Judith Ryan

Possessions A Novel:

Possessions John Bernard MacCarthy, 1926 Great Possessions Francis Bancroft, 1919 The Novel After Theory Judith Ryan, 2014-01-01 Novels began to incorporate literary theory in unexpected ways in the late twentieth century Through allusion parody or implicit critique theory formed an additional strand in fiction that raised questions about the nature of authorship and the practice of writing Studying this phenomenon provides fresh insight into the recent development of the novel and the persistence of modern theory beyond the period of its greatest success In this book Judith Ryan opens these questions to a range of readers drawing them into debates over the value of theory Ryan investigates what prompted fiction writers to incorporate and respond to theory nearly thirty years ago Designed for readers unfamiliar with the complexities of theory Ryan's book introduces the discipline's major trends and controversies and notes the salient ideas of a carefully selected set of individual thinkers Ryan follows novelists' adaptation to and engagement with arguments drawn from theory as they translate abstract ideas into language structure and fictional strategy At the core of her book is a fascinating microstudy of French poststructuralism in its dialogue with narrative fiction Investigating theories of textuality psychology and society in the work of Don DeLillo Thomas Pynchon J M Coetzee Margaret Atwood W G Sebald and Umberto Eco as well as Monika Maron Alain Robbe-Grillet Marguerite Duras Marilynne Robinson David Foster Wallace and Christa Wolf Ryan identifies subtle negotiations between author and theory and the richness this dynamic adds to texts Resetting the way we think and learn about literature her book reads current literary theory while uniquely tracing its shaping of a genre

Kristeva's Fiction Benigno Trigo, 2013-09-17 With published work spanning more than forty years Julia Kristeva's influence in psychoanalysis and literary theory is difficult to overstate In addition to this scholarship Kristeva has written several novels however this portion of her oeuvre has received comparatively scant attention In this book Kristeva scholars from a number of disciplines analyze her novels in relation to her work in psychoanalysis interrogating the relationships between fiction and theory The essays explore questions including what is the value of experimental writing that escapes easy definition and classification putting ideas at the same level as character pacing plot suspense form and style And how might such fiction help its readers overcome the psychological maladies that affect contemporary society The contributors make a compelling case for understanding Kristeva's fiction as a crucial influence to her wider psychoanalytic project

A.S. Byatt's Possession Catherine Burgass, 2002-01-11 This is part of a new series of guides to contemporary novels The aim of the series is to give readers accessible and informative introductions to some of the most popular most acclaimed and most influential novels of recent years from The Remains of the Day to White Teeth A team of contemporary fiction scholars from both sides of the Atlantic has been assembled to provide a thorough and readable analysis of each of the novels in question Historical Romance Fiction Lisa Fletcher, 2016-04-22 The first book length study of romance novels to focus on issues of sexuality rather than gender Historical Romance Fiction moves the ongoing debate about the value and appeal of heterosexual romance onto new ground testing the claims of cutting edge critical theorists on everything from popular classics by Georgette Heyer to recent bodice rippers to historical fiction by John Fowles and A S Byatt Beginning with her nomination of I love you as the romance novel's defining speech act Lisa Fletcher engages closely with speech act theory and recent studies of performativity The range of texts serves to illustrate Fletcher's definition of historical romance as a fictional mode dependent on the force and familiarity of the speech act I love you and permits Fletcher to provide a detailed account of the genre's history and development in both its popular and literary manifestations Written from a feminist and anti homophobic perspective Fletcher's subtle arguments about the romantic speech act serve to demonstrate the genre's dependence on repetition Romance can only quote and the shaky ground on which the romance's heterosexual premise rests Her exploration of the subgenre of cross dressing novels is especially revealing in this regard With its deft mix of theoretical arguments and suggestive close readings Fletcher's book will appeal to specialists in genre speech act and performativity theory and gender studies

