Path To The Spiders Nests:

The Path to the Spiders' Nests Italo Calvino, 2013-04-04 Pin is a bawdy adolescent cobbler's assistant both arrogant and insecure who while the Second World War rages sings songs and tells jokes to endear himself to the grown ups of his town particularly jokes about his sister who they all know as the town's mattress Among those his sister sleeps with is a German sailor and Pin dares to steal his pistol hiding it among the spiders nests in an act of rebellion that entangles him in the adults war The Path to the Nest of Spiders Italo Calvino, 1957 The Path to the Nest of Spiders Italo Calvino, 1976 A young orphan who joins the Italian Resistance against the occupying forces from Germany during World War II discovers some spiders nests in which he hides a gun that he steals from a German soldier Calvino and the Age of Neorealism, 1990-08 Italo Calvino's reputation as one of the great writers of our century rests chiefly on his allegorical fables and fantastic narratives whose inventiveness irreverence and elegant style are universally admired In this study the author focuses on Calvino's first novel The Path to the Nest of Spiders 1947 because in it she discerns a critical point of origin for Calvino's entire ethics of writing She shows how in The Path he challenges the poetics of objectivity of the Italian neorealists movement and offers a complex and ironic representation of the anti Fascist armed resistance in Italy Situating Calvino's early work in its historical and cultural context the author reassesses Italian neorealism in terms of the theories and critical debates about realism of such critics as Lukacs Sartre Brecht Adorno and Barthes She analyzes neorealism's narrative practices and cultural and political implications while setting neorealism in the context of the resistance and the postwar Reconstruction in Italy and giving readings of major neorealist texts novels by Pavese and Vittorini films by Rossellini Visconti and others as well as relatively obscure minor ones The heart of the book consists of readings of The Path from four different but intersecting critical perspectives formalist narratological sociohistorical psychoanalytic and Bakhtinian The readings assess the importance of Calvino's beginnings for the body of his work and incorporate relevant references to his later fiction and critical essays Out of these multiple readings the ironic estrangement of the real through the act of writing itself emerges as his key narratological strategy Memories and Representations of War Elena Lamberti, Vita Fortunati, 2009 The contributors to this volume approach the World Wars as complex and intertwined crossroads leading to the definition of a new European reality While assessing the way the memories of the two World Wars have been readjusted each time in relation to the evolving international historical setting and through various mediators of memory cinema literature art and monuments the various essays contribute to unveil a cultural panorama inhabited by contrasting memories Image, Eye and Art in Calvino Birgitte Grundtvig, 2017-07-05 Few recent writers have been as interested in the cross over between texts and visual art as Italo Calvino 1923-85 Involved for most of his life in the publishing industry he took as much interest in the visual as in the textual aspects of his own and other writers books In this volume twenty international Calvino experts including Barenghi Battistini Belpoliti Hofstadter Ricci Scarpa and others consider the many facets of the interplay between the visual and textual in Calvino's works from the use of colours in his fiction to the influence of cartoons from the graphic qualities of the book covers themselves to the significance of photography and landscape in his fiction and non-fiction. The volume is appropriately illustrated with images evoked by Calvino's major texts. Understanding Italo Calvino Beno Weiss, 1993 Highlights Calvino's fascination with folk tales, knights, social, political allegories, science fiction.

Imagining Mass Dictatorships M. Schoenhals, K. Sarsenov, 2013-08-08 This volume in the series Mass Dictatorship in the Twentieth Century series sees twelve Swedish, Korean and Japanese scholars, theorists and historians of fiction and non-fiction probe the literary subject of life in 20th century mass dictatorships. Kafka's Italian Progeny Saskia Elizabeth Ziolkowski, 2020-01-06 This book explores Kafka's sometimes surprising connections with key Italian writers from Italo Calvino to Elena Ferrante who shaped Italy's modern literary landscape. Politics and the Novel During the Cold War David Caute, 2017-09-08 David Caute's wide-ranging study examines how outstanding novelists of the Cold War era conveyed the major issues of contemporary politics and history. In the United States and Western Europe the political novel flourished in the 1930s and 1940s, the crisis years of economic depression, fascism, the Spanish Civil War, the consolidation of Stalinism and the Second World War. Starting with the high hopes generated by the Spanish Civil War, Caute then explores the god that failed, pessimism that overtook the Western political novel in the 1940s. The writers under scrutiny include Hemingway, Dos Passos, Orwell, Koestler, Malraux, Serge, Greene, de Beauvoir and Sartre. Strikingly different approaches to the burning issues of the time are found among orthodox Soviet novelists such as Sholokhov, Fadeyev, Kochetov and Pavlenko. Soviet official culture continued to choke on modernism, formalism, satire and allegory. In Russia and Eastern Europe, dissident novelists offered contesting voices as they engaged in the fraught re-telling of life under Stalinism. The emergence of the New Left in the 1960s generated a new wave of fiction challenging America's global stance. Mailer, Doctorow and Coover brought fresh literary sensibilities to bear on such iconic events as the 1967 siege of the Pentagon and the execution of the Rosenbergs.

