

WORLD POEMS

- If I Were In Charge Of The World

If I were in charge of the world
I'd cancel oatmeal,

- I Dream A World

I dream a world where man
No other man will scorn,

- After All

The brooding ghosts of Australian night have gone from the bush and town...

- Let Peace Prevail In This World.....

When you look for peace
then the peace lies within you

- God's World

O world, I cannot hold thee close enough!
Thy winds, thy wide grey skies!

- The Statue

The story's told
Of long ago

- - - My Stella - -54

What wilt the world say about our love so unlike the nature?
Let the world anticipate and speak wrong of us,

- A Woman

In the world of Saints
I would have been an Angel.

This collection of essays explores the rhetoric and practices surrounding views on life after death and the end of the world, including the fate of the individual, apocalyptic speculation, and hope for cosmological renewal in a wide range of societies from Ancient Mesopotamia to the Byzantine era. The 42 essays by leading scholars in each field explore the rich spectrum of ways in which eschatological understanding can be expressed and for which purposes it can be used. Readers will gain new insight into the historical contexts, details, functions, and impact of eschatological ideas and imagery in ancient texts and material culture from the twenty fifth century BCE to the ninth century CE. Traditionally the study of eschatology and related concepts has been pursued mainly by scholars of Jewish and Christian scripture. By broadening the disciplinary scope but remaining within the clearly defined geographical milieu of the Mediterranean, this volume enables its readers to note comparisons and contrasts as well as exchanges of thought and transmission of eschatological ideas across Antiquity. Cross referencing, high quality illustrations, and extensive indexing contribute to a rich resource on a topic of contemporary interest and relevance. Eschatology in Antiquity is aimed at readers from a wide range of academic disciplines as well as non specialists including seminary students and religious leaders. The primary audience will comprise researchers in relevant fields including Biblical Studies Classics and Ancient History Ancient Philosophy Ancient Near Eastern Studies Art History Late Antiquity Byzantine Studies and Cultural Studies Care has been taken to ensure that the essays are accessible to undergraduates and those without specialist knowledge of particular subject areas

Placing Elysium in Renaissance Britain Patrick Cheney, 2025-10-02 Placing Elysium in Renaissance Britain Poetry Politics Theology Eros is the first study of Elysium as a place in English Renaissance culture The absence of such a study in the fields of literature and geography is surprising from its captivating origin in the oceanic margins of Homer's Odyssey to its presence in the Eden of Milton's Paradise Lost Elysium is a destination to be desired it is the land of the blessed As such Elysium becomes a geographical site for an author's most valued space In Britannia Camden provides leadership for this project by citing Plutarch as locating the blessed place in Britain Following Camden Spenser centralizes the idea of Britain as Elysium Subsequently English authors make the Elysian place the site of a liberating sublimity as the height of artistic renown This authorial template becomes the site for literary inflections in the realms of politics theology and eros However Kyd and Marlowe darken the Spenserian project recalling Virgil's geographical positioning of Elysium next to Hell In turn Drayton Chapman and Marston champion the Spenserian idea of Britain as Elysium As this conversation suggests English authors make Elysium the central place of the Renaissance period concept and they do so in the nation building genre of epic In The Muses Elizium Drayton crowns the Spenserian tradition by making the blessed place the monomyth of national poetry At the centre of the monomyth is the cherished ideal of Renaissance culture the Elysian capacity of the human to become divine
