

Postmodernism: The Loss of Truth

Reason Truth And Self Getting To Know Truth About Postmodernism:

Reason, Truth and Self Michael Luntley, 2002-09-11 Michael Luntley provides a lively introduction to the debate over postmodernism. Sympathisers of the postmodernist critique of absolute knowledge have jettisoned concepts of reason, truth and self; this abandonment has fuelled their opponents' case against postmodernism. This has led them to ignore the very real problems raised by the postmodernists. Luntley offers a clear and careful exposition of how rational debate survives despite the Enlightenment's failings. Reason, Truth and Self covers many of the key questions of our age: How rational is science? Can we really know the truth about ourselves and the world? What is the nature of the mind? Can we know the difference between right and wrong? Reason, Truth and Self is ideal for courses in philosophy and the social sciences. On Transhumanism Stefan Lorenz Sorgner, 2020-12-15 Transhumanism is widely misunderstood in part because the media have exaggerated current technologies and branded the movement as dangerous, leading many to believe that hybrid humans may soon walk among us and that immortality achieved by means of mind uploading is imminent. In this essential and clarifying volume, Stefan Lorenz Sorgner debunks widespread myths about transhumanism and tackles the most pressing ethical issues in the debate over technologically assisted human enhancement. On Transhumanism is a vital primer on the subject, written by a world-renowned expert. In this book, Sorgner presents an overview of the movement's history, capably summarizing the twelve pillars of transhumanist discourse and explaining the great diversity of transhumanist responses to each individual topic. He highlights the urgent ethical challenges related to the latest technological developments, inventions and innovations, and compares the unique cultural standing of transhumanism to other cultural movements, placing it within the broader context of the Enlightenment, modernity, postmodernity and the philosophical writings of Nietzsche. Engagingly written and translated, and featuring an introduction for North American readers, this comprehensive overview of the cultural and philosophical movement of transhumanism will be required reading for students of posthumanist philosophy and for general audiences interested in learning about the transhumanist movement. Reasons for Our Hope H. Wayne House, Dennis W. Jowers, 2011-10 A sophisticated yet accessible introductory guide to an articulate and well-informed defense of the Christian faith. Reasons for Faith (Foreword by Lee Strobel) Norman L. Geisler, Chad V. Meister, 2007-10-26 Many Christians want to witness for their faith, but they are afraid they will not be able to answer questions that others may ask of them. First Peter 3:15 reminds believers to always be prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you. Norman Geisler and Chad Meister realize the fear of facing questions about the Christian faith. Their book Reasons for Faith gives believers grounded biblical apologetics to help them defend their faith. By covering the importance of apologetics and then applying apologetics to popular culture and theological issues, these authors give all Christians the tools they need to stand firm in their faith and to be able to share that faith in today's society. Postmodernism and Youth Ministry Scott M. BOOKJACKET Sacramental Presence after Heidegger Conor Sweeney, 2015-08-27 Theology after Heidegger must take into account history and language as elements in the pursuit of meaning Quite often this prompts a hurried flight from metaphysics to an embrace of an absence at the centre of Christian narrativity Conor Sweeney here explores the postmodern critique of presence in the context of sacramental theology engaging the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and Lieven Boeve Chauvet is an influential postmodern theologian whose critique of the perceived onto theological constitution of presence in traditional sacramental theology has made big waves while Boeve is part of a more recent generation of theologians who even more wholeheartedly embrace postmodern consequences for theology Sweeney considers the extent to which postmodernism a la Heidegger upsets the hermeneutics of sacramentality asking whether this requires us to renounce the search for a presence that by definition transcends us Against both the fetishisation of presence and absence Sweeney argues that metaphysics has a properly sacramental basis and that it is only through this reality that the dialectic of presence and absence can be transcended The case is made for the full but restless signification of the mother's smile as the paradigm
