Chapter Summaries Roots traces the intellectual context from which the new child centered education emerged Recapitulation explains how racially segregated schools were justified and a differentiated curriculum was rationalized Reform explores some of the most successful early progressive educational reforms as well as the contents of children s literature and popular textbooks Racism documents the constancy of the idea of racial hierarchy among progressive educators such as Edward Thorndike G Stanley Hall and William Bagley Relativity documents how scholars such as W E B Du Bois Carter Woodson Horace Kallen and Randolph Bourne outlined a new inclusive ideology of cultural pluralism but overlooked the cultural relativism of anthropologist Franz Boas Refashioning examines the enduring effects of recapitulation on education such as child centered teaching and the deficit approach to students of color For American scholars progressive education is something of a talisman we all give it ritual worship but we rarely question its origins or premises By contrast race has become perhaps the dominant theme in contemporary educational studies In this bold and brilliant study Thomas Fallace uses our present day racial lens to critique our historic dogmas about progressive education We might not like what we see but we should not look away Jonathan Zimmerman New York University This is an important and provocative book Fallace provides a thoughtful analysis of how race influenced the foundational ideas of progressive educators in America He has made an important contribution to the history of curriculum and educational reform William B Stanley Professor Curriculum and Instruction Monmouth University
