Really Ground Zero 11 September Und Folgendes:

9/11 in European Literature Svenja Frank, 2017-11-28 This volume looks at the representation of 9 11 and the resulting wars in European literature In the face of inner European divisions the texts under consideration take the terror attacks as a starting point to negotiate European as well as national identity While the volume shows that these identity formations are frequently based on the construction of two Others the US nation and a cultural ethnic idea of Muslim communities it also analyses examples which undermine such constructions This much more self critical strand in European literature unveils the Eurocentrism of a supposedly general humanistic value system through the use of complex aesthetic strategies These strategies are in itself characteristic of the European reception as the Anglo Irish British Dutch Flemish French German Italian and Polish perspectives collected in this volume perceive of the terror attacks through the lens of continental media and semiotic theory

Crime and Madness in Modern Austria Rebecca S. Thomas, 2021-02-03 This collection of essays explores the changing history rhetoric politics and representation of crime and madness in modern Austria From the emergence of Viennese modernism to the post modern moment the myths metaphors and realities of crime and madness have unfolded in the shadow of larger cultural questions regarding cultural norms gender war and national identity Historically based contributions illuminate such diverse cultural realities as the evolution of psychiatry as medical practice asylum practices in the early twentieth century and Austrian participation in and responses to terror and war crimes From these investigations proceeds the clear insight that cultural responses to crime and madness are often steeped in mythmaking as much as objective policy and practice Conversely literary and metaphorical representations of crime and madness reveal attitudes and cultural realities about the Austrian society that produced them and which they reflect Specialists from the fields of Austrian history literature and culture studies have collaborated to produce this truly interdisciplinary volume which responses to crime and madness are often steeped in mythmaking as much as objective policy and practice Conversely literary and metaphorical representations of crime and madness reveal attitudes and cultural realities about the Austrian society that produced them and which they reflect

The Transcultural Turn Lucy Bond, Jessica Rapson, 2014-04-01 This edited collection makes a progressive intervention into the interdisciplinary field of memory studies with a series of essays drawn from diverse theoretical practical and cultural backgrounds The most seminal critical development within memory studies in recent years has arguably been the turn towards transculturalism This movement engenders a series of methodologies that posit remembrance as a fluid process in which commemorative tropes work to inform the representation of diverse events and traumas beyond national or cultural boundaries transcending but not negating spatial temporal and ideational differences Examining a wide range of historical and cultural contexts the essays in this collection focus on the dialogues that shape processes of remembrance between and beyond borders critiquing the problems and possibilities inherent in current discourses in memorial practice and theory as they approach the challenge of transculturalism Catastrophe and Catharsis Katharina Gerstenberger, Tanja Nusser, 2015 Destroying human habitat and taking human lives disasters be they natural man made or a combination threaten large populations even entire nations and societies They also disrupt the existing order and cause discontinuity in our sense of self and our perceptions of the world To restore order not only must human beings be rescued and affected areas rebuilt but the reality of the catastrophe must also be transformed into narrative The essays in this collection examine representations of disaster in literature film and mass media in German and international contexts exploring the nexus between disruption and recovery through narrative from the eighteenth century to the present Topics include the Lisbon earthquake the Paris Commune the Hamburg and Dresden fire bombings in the Second World War nuclear disasters in Alexander Kluge s films the filmic aesthetics of catastrophe Yoko Tawada s lectures on the Fukushima disaster and Christa Wolf s novel St rfall in light of that same disaster Joseph Haslinger and the tsunami of 2004 traditions regarding avalanche disaster in the Tyrol and the problems and implications of defining disaster Contributors Carol Anne Costabile Heming Yasemin Dayioglu Y cel Janine Hartman Jan Hinrichsen Claudia Jerzak Lars Koch Franz Mauelshagen Tanja Nusser Torsten Pflugmacher Christoph Weber Katharina Gerstenberger is Professor and Chair of the Department of Languages and Literature at the University of Utah Tanja Nusser is DAAD Visiting Associate Professor of German at the University of Cincinnati Literature and Terrorism ,2012-01-01 The years following the attacks of September 11 2001 have seen the publication of a wide range of scientific analyses of terrorism Literary studies seem to lag curiously behind this general shift of academic interest The present volume sets out to fill this gap It does so in the conviction that the study of literature has much to offer to the transdisciplinary investigation of terror not only with respect to the present post 9 11 situation but also with respect to earlier historical contexts Literary texts are media of cultural self reflection and as such they have always played a crucial role in the discursive response to terror both contributing to and resisting dominant conceptions of the causes motivations dynamics and aftermath of terrorist violence By bringing together experts from various fields and by combining case studies of works from diverse periods and national literatures the volume Literature and Terrorism chooses a diachronic and comparative perspective It is interested in the specific cultural work performed by narrative and dramatic literature in the face of terrorism focusing on literature s ambivalent relationship to other competing modes of discourse German Ecocriticism in the Anthropocene Caroline Schaumann, Heather I. Sullivan, 2017-04-18 This book offers essays on both canonical and non canonical German language texts and films advancing ecocritical models for German Studies and introducing environmental issues in German literature and film to a broader audience This volume contextualizes the broad ranging topics and authors in terms of the Anthropocene beginning with Goethe and the Romantics and extending into twenty first century literature and film Addressing the growing need for environmental awareness in an international humanities curriculum this book complements ecocritical analyses emerging from North American and British studies with a specifically German Studies perspective opening the door to a transnational understanding of how the environment plays an integral role in cultural political and economic issues

