Religion And Race African And European Roots In Conflict A Jamaican Testament:

The Oxford Handbook of Caribbean Religions Michelle A. Gonzalez, Michelle Gonzalez Maldonado, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Caribbean Religions offers a comprehensive overview of Caribbean religions The Caribbean is a microcosm of the world's religions but the small geographic space resulted in the encounter of global religions and indigenous religious practices The racial ethnic and cultural diversity of this region makes brief introductions to Caribbean religions incapable of truly addressing its complex and diverse religious landscape The Handbook also elaborates on the diversity of the religious traditions and the national particularity of the region while also considering multiple geographic settings It mentions how often Caribbean religion is studied through the perspective of a discrete religious tradition or geographic setting The Cambridge History of Christianity: Volume 9, World Christianities C.1914-c.2000 Hugh McLeod, 2006-01-12 A comprehensive history of Christianity in the century when it truly became a global religion Religion and Poverty Peter J. Paris, 2009-11-25 Examines religion centered resistance strategies of the poor in Africa and its diaspora analyzing the roots and structure of this poverty religion's interaction with globalization and informal markets and how the politics of social and economic amelior Black Missionary in an Age of Enslavement Noel Leo Erskine, 2024-08-06 Much discussion of Protestant Christianity and its missions in the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries is focused on the work of English missionary William Carey and American Missionaries Adoniram and Ann Judson who travelled to India in 1793 and 1813 This book reframes this conventional understanding of mission studies and outreach by exploring the legacy and life of the enslaved American Baptist George Liele 1750 1825 the first African American ordained to the Christian ministry Black Missionary in an Age of Enslavement looks at Christianity and mission through the life and times of Liele highlighting his travels as an itinerant preacher in South Carolina Georgia Jamaica and through his prot g there David George Nova Scotia Sierra Leone and toward the end of his life England Liele knew what it meant to be both slave and free In Jamaica as in Savannah he was imprisoned for his faith and saw the survival of the church as pivotal Liele was a man of firsts the first African American ordained to the Christian ministry May 20 1775 and the first missionary to take the Christian gospel outside the United States It was Liele more than any other missionary who initiated the practice of offering education to native people both enslaved and free With the hymnal in one hand and the Bible in the other Liele taught the enslaved and free that they were destined for liberation The Rule of Law and Governance in Indigenous Yoruba Society John Ayotunde Isola Bewaji, 2016-08-22 In The Rule of Law and Governance in Indigenous Yoruba Society John Ayotunde Isola Bewaji has two main goals The first is to provide an exploration of aspects of indigenous Yoruba philosophy of law The second is to relate this philosophy of law to the Yoruba indigenous traditions of governance with a view to appreciating the relevance of the Yoruba traditions of law and governance to contemporary African experiments with imported Western democracy in the 21st century This book is devoted to what can be described as a juridical forensic investigation of Nigeria's predicament of developmental deficit leading to gross and unconscionable impoverishment of large segments of the population in the midst of so much natural resources and abundant human capital using Yoruba indigenous legal traditions as reflective template Bewaji urges that Africa has to take seriously the necessity of obedience observance enforcement and operation of law as no respecter of persons groups affiliations and pedigrees as was in the case in the societies founded by our ancestors rather than the present scenario whereby the highest bidder procures semblances of justice from a crooked system of common law which was never designed to be fair equitable and just to the disadvantaged in society Root of David Matthew Charet,2010 African American Religious History Milton C. Sernett,1999 This is a 2nd edition of the 1985 anthology that examines the religious history of African Americans The Sam Sharpe Lectures Rosemarie Davidson,E.P. Louis,2023-11-30 Celebrating ten years of the annual Sam Sharpe Lectures this text is a collection of a decade s contribution from scholars thinkers activists and ministers responding to the legacy of Sam Sharpe a Jamaican National Hero This text documents these moving insightful and mobilising contributions and seeks to capture how Sharpe s legacy inspires action for justice in the 21st century Rooted in a radical Jamaican narrative The Sam Sharpe Lectures collectively demonstrate how Sharpe s legacy can inspire all people to be game changers despite life s challenges Sam Sharpe was enslaved yet through a grounding in Christian faith compassion justice and self determination became an agent for transformation and these lectures translate his legacy into tools for today s injustices The Humanities and the