with Crooks the bitter yet educated stable buck who is isolated from the other workers due to being black Candy finds them and they discuss their plans for the farm with Crooks who cannot resist asking them if he can hoe a garden patch on the farm albeit scorning its possibility Curley's wife makes another appearance and flirts with the men especially Lennie However her spiteful side is shown when she belittles them and threatens to have Crooks lynched The next day Lennie accidentally kills his puppy while stroking it Curley's wife enters the barn and tries to speak to Lennie admitting that she is lonely and how her dreams of becoming a movie star are crushed revealing her personality After finding out about Lennie's habit she offers to let him stroke her hair but panics and begins to scream when she feels his strength Lennie becomes frightened and unintentionally breaks her neck thereafter and runs away When the other ranch hands find the corpse they form into a lynch mob intent on killing him then send for the police before beginning the search George then quickly realizes that their dream is at an end and hurries to find Lennie hoping he will be at the meeting place they designated in case he got into trouble the riverbank where they camped at the start of the book George meets Lennie at their camping spot before they came to the ranch The two sit together and George retells the beloved story of the dream despite knowing it is something they will never share Upon hearing the lynch mob near them George shoots Lennie knowing it to be a more merciful death than that at the hands of a mob Curley Slim and Carlson arrive seconds after Only Slim realizes what happened and consolingly leads him away Curley and Carlson look on unable to comprehend the subdued mood of the two men
