Reason Violence:

Religion in Reason Tarek R. Dika, Martin Shuster, 2022-11-30 This book presents critical engagements with the work of Hent de Vries widely regarded as one of the most important living philosophers of religion Contributions by a distinguished group of scholars discuss the role played by religion in philosophy the emergence and possibilities of the category of religion and the relation between religion and violence secularism and sovereignty Together they provide a synoptic view of how de Vries's work has prompted a reconceptualization of how religion should be studied especially in relation to theology politics and new media The volume will be of particular interest to scholars of religious studies theology and philosophy

Faith, Reason and Common Sense Paul M. Roddick, 2010-05 Have you ever wondered where religion is concerned what you really believe In FAITH REASON COMMON SENSE the interdependence of religion and culture is examined with care and insight Readers with strong religious convictions may be surprised to discover that the history of religion every religion is both a chronicle of heresy and a reconfiguration of belief In his examination of the relationship between Faith and Reason the author rejects the familiar premise that a life guided by one must exclude the other Although he stresses the importance of examining the faith of our fathers he is respectful of those who in a world dominated by science find guidance and reassurance in their religion Far ranging and insightful drawing on a wealth of sources and opinions there is something for everyone in this challenging and though provoking study

Freedom and Democracy in an Imperial Context Robert Nichols, Jakeet Singh, 2014-03-26 Freedom and Democracy in an Imperial Context Dialogues with James Tully gathers leading thinkers from across the humanities and social sciences in a celebration of and critical engagement with the recent work of Canadian political philosopher James Tully Over the past thirty years James Tully has made key contributions to some of the most pressing questions of our time including interventions in the history of moral and political thought contemporary political philosophy democracy citizenship imperialism recognition and cultural diversity In 2008 he published Public Philosophy in a New Key a two volume work that promises to be one of the most influential and important statements of legal and political thought in recent history This work along with numerous other books and articles is foundational to a distinctive school of political thought influencing thinkers in fields as diverse as Anthropology History Indigenous Studies Law Philosophy and Political Science Critically engaging with James Tully's thought the essays in this volume take up what is his central and ever more pressing question how to enact democratic practices of freedom within and against historically sedimented and actually existing relationships of imperialism

Making Sense of Radicalization and Violent Extremism Mitja Sardoč, 2022-04-19 This volume brings together interviews with leading scholars to discuss some of the most important issues associated with radicalization violent extremism and terrorism The overall aim of these interviews is to move beyond the conventional wisdom over radicalization and violent extremism best represented by many of its well known slogans metaphors aphorisms alongside various other thought terminating clichés A vast range of topics are tackled in these conversations including issues as diverse as the genealogy of radicalization and violent extremism the rhetoric of emergency politics the language of fear the ethics of securitization mutual radicalization the challenges arising out of the relationship between cognitive and behavioural radicalization Islamism bias in research on radicalization the ethics of espionage as an integral element of the war on terror the epistemic dimension of radicalization the application of the just war conceptual framework to terrorism and the ethics of exceptional means when addressing security related issues to name a few The unifying assumption of the interviews in the volume is the complex nature of radicalization violent extremism and conflicting diversity as well as their interwoven relationship While radicalization has become one of the great buzzwords of the intelligence and security industry pleas for its very abandonment as a useful analytical category have also started to emerge This book will be of much interest to students of terrorism studies radicalisation violent extremism security studies and International Relations in general      Understanding Global Development Research Gordon Crawford, Lena Kruckenberg, Nicholas Loubere, Rosemary Morgan, 2017-01-26 For experienced and inexperienced researchers and practitioners alike this engaging book opens up new perspectives on conducting fieldwork in the Global South Following an inter disciplinary and inter generational approach Understanding Global Development brings into dialogue reflections on fieldwork experiences by leading scholars along with accounts from early career researchers Contributions are organised around six key issues Meaningful participation in fieldwork Working in dangerous environments Gendered experiences of fieldwork Researching elites Conducting fieldwork with marginalised people Fieldwork in development practice The experience led discussion of each of the topics conveys a sense of what it actually feels like to be out in the field and provides readers with useful insights and practical advice A relational framework highlights issues relating to power identity and ethics in development fieldwork and encourages reflection on how researcher engagement with the field shapes our understanding of global development      Power John Scott, 2014-04-03 This far reaching study gives a concise and coherent overview of the debates surrounding the analysis of social power The concept of power is outlined and its main dimensions are explored through consideration of various facets command pressure constraint discipline protest and interpersonal power The book examines both the theoretical debates that have arisen and the kinds of empirical materials relevant to them Topics covered include the nature of the contemporary state global economic power world systems business governance professional power social movements and family dynamics Power will be an indispensable introduction for students and researchers in sociology politics and the social sciences generally      Comprehensive Crime Control Act of 1983 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Criminal Law, 1984      Religion Today Ross Aden, Chris A. Kramer, 2024-07-02 Religion Today introduces students to key concepts in religious studies through a compelling problem solving framework Each chapter opens with a contemporary case study that helps students engage in current religious issues explore possible solutions to difficult religious problems today and learn key themes and concepts in

