Torture in a Civilised Way: My Own Real Case History Dr. Sammy Khan, 2014-10-23 My book describe my own real legal mental case which took place when I was working as not ethnic medical doctor general practitioner for the NHS in a small town in a civilized western European country The Book describe how the legal part of my case was fabricated and run for several years by a single arrogant and dishonest local police officer with the help from few arrogant and racists social workers from the local welfare and a biased police court magistrate after 10 years of my practice because of my disagreements disputes and quarrels with them defending the equal legal and social rights of large number my patients from the Middle East and Turkey and large number of ethnics from street gangs who were poor needy social clients of the welfare with very hard complicated psycho social legal problems Also my Book describes how the mental part of my case was created describing how my mental evaluations were made by biased incompetent racist and dishonest evaluators using shockingly wrong methods and procedures which totally deviated from all known international guidelines and recommendations for making proper and fair mental assessment of a defendant for court I explain my case and my claims reference to published international methods and standards My Book shows how my incorrectly obtained mental findings were presented and explained in courts only by the police prosecutor where the judging people and the prosecutor were totally blank even in basal psychology and psychiatry and mental evaluations when the evaluators were absent during the trials My case shows that even in a civilized European democratic country corruption and racial behaviors are found and practiced by the authorities and the common public towards the minorities or specific types of people and their social and legal rights My case shows how mental evaluations and their findings can be abused by all parts involved in a legal mental case to achieve specific purposes My case shows how the bias the incompetence and the dishonest behaviors of the mental evaluators are added to the unreliability invalidity and the inaccuracies found in present time psychological tests and the mental diagnostic systems can magnify the harmful consequences on the evaluated when mental evaluations are abused to achieve specific purposes Dr Sammy Khan MD Oct 2014 Introduction to the Law of Real Property Harry Augustus Bigelow, 1919 Working with Real People Brian M. American Standup Comedy examines Black standup comedy over the past decade as a stage for understanding why notions of racial authenticity in essence appeals to realness and real Blackness emerge as a cultural imperative in African American culture. Ethnographic observations and interviews with Black comedians ground this telling providing a narrative arc of key historical moments in the new millennium. Readers will understand how and why African American comics invoke realness to qualify nationalist 9 11 discourses and grapple with the racial entailments of the war. Overcome a sense of racial despair in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. Critique Michael Richards' Kramer's notorious rant at The Laugh Factory and subsequent attempts to censor their use of the n word and reconcile the politics of a real in their own and other Black folks' everyday lives. Additionally, readers will hear through audience murmurs, hisses, and boos how beliefs about racial authenticity are intensely class wrought and fraught. Moreover, they will appreciate how context remains ever critical to when and why African American comics and audiences lobby for and/or lampoon jokes that differentiate the real from the fake or Black folks from so-called niggahs. Context and racial vulnerability are critical to understanding how and why allusions to racial authenticity persist in the African American comedic and cultural imagination. The Real Policeman by Ron

Owens, 2013-09-12 This book leads you down the not-so-hallowed halls of law enforcement of four decades ago. It gives you an extra set of eyes and ears in the roll call lineups in the patrol cars and detective cruisers on the radio calls in the streets and in the interview rooms in the chases, arrests, gunfights, fist fights, hostage situations, and investigations—not on a movie set but the real thing. You experience the sights, the sounds, the smells of a cop's days and nights. You hear their words and those of the victims, witnesses, and suspects when they're not reading from a screenwriter's script or posturing for the cameras of a reality show. It is populated not with fictional creations but real characters by every definition of those words. The events, emotions, and language are all served raw, no dressing, no garnish. The rookies' enthusiasm and optimism, the experienced veterans' cynicism, the boredom of routine, the thrill of the pursuit, the satisfaction of a job well done, the frustration when events go bad, the anger, the hilarity, the dark and irreverent sense of humor—all pathways to the Ph.D. in Human Nature every street cop receives in a big city. Responding to Domestic Violence by Eve S. Buzawa, Carl G. Buzawa, Evan D.

Stark, 2015-10-01 This new edition of the bestselling Responding to Domestic Violence explores the response to domestic violence today not only by the criminal justice system but also by public and non-profit social service and health care agencies. Focusing on both victims and offenders, the book includes unique chapters on models for judicial intervention, domestic violence and health, and children and domestic violence. In addition, this edition provides an in-depth discussion of the concept of coercive control in domestic violence and its importance in understanding victim needs.
