Academy,1929      European Union and New Regionalism Mario Telò,2013-03-28 Stemming from an international and multidisciplinary network of leading specialists this best selling text is fully updated with new chapter additions With the first edition prepared at the end of the last century this new edition anticipates the world of regionalism as we move further into this millennium This new edition offers A vigorous response to conventional wisdom on EU international identity An exploration of key issues of regionalism versus globalization and the potential for world economic and political governance through regionalism A key resource for postgraduate or undergraduate study and research of international relations European studies comparative politics and international political economy Taking into account the expanded European Union the volume comprises contributions from established scholars in the field to highlight external relations in the framework of the development of regional arrangements within the globalized world of the 21st century      Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady,2012-12-06 Reader s Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study      European Union and New Regionalism Professor Mario Telò,2014-08-28 Stemming from an international and multidisciplinary network of leading specialists this best selling text is fully updated with new chapter additions With the first edition prepared at the end of the last century and the second edition adding inter regional relations this new edition focuses on competing models of regional cooperation within a multipolar world and the role of the European Union      New Regionalism and the European Union Alex Warleigh-Lack,Nick Robinson,Ben Rosamond,2011-06-01 The debates on regionalism have been polarized between European Union EU scholars and non EU scholars with the assumption being that regionalism within the EU and other regions of the world are quite distinct with little to be learnt from dialogue with each other This book challenges such assumptions and calls for a genuine debate between scholars of regionalism This book demonstrates that more can and needs to be learned about regional integration all over the world through comparison and reflection on specific regional trends Beginning with a theoretically driven introduction leading experts in the field are brought together to offer a series of case studies on regional integration within Latin America Africa Asia North America and Europe In Part III the authors investigate the links between the EU and selected other regional organisations and processes exploring the dynamics through which these interregional relations are developing and the implications they have for the study of contemporary regionalism regionalisation both inside and beyond the continent of Europe The conclusions set out a challenging research agenda for comparative studies in the field Addressing one of the under explored aspects of EU studies the EU s coexistence with other pan continental regional organisations in the European continent this book will be of interest to students and scholars of regionalism IPE European Studies and international politics

Rebecca Harding Davis and American Realism Sharon M. Harris,1991-06 From the late 1860s until her death in 1910

Rebecca Harding Davis was one of the best known writers in America She broke into print as a young woman in the 1860s with Life in the Iron Mills which established her as one of the pioneers of American realism She developed a literary theory of the commonplace nearly two decades before William Dean Howells shaped his own version of the concept Yet in spite of her importance to the literary and popular culture of her time she has been for the most part ignored by scholars Rebecca Harding Davis and American Realism helps to change that

Resisting Regionalism Donna M. Campbell, 1997 Despite such prickly themes according to Donna Campbell local color fiction fulfilled some specific needs of the public for nostalgia for a retreat into mildly exotic locales for a semblance of order preserved in ritual

Ukraine's Foreign and Security Policy 1991-2000 Roman Wolczuk, 2002-10-17 This book analyses Ukraine's relations with each of its neighbours in the 1990s It examines the degree to which these relations fitted into Ukraine's broad objective of reorienting its key political ties from East to West and assesses the extent to which Ukraine succeeded in achieving this reorientation It shows how in the early days of independence Ukraine fought off threats from Russia and Romania to its territorial integrity and how it made progress in establishing good relations with its western neighbours as a means of moving closer towards Central European sub regional and European regional organisations It also shows how the sheer breadth and depth of its economic and military ties to Russia continued to exert such a strong influence that relations with Russia dwarfed Ukraine's relations with all other neighbours resulting in a foreign and security policy which attempted to counterbalance the competing forces of East and West

A Sense of Place Christian Riegel, 1998-03 A re evaluation of regionalism in Canadian and American writing A Sense of Place provides a comparative approach to the issue within a continental framework The contributors to this collection including Frank Davey Marjorie Pryse and Jonathan Hart look at a broad range of writers They explore regionalism on both sides of the border in light of the central political cultural literary and theoretical debates of our times

Regional Realism and Regional Magazines in the American 1890s Peter Edward Benson, 1978

Eurasian Regionalisms and Russian Foreign Policy Mikhail A. Molchanov, 2016-03-03 Bridging foreign policy analysis and international political economy this volume offers a new look at the problem of agency in comparative regional integration studies It examines evolving regional integration projects in the Eurasian space defined as the former Soviet Union countries and China and the impact that Russian foreign policy has had on integration in the region Mikhail Molchanov argues that new regionalism in Eurasia should be seen as a reactive response to contemporary challenges that these developing states face in the era of globalization Regional integration in this part of the world treads the unknown waters and may not simply repeat the early steps in the evolution of the European Union The question of a hegemonic leadership in particular as exercised by a country that spearheads regional integration efforts animates much of the discussion offered in the book Moreover Eurasian regionalisms are plural phenomena because of complementary and competing projects that engage the same or partially overlapping groups of countries By combining foreign policy studies with an examination of the international political economy of regionalism in Eurasia the author furthers our understanding of new regionalism both theoretically and empirically