The Politics of Piety Megan C. Armstrong, 2004 The Politics of Piety situates the Franciscan order at the heart of the religious and political conflicts of the late sixteenth century to show how a medieval charismatic religious tradition became an engine of political change The friars used their redoubtable skills as preachers intellectual training at the University of Paris and personal and professional connections with other Catholic reformers and patrons to successfully galvanize popular opposition to the spread of Protestantism throughout the sixteenth century By 1588 the friars used these same strategies on behalf of the Catholic League to prevent the succession of the Protestant heir presumptive Henry of Navarre to the French throne This book contributes to our understanding of religion as a formative political impulse throughout the sixteenth century by linking the long term political activism of the friars to the emergence of the French monarchy of the seventeenth century Megan C Armstrong is assistant professor of early modern Europe in the History Department of the University of Utah

Embodying Forgiveness L. Gregory Jones,1995-08-31 In an engaging and interesting style that draws on a wide variety of literature as well as on Scripture and theological texts Jones shows how the practices of Christian forgiveness are richer and more comprehensive than often thought

Homicidal Ecologies Deborah J. Yashar,2018-12-06 Why has violence spiked in Latin America s contemporary democracies What explains its temporal and spatial variation Analyzing the region s uneven homicide levels this book maps out a theoretical agenda focusing on three intersecting factors the changing geography of transnational illicit political economies the varied capacity and complicity of state institutions tasked with providing law and order and organizational competition to control illicit territorial enclaves These three factors inform the emergence of homicidal ecologies subnational regions most susceptible to violence in Latin America After focusing on the contemporary causes of homicidal violence the book analyzes the comparative historical origins of weak and complicit public security forces and the rare moments in which successful institutional reform takes place Regional trends in Latin America are evaluated followed by original case studies of Central America which claims among the highest homicide rates in the world

Crime and Racial Constructions Jeanette Covington,2010-04-12 Crime and Racial Constructions Cultural Misinformation about African Americans in Media and Academia focuses on how film images of dangerous hedonistic blacks have assumed greater significance since blacks protested racial injustice during the Civil Rights Movement and the Black Power Movement of the 1960s and 1970s It does so by reviewing a number of films that have been released from the 1970s until the present in which black males are depicted as violent and threatening. It likewise considers how these same films represent black females as prostitutes, drug addicts, and irresponsible abusive mothers who spawn violence in their children. Because these on-screen images of a violent apolitical and immoral black underclass find their way into the criminological literature, the book also takes a look at how criminologists use these images to link crime to underclass culture. Both Hollywood and criminologists alike manage to ignore how black activism during the 1960s social movements actually sparked black opposition to the kind of black on black crime that is routinely depicted on screen. By taking a critical look at these negative images, Crime and Racial Constructions seeks to correct some of the distortions that arise from the undue academic and cinematic focus on black criminals at the expense of racially conscious blacks. City of Suspects Pablo Piccato, 2001-09-26. An analysis of the complex moral interpretations crime was given by Mexico's urban poor and of the evolving institutional responses to crime and punishment in modern Mexico. COVID AND COEXISTENCE Ramya R, Santhosh R, Pradeep Kumar B, This book is a collection of mixed responses of academicians and researchers on the burning issues that emanate from the conditions created by the spread of Covid 19 Virus in India. Articles in this book are arranged in four parts: viz Covid and Coexistence, Conceptual Issues, Covid 19 Development Issues, Covid 19 Sectoral Issues, and Covid 19 Labour and Gender Issues. Contents and findings of research articles included in this book may be helpful for policymakers and institutions engaged in dealing with Pandemic conditions. We hope readers and scholars will find this book worth reading. The New War Plays J. Boll, 2013-10-18. How can war be represented on stage? How does the theatre examine the structures leading to violence and war and explore their transformation of societies? Springing from the discussion about New Wars in the age of globalisation, this interdisciplinary study demonstrates how these New Wars bring forth new plays about war. A Democratic Enlightenment Morton Schoolman, 2020-04-03. In A Democratic Enlightenment, Morton Schoolman proposes aesthetic education through film as a way to redress the political violence inflicted on difference that society constructs as its racialized, gendered, Semitic, and sexualized other. Drawing on Voltaire, Diderot, and Schiller, Schoolman reconstructs the genealogical history of what he calls the reconciliation image, a visual model of a democratic ideal of reconciliation. He then theorizes through Whitman's prose and poetry and Adorno's aesthetic theory. Analyzing The Help (2011) and Gentleman's Agreement (1947), Schoolman shows how film produces a more advanced image of reconciliation than those originally created by modernist artworks. Each film depicts violence toward racial and ethnic difference while also displaying a reconciliation image that aesthetically educates the public about how the violence of constructing difference as otherness can be overcome. Mounting a democratic enlightenment, the reconciliation image in film illuminates a possible politics for challenging the rise of nationalism's violence toward differences in all their diversity. The kingdom of God is within you graf Leo Tolstoy, 1917.