Germans Going Global Anke S. Biendarra, 2012-10-30 Germans Going Global is the first monograph in English to address in depth the interrelatedness between contemporary German literature and globalization In an interdisciplinary framework and through detailed readings of a wide variety of texts the study shows how the challenges globalization has posed for Germany over the last two decades have been manifested and reimaged in aesthetic production Analyses of the literary marketplace and public debates illuminate the more material sides of this development The study also analyzes the ways in which German language writers born between 1955 and 1975 such as Chr Kracht Th Meinecke J Hermann S Berg F Illies K R ggla J v D ffel and G Hens respond to the pressures of globalizing factors and how these have influenced notions of authorship and literary aesthetics It shows how narratives dealing with the neoliberal work world global travel and the aftermath of 09 11 implicitly comment on contemporary debates on globalization its socio economic nature and the impact for local culture By presenting a literary history of the present Germans Going Global deepens the reader s understanding of contemporary Germany and its cultural production

Transnationalism and German-Language Literature in the Twenty-First Century Stuart Taberner, 2017-03-01 This book examines how German language authors have intervened in contemporary debates on the obligation to extend hospitality to asylum seekers refugees and migrants the terrorist threat post 9 11 globalisation and neo liberalism the opportunities and anxieties of intensified mobility across borders and whether transnationalism necessarily implies the end of the nation state and the dawn of a new cosmopolitanism The book proceeds through a series of close readings of key texts of the last twenty years with an emphasis on the most recent works Authors include Ter zia Mora Richard Wagner Olga Grjasnowa Marlene Streeruwitz Vladimir Vertlib Navid Kermani Felicitas Hoppe Daniel Kehlmann Ilija Trojanow Christian Kracht and Christa Wolf representing the diversity of contemporary German language writing Through a careful process of juxtaposition and differentiation the individual chapters demonstrate that writers of both minority and nonminority backgrounds address transnationalism in ways that certainly vary but which also often overlap in surprising ways

Dokument und Literatur in zentraleuropäischen Kulturen* Milka Car, Csongor Lörincz, Danijela Lugarić, Gábor Tamás Molnár, 2023-11-13 Die Integration der Dokumente wird als eine Geste der Spaltung betrachtet die das Zusammenspiel der faktischen und fiktionalen Wahrheitsbehauptungen in literarischen Texten hervorhebt Riffaterre 1990 Dadurch kommen der dokumentarische Anspruch auf Glaubwürdigkeit und die Literarizität des Textes in Widerspruch Daher ist die erste Prämisse des Bandes die Auswirkung des dokumentarischen Paktes Foley 1986 auf die Bestimmung der Literatur Die betonte Referenzfunktion der Dokumentarliteratur führt zum ständigen Überschreiten der Grenze zwischen Fakt und Fiktion wobei sich diese Grenze als instabil erweist und die Realität transfiguriert A. Danto Um die unterschiedlichen Ausprägungen des Dokumentarischen zu erfassen wird eine kommunikativ funktionale Bestimmung der Literatur vorgeschlagen die vom dokumentarischen Gestus und der exponierten Text-Kontext-Beziehung ausgeht Die nächste Prämisse ist dass das Jahr 1989 mit dem Fall der Berliner Mauer dem Zerfall des Ostblocks und dem Ende des Kalten Krieges als eine weitreichende politische Zäsur angesehen werden kann die nicht nur das Aufkommen neuer dokumentarischer Verfahren in zentraleuropäischen Literaturen begünstigte sondern auch die Grenzen des Literarischen und Dokumentarischen neu positioniert The use of documentary is viewed as a gesture of split as it places literary fiction between factual and fictional claims to truth Riffaterre 1990 In other words the documentary claim to authenticity violates literary structural principles As a result the volume's first premise is the impact of the documentary pact Foley 1986 on defining literature. The emphasized referential function of documentary literature results in the constant crossing of the boundary between fact and fiction which proves unstable and transfigures reality. A Danto. The second premise is that 1989 with the fall of the Berlin Wall, the disintegration of the Eastern Bloc and the end of the Cold War can be viewed as a wide-ranging political caesura that not only encouraged the emergence of new documentary literary practices in Central European literatures but also repositioned the boundaries between the literary and the documentary. Ereignisgeschichten Christoph Deupmann, 2013. On the one hand, events are excellent opportunities for literary narrations. On the other hand, for more than half a century, political events in contemporary history have been so extensively visualized by modern mass media that history is disintegrating into images not into stories. W. Benjamin. The present enquiry analyzes the at first sight improbable transformation of history into literary stories covering six events in recent history which have become landmarks in collective memory: 1968 and the Vietnam war, 1977 German Autumn, Chernobyl 26.4.1986, 1989 Fall of the Berlin wall, the Post Yugoslavian Wars 1992, 1999 and 9.11. An excursus deals with alternative fictional contemporary history. The studies are substantiated by a theoretical and a historical section in which the conditions under which written accounts of contemporary events, their literary history and the relationship between literature and visual history or culture are examined.
