Chiasson,1995-09-30 Throughout American history the press has been incredibly adept at making the public aware The history of the press in crisis situations is in many ways the story of public attitudes and the story of America This book looks at the press over time and the way it has functioned in times of crisis It considers press coverage of 13 events spanning a time frame that includes the birth of the nation its political economic and social struggles as a young country and its civil war It tells how a young agrarian society grew into an industrial giant and how it changed from isolationist to a world power It relates how this country coped with the growth of socialism two world wars civil unrest and with the problem of world overpopulation The American press has performed various functions throughout the years The Colonial Press served as a vehicle of discussion debate and finally agitation and in the process may have defined itself and laid a groundwork for the press s future roles The press has agitated advocated and persuaded It has been duped it has been unfair and it has misled This volume considers such concepts as advocacy journalism a central theme of the chapters on abolitionists and David Duke and social responsibility a primary part of the chapter on Japanese American internment The press s attempt to lead public opinion is the focus of the chapters on the partisan press the antebellum period and the first Red Scare in 1919 The chapter on Joseph McCarthy looks at the concepts of objectivity and the use and misuse of pseudo news The final chapter on overpopulation deals extensively with agenda setting Editors Make War Donald E. Reynolds,2006 Using editorials published in 196 newspapers before the outbreak of the Civil War Donald E Reynolds shows the evolution of the editors viewpoints and explains how editors helped influence the traditionally conservative and nationalistic South to revolt and secede Southwestern Historical Quarterly ,1994 Historic Hunt County Milton Babb,2010 An illustrated history of Hunt County Texas paired with histories of the local companies The Texas Outlook ,1923 A History of Texas and Texans Frank White Johnson,1916 A History of Texas and Texans Francis White Johnson,1914 Texas Educational History ,1979 A Short History of Writing Instruction James Jerome Murphy,2012 A Short History of Writing Instruction preserves the legacy of writing instruction from antiquity to contemporary times with a unique focus on the material educational and institutional context of the Western rhetorical tradition School & Society James McKeen Cattell,Will Carson Ryan,Raymond Walters,1917 Blacks in East Texas History Bruce A. Glasrud,Archie P. McDonald,2008 Founded in 1962 the East Texas Historical Journal began accepting articles on African American history at a time when most scholarly journals considered the topic out of the mainstream at best Since that beginning the journal has published some forty articles in the field Now Bruce A Glasrud and Archie P McDonald have gathered a collection of some of the best articles on black history from the East Texas Historical Journal their samplings span the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and cover the principal themes and topics of African American history in the eastern portion of the Lone Star State The book concludes with a listing of all articles on African American history from the East Texas Historical Journal Blacks in East Texas History will enlighten and inform students and scholars of regional and African American history as well as those interested in the trials and progress of African Americans in the American South and Southwest America, History and Life ,1996 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide School and Society ,1917 School & Society ,1917 School and Society James McKeen Cattell,Raymond Walters,1917 Rhetoric at the Margins David Gold,2008-03-06 Rhetoric at the Margins Revising the History of Writing Instruction in American Colleges 1873 1947 examines the rhetorical education of African American female and working class college students in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The rich case studies in this work encourage a reconceptualization of both the history of rhetoric and composition and the ways we make use of it Author David Gold uses archival materials to study three types of institutions historically underrepresented in disciplinary histories a black liberal arts college in rural East Texas Wiley College a public women s college Texas Woman s University and an independent teacher training school East Texas Normal College The case studies complement and challenge previous disciplinary histories and suggest that the epistemological schema that have long applied to pedagogical practices may actually limit our understanding of those practices Gold argues that each of these schools championed intellectual and pedagogical traditions that differed from the Eastern liberal arts model a model that often serves as the standard bearer for rhetorical education He demonstrates that by emphasizing community uplift and civic participation and attending to local needs these schools created contexts in which otherwise moribund curricular features of the era such as strict classroom discipline and an emphasis on prescription took on new possibilities Rhetoric at the Margins describes the recent revisionist turn in rhetoric and composition historiography argues for the importance of diverse institutional microhistories and argues that the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries offer rich lessons for contemporary classroom practice The study brings alive the voices of black female rural Southern and first generation college students and their instructors effectively linking these histories to the history of rhetoric and writing Appendices include excerpts of important and rarely seen primary source material allowing readers to experience in fuller detail the voices captured in this work
