Reality Through the Arts Dennis J. Sporre, 2006 For One Semester Introduction to the Humanities and General Humanities courses Reality Through the Arts provides a comprehensive introduction that covers both arts history and aesthetic perception in western and non western cultures by covering all the artistic disciplines drawing painting printmaking photography sculpture architecture theatre music dance cinema and literature Reality Through the Arts is a brief text ideal for the one semester introduction to humanities course This is a successful text because of its unique organization which makes it an excellent alternative to the standard chronological organization found in most other humanities text Part I The Media of the Arts offers independent chapters on two dimensional art drawing painting printmaking and photography sculpture architecture music theatre cinema dance and literature Part II The Styles of the Arts is a brief chronology focusing on styles rather than encyclopedic detail The book is written at a level for students with little or no background in the arts and draws on author Dennis Sporre s nearly 50 years experience with the arts in the classroom and around the world

Reality Through the Arts Sporre, 2000-07 This book teaches the basic principles and practices of the arts drawing painting printmaking photography sculpture architecture music theatre cinema dance and literature both in Western culture and cultures outside the Western tradition Designed for those who have limited experience in the arts the text is divided into two parts Part one examines the media of the arts by defining and explaining important terminology discussing how works are composed and suggesting ways in which art effects responses in viewers and listeners Arranged chronologically Part 2 samples art from a variety of cultures focusing on style as a reflection of expression and meaning Page 4 of cover Arts-Fine Arts ,2006 Studyguide for Reality Through the Arts by Sporre, Dennis J. Cram101

Wimpenny,2014-11-27 This book outlines the principles and practices of arts related inquiry and provides both suggestions about conducting research in the field as well as case study examples The ideas presented here have emerged from the authors own experiences of undertaking arts related research and the challenges of implementing these approaches The book therefore draws on personal research practice and experience to address the concerns academics increasingly appear to be voicing about developing the scholarship and practice of arts related research There is a need for greater attention to and clarity on issues of theoretical positioning methodology and methods when conducting robust and reputable arts related research which this book provides Children, Meaning-Making and the Arts Susan Wright,2015-05-20 This Australian text is about children s voices their minds feelings souls It s about how children s voices are liberated through the arts and how children make and communicate meaning through still and moving images sounds textures gestures and the use of many other signs It is also about how teachers parents peers and the community influence children s early development and how quality arts education in early childhood is an essential component of lifelong learning The authors are teachers and researchers who are respected for their contributions to early childhood arts education All of them have addressed their topics via practical examples which are embedded in current philosophies and theories often stemming from original research and firsthand interactions with children

Moral Upbringing through the Arts and Literature Pawel Kazmierczak,Jolanta Rzegocka,2018-12-17 Mark Twain the great American writer of the South whose characters struggle with difficult choices famously said Always do what is right It will gratify half of mankind and astound the other Taking Twain s phrase as a starting point this book considers how literature and art explore different systems of values and principles of conduct and how they can teach us to cope at times of trial Morality remains one of the most contested areas of thought and ethics in the modern world due to numerous misapprehensions and the move away from solidarity from what we share and hold in common particularly our inherent pursuit of virtue and consideration of principles concerning the distinction between right and wrong good and bad Featuring essays by scholars from countries which have seen traditions of virtue and character formation perish in the course of tragic social experiments this book highlights the role of literature and arts in educating about virtues and character in both a regional and global context The volume offers philosophical analysis of moral education and engages with the literary canon discussing the ways in which virtue was taught and can still be taught with Aristotle as one of the regained tools of learning The essays span countries from England Spain Italy and Belgium to the USA Costa Rica ancient China and Israel with Poland the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth and Central Europe receiving considerable coverage They address themes of virtue and character formation from the Bronze Age to the present and serve as inspiring reading for educators literary scholars historians ethicists artists and active readers