The Mazo de la Roche Story 2-Book Bundle Mazo de la Roche, Heather Kirk, 2015-11-30 Mazo de la Roche author of the acclaimed Jalna series is revealed in the writings of two luminaries on the subject author Heather Kirk and Mazo herself This bundle unites Kirk's groundbreaking biography of de la Roche with the great Canadian author's memoirs rereleased now after their original 1957 publication Includes Ringling the Changes First published in 1957 Mazo de la Roche's last autobiography is a vivid look at her life in Ontario and a parting shot at her critics A rare insight into the intimate thoughts of Mazo de la Roche and the private life she normally kept hidden The author confesses how strongly she connected with her character Finch Whiteoak her struggles with wanting to be a boy and her complicated relationship with her cousin and adoptive sibling Caroline Mazo de la Roche After the spectacular success of her novel Jalna in 1927 Mazo de la Roche went on to the top of bestseller lists with a series of sixteen novels expanding the story of a Canadian family named the Whiteoaks living in a house called Jalna Her success allowed her to travel the world and live in a mansion near Windsor Castle Mazo created unforgettable characters who come to life for her readers but she was secretive about her own life and tried to escape the public attention her fame brought

Spirit Possession in French, Haitian, and Vodou Thought Alessandra Benedicty-Kokken, 2014-11-12 This book recuperates the important history that Haitian thought around Vodou possession has had in French critical theory The author takes the period of the 1930s and 40s as the centerfold of a more complex network of relations that places Haiti as one of the pivots of a more expanded intellectual conversation around possession which links anthropology literature psychoanalysis human rights and visual arts in France Haiti and the United States Benedicty argues that Haiti as the anthropological other serves as a kick starter to an entire French based theoretical apparatus Breton Leiris Bataille de Certeau Foucault and Butler but once up and running its role as catalyst is forgotten and the multiple iterations of the anthropological other are cast back into the net of Michel Rolph Trouillot's Savage slot The book offers the reader unfamiliar with Haiti a comprehensive interdisciplinary study of twentieth and early twenty first century Haitian thought including a detailed timeline of important moments in the intellectual history that connects Haiti to France and the United States The first part of the book is about global dispossessions in the first decades of the twentieth century the second part points to how the narratives of Haiti are intimately linked to a Franco U S American discursive space constructed over the course of the twentieth century a discursive order that has conflated the representation of Haiti with an understanding of Vodou primarily as an occult religion and not as a philosophical system The third and fourth parts of the book examine how the novels of Ren Depestre Jean Claude Fignol and Kettly Mars have revisited the notion of possession since the fall of the Duvalier dictatorships

Studies in Philosophy Prepared in Commemoration of the Seventieth Birthday of George Holmes Howison Evander Bradley McGilvary, 1904

Women and Personal Property in the Victorian Novel Deborah Wynne, 2016-02-17 How key changes to the married women's property laws contributed to new ways of viewing women in society are revealed in Deborah Wynne's study of literary representations of women and portable property during the period 1850 to 1900 While critical explorations of Victorian women's connections to the material world have tended to focus on their relationships to commodity culture Wynne argues that modern paradigms of consumerism cannot be applied across the board to the Victorian period Until the passing of the 1882 Married Women's Property Act many women lacked full property rights evidence suggests that for women objects often functioned not as disposable consumer products but as cherished personal property Focusing particularly on representations of women and material culture in Charles Dickens George Eliot and Henry James Wynne shows how novelists engaged with the vexed question of women's relationships to property Suggesting that many of the apparently insignificant items that clutter the Victorian realist novel take on new meaning when viewed through the lens of women's access to material culture and the vagaries of property law her study opens up new possibilities for interpreting female characters in Victorian fiction and reveals the complex work of thing culture in literary texts

