Ed Thomas Fuller,1647      Modern Criminal Law A P Simester,2024-04-18 This book brings together leading scholars from the next generation of UK criminal lawyers to celebrate the work of GR Sullivan Emeritus Professor at University College London in the year of his retirement from writing Simester and Sullivan s Criminal Law Theory and Doctrine The contributors examine many of the areas in which GR Bob Sullivan s own writing has been influential ranging from general doctrines such as causation and culpability across specific offences like theft and fraud through defences including necessity and insanity before turning finally to matters affecting the criminal process notably challenges to the doctrine of precedent in criminal law Taken together the essays are a powerful tribute to Bob s standing and influence upon modern criminal law At the same time individually they make sophisticated contributions to our understanding of some pressing issues in contemporary criminal law The essays illustrate the increasing importance of theoretical argument in modern criminal law as well as the manner in which doctrinal debates have become interwoven with arguments about criminalisation norms The resulting collection is thus a tribute also to the character of modern academic criminal law a character that Bob and the writers of his generation did so much to develop      Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States. challenges Allied leaders endorsed an ambitious NATO 2030 agenda to ensure that NATO can meet the challenges of today and tomorrow While the Alliance concluded to improve NATO s political consultations collective defense and resilience leaders agreed upon providing better training and capacity building to its partners in order to stand up for the rules based international order In light of these commitments TPQ s Summer 2021 issue serves as a starting point for a well informed debate by synthesizing and comparing expert discourses from a wide range of NATO member and non member states on key issues concerning NATO s future As we address the issues at stake we also seek a better mutual appreciation of divergent geographical historical and political perspectives This special and timely issue has been published in collaboration with NATO our longstanding partner Mircea Geoana NATO Deputy Secretary General expresses that the security environment has never been more uncertain and contested than it is now due to the emergence of global competition and a wide variety of complex threats He underlines the importance of NATO summit in Brussels last June at which the Alliance s leaders made bold decisions to adapt to a more unpredictable world and to ensure that its one billion people will be safe for the next decade and beyond In his view the Transatlantic Alliance will remain capable of coping with today s challenges and future proof against ones yet to come through an ambitious and forward looking agenda When President Biden visited Brussels in June he declared America is back According to Jamie Shea a former Deputy Assistant Secretary General for Emerging Security Challenges at NATO this also means that NATO is back as Biden reaffirmed the U S solemn commitment to the defense of its European allies and Washington s willingness to once again lead a transatlantic alliance that was heavily criticized during the Trump years He writes that at first sight this is all good news for NATO but could it turn out to be a mixed blessing for the Europeans in the longer run He analyzes whether the NATO 2030 initiative is up to the task and if it provides the right answers Due to NATO s reliance on space assets for operational effectiveness and the increased vulnerabilities of those assets the militarization of outer space presents a range of policy and legal challenges Having to rely on space based assets and services to conduct military operations has proven to be NATO s Achilles heel as rivals work on counter space techniques Aurel Sari Associate Professor of International Law at University of Exeter and Hitoshi Nasu Professor of International Law at University of Exeter ask given the vulnerability of space based assets and services to hostile interference under what circumstances the collective defense commitment as set out in Article 5 of the North Atlantic Treaty NAT arises in space