Italo Calvino Italo Calvino, 2013-06-17 The first collection of letters in English by one of the great writers of the twentieth century. This is the first collection in English of the extraordinary letters of one of the great writers of the twentieth century. Italy's most important postwar novelist, Italo Calvino (1923-1995) achieved worldwide fame with such books as Cosmicomics, Invisible Cities and If on a Winter's Night a Traveler. But he was also an influential literary critic, an important literary editor and a masterful letter writer whose correspondents included Umberto Eco, Primo Levi, Gore Vidal, Leonardo Sciascia, Natalia Ginzburg, Michelangelo Antonioni, Pier Paolo Pasolini and Luciano Berio. This book includes a generous selection of about 650 letters written between World War II and the end of Calvino's life. Selected and introduced by Michael Wood, the letters are expertly rendered into English and annotated by well-known Calvino translator Martin McLaughlin. The letters are filled with insights about Calvino's writing and that of others about Italian, American, English and French literature, about literary criticism and literature in general, and about culture and politics. The book also provides a kind of autobiography documenting Calvino's Communism and his resignation from the party in 1957 his eye opening trip to the United States in 1959-60 his move to Paris where he lived from 1967 to 1980 and his trip to his birthplace in Cuba where he met Che Guevara Some lengthy letters amount almost to critical essays while one is an appropriately brief defense of brevity and there is an even shorter reassuring note to his parents written on a scrap of paper while he and his brother were in hiding during the antifascist Resistance This is a book that will fascinate and delight Calvino fans and anyone else interested in a remarkable portrait of a great writer at work Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey, 2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe, 2000 Literature of the Somali Diaspora Marco Medugno, 2024-07-11 The first study of Anglophone and Italian novels by Somali diasporic authors offering a new critical framework for multilingual and transnational analysis of Somali literature Building on the latest scholarship about multilingual contexts diaspora studies and the rapidly expanding field of Italian postcolonial studies Marco Medugno examines Somali diasporic literature with a comparative perspective Considering works written in English and Italian he argues that Somali diasporic authors share similar themes and aesthetics thus creating an interliterary community within the diaspora space By using multilingualism as a starting point Medugno provides significant insights into how Somali national and individual identities are constructed in diasporic global contexts through geography style form language and the re writing of national histories emerging out of colonization and independence Analysing acclaimed Somali novels such as Nuruddin Farah's Links and Crossbones Igiaba Scego's Adua and Cristina Ali Farah's Little Mother he questions any definition of local as provincial instead considering it a site for interrogating global concerns Literature of the Somali Diaspora is organized around three themes spatiality language and resistance help to contextualize authors forced by the decades long Somali Civil War to write outside Somalia and in different languages including Somali Italian English German Dutch and Arabic within global literary circuits Their work thus creates a literature not confined within national borders but an interliterary global community a transnational and multilingual space in which they share world aesthetic ideologies challenge and engage with literary traditions in different languages and show an interplay between diverse cultures

Reconstructing Italy Stephanie Zeier Pilat, 2016-04-08 Reconstructing Italy traces the postwar transformation of the Italian nation through an analysis of the Ina Casa plan for working class housing established in 1949 to address the employment and housing crises Government sponsored housing programs undertaken after WWII have often been criticized as experiments that created more social problems than they solved The neighborhoods of Ina Casa stand out in contrast to their contemporaries both in terms of design and outcome Unlike modernist high rise housing projects of the period Ina Casa neighborhoods are picturesque and human scaled and incorporate local construction materials and methods resulting in a rich aesthetic diversity And unlike many other government forays into housing undertaken during this period the Ina Casa plan was on the whole successful the neighborhoods are still lively and cohesive communities today This book examines what made Ina Casa a success among so many failed housing experiments focusing on the tenuous balance struck between the legislation governing Ina Casa the architects who led the Ina Casa administration the theory of design that guided architects working on the plan and an analysis of the results the neighborhoods and homes constructed Drawing on the writings of the architects government documents and including brief passages from works of neorealist literature and descriptions of neorealist films by Pier Paolo Pasolini Italo Calvino and others this book presents a portrait of the postwar struggle to define a post Fascist Italy

Watching Pages, Reading Pictures Daniela De Pau, Georgina Torello, 2008-12-18 Italian cinema is internationally well known for the ground breaking experience of Neo Realism comedy Italian Style Spaghetti Westerns and the horror movies of the seventies However what is rather unfamiliar to wider audiences is Italian cinema's crucial and enduring affair with literature In fact since the very beginning literature has deeply influenced how Italian cinema has defined itself and grown This book provides an empirical approach to this complex and fruitful relationship The aim is to present discussions dealing with significant Italian film adaptations from literary materials which greatly exemplify the variety of styles view points and attitudes produced by such an alliance throughout the different periods Among the adaptations discussed are those that have followed trends and critical debates making them at times rather problematic