Dynamics of African Culture in the 21st Century John Ayotunde Isola Bewaji,Kenneth W. Harrow,Eunice E. Omonzejie,2017-05-11 That Africa is at a crossroads in an increasingly globalised world is indisputable Equally unassailable is the fact that the humanities as a broad field of intellection research and learning in Africa appears to have been pigeonholed in debates of relevance in the development aspirations of many African nations Historical experiences and contemporary research outputs indicate however that the humanities in its various shades is critical to Africa s capacity to respond effectively to such problems as security corruption political ineptitude poverty superstition and HIV AIDS among many other mounting challenges which confront the people of Africa The vibrancy and resilience of Africa s cultures against these and other odds of globalisation episodes in the course of our history demand the focused attention of academia to exploit their relevance to contemporary issues This collection provides a comprehensive overview of issues in the humanities at the turn of the 21st century which create a veritable platform for the global redefinition and understanding of Africa s rich cultures and traditions Such areas covered include ruminations in metaphysics and psychology pathos and ethos cinematic and literary connections and historical conceptualisations A History of Global Anglicanism Kevin Ward,2006-11-23 Anglicanism can be seen as irredeemably English In this book Kevin Ward questions that assumption He explores the character of the African Asian Oceanic Caribbean and Latin American churches which are now a majority in the world wide communion and shows how they are decisively shaping what it means to be Anglican While emphasising the importance of colonialism and neo colonialism for explaining the globalisation of Anglicanism Ward does not focus predominantly on the Churches of Britain and N America nor does he privilege the idea of Anglicanism as an expansion of English Christianity At a time when Anglicanism faces the danger of dissolution Ward explores the historically deep roots of non Western forms of Anglicanism and the importance of the diversity and flexibility which has so far enabled Anglicanism to develop cohesive yet multiform identities around the world Passages and Afterworlds Maarit Forde,Yanique Hume,2018-11-15 The contributors to Passages and Afterworlds explore death and its rituals across the Caribbean drawing on ethnographic theories shaped by a deep understanding of the region s long history of violent encounters exploitation and cultural diversity Examining the relationship between living bodies and the spirits of the dead the contributors investigate the changes in cosmologies and rituals in the cultural sphere of death in relation to political developments state violence legislation policing and identity politics Contributors address topics that range from the ever evolving role of divinized spirits in Haiti and the contemporary mortuary practice of Indo Trinidadians to funerary ceremonies in rural Jamaica and ancestor cults in Maroon culture in Suriname Questions of alterity difference and hierarchy underlie these discussions of how racial cultural and class differences have been deployed in ritual practice and how such rituals have been governed in the colonial and postcolonial Caribbean Contributors Donald Cosentino Maarit Forde Yanique Hume Paul Christopher Johnson Aisha Khan Keith E McNeal George Mentore Richard Price Karen Richman Ineke Wilhelmina van Wetering Bonno H U E Thoden van Velzen Home Away from Home Delroy A. Reddie, 2016-04-15 Black Theology Slavery and Contemporary Christianity explores the legacy of slavery in Black theological terms Challenging the dominant approaches to the history and legacy of slavery in the British Empire the contributors show that although the 1807 act abolished the slave trade it did not end racism notions of White supremacy or the demonization of Blackness Black people and Africa This interdisciplinary study draws on biblical studies history missiology and Black theological reflection exploring the strengths and limitations of faith as the framework for abolitionist rhetoric and action This Black theological approach to the phenomenon of the trans Atlantic slave trade and the institution of slavery draws on contributions from Africa the Caribbean North America and Europe

Our Cause for His Glory Shirley C. Gordon, 1998 A comprehensive historical study that describes the varied and various encounters of the Jamaican people with Christianity in the thirty years following emancipation as enslaved peoples under British colonialism An excellent and resourceful guide for students of history and theology in particular and post emancipation Caribbean studies in general

Religion and Race Winston Arthur Lawson, 1996 This study focuses on the dramatic interplay between the socio cultural assumptions and values of the dominant planter groups and those of their Afro creole workers and the persistent problems that resulted from the perennial clash of such competing value systems especially from 1823 to the early 1830s Special attention is given to the role of key factors of culture colour and race all operating within a distinctly religious framework that variously challenged or reinforced the status quo