Writing Backwards Alexander Manshel, 2023-11-21 Finalist 2025 SHARP Book History Book Prize Society for the Study of the History of Authorship Reading and Publishing Contemporary fiction has never been less contemporary Midcentury writers tended to set their works in their own moment but for the last several decades critical acclaim and attention have fixated on historical fiction This shift is particularly dramatic for writers of color Even as the literary canon has become more diverse cultural institutions have celebrated Black Asian American Latinx and Indigenous novelists almost exclusively for their historical fiction Writing Backwards explores what the dominance of historical fiction in the contemporary canon reveals about American literary culture Alexander Manshel investigates the most celebrated historical genres contemporary narratives of slavery the World War II novel the multigenerational family saga immigrant fiction and the novel of recent history alongside the literary and academic institutions that have elevated them He examines novels by writers including Toni Morrison Viet Thanh Nguyen Colson Whitehead Julia Alvarez Leslie Marmon Silko Michael Chabon Julie Otsuka Yaa Gyasi Ben Lerner and Tommy Orange in the context of MFA programs literary prizes university syllabi book clubs and the National Endowment for the Arts Manshel studies how historical fiction has evolved over the last half century documenting the formation of the newly inclusive literary canon as well as who and what it still excludes Offering new insight into how institutions shape literature and the limits of historical memory Writing Backwards also considers recent challenges to the historical turn in American fiction Possession Markandaya,Kamala, Revenge of the Nerds: Official Novel by Steve Zacharias Steve Zacharias, Revenge of the Nerds the novel based on the original screenplay created by Steve Zacharias and Jeff Buhai Fiction Catalog ,1928 The Fiction of A.S. Byatt Louisa Hadley,2017-09-16 This Guide examines the key critical responses to Byatt s fiction both her novels and short stories tracing the wider debates about realism postmodernism and feminism with which they engage The Guide also explores the themes which are central to Byatt s work such as her depiction of writer figures and her conception of artistic vision Spirit Possession around the World Joseph P. Laycock,2015-05-26 This book provides a fascinating historical and cultural overview of traditional beliefs about spirit possession and exorcism around the world from Europe to Asia and the Middle East to the Americas Possession and exorcism are elements that occur in nearly every culture Why is belief in spiritual possession so universal This accessible reference volume offers a broad sample of the traditions and cultures involving possession and exorcism presenting thoughts on this widely popular topic by experts from the fields of anthropology sociology religious studies history neuroscience forensics and theology The entries cover the subject of possession and exorcism across all inhabited continents from the Bronze Age to the 21st century providing information that is accessible and intriguing as well as scholarly and authoritative Beyond addressing the Christian tradition of possession and exorcism Pentecostalism and New Age and less widely known Western concepts about possession and exorcism this work examines ideas about possession and exorcism from other world religions and the indigenous cultures of Asia Africa and the Americas It also covers historic cases of possession and presents biographies of famous theologians exorcists and possessed individuals High school and undergraduate readers will learn about world history religious and spiritual traditions and world cultures through a topic that figures prominently in popular culture and modern entertainment Bibliographies that accompany each entry as well as a selected general bibliography serve to help students locate print and electronic sources of additional information Possession of Land Mark Wonnacott,2006-10-26 Nothing is more important in English land law than possession It is the foundation of all title rights and remedies But what exactly is it and why does it still matter This book first published in 2006 is about the meaning significance and practical effect of the concept of possession in contemporary land law It explains the different meanings of possession the relationship between possession and title and the ways in which the common law and equity do and do not protect possession The rights and remedies of freeholders tenants and mortgage lenders between themselves and against third parties are all to some extent dependent on questions of status and possession This book shows how It is designed to provide an understanding of the basic principles for the student and answers to difficult real problems for the practitioner Historical Fiction Chronologically and Historically Related James Ross Kaye, 1920 The Canadian Teacher ... Gideon E. Henderson, Matthew Parkinson, 1911 The Oxford Encyclopedia of British Literature David Scott Kastan, 2006-03-03 From folk ballads to film scripts this new five volume encyclopedia covers the entire history of British literature from the seventh century to the present focusing on the writers and the major texts of
