Grettenberger,2018-05-17 This volume offers an in depth examination of a diverse range of faith based programs implemented in three different geographical locales family support in rural Mississippi transitional housing in Michigan and addiction recovery in the Pacific Northwest Washington Oregon Various types of religious service providers faith intensive and faith related are carefully examined and secular organizations also serve as an illuminating point of comparison Among other insights this book reveals how the three C s of social service provision programmatic content organizational culture and ecological context all combine to shape the delivery of welfare services in the nonprofit world This book warns against simplistic generalizations about faith based organizations Faith based providers exhibit considerable diversity and quite often remarkable resilience in the face of challenging social circumstances An appreciation of these nuances is critical as policies concerning faith based organizations continue to evolve Steward of a Living Tradition John Sullivan,2025-05-05 This book explores what is entailed in serving as a steward of the living tradition of the Christian faith in the world of education It examines tradition as a resource leadership education as a spiritual endeavor curriculum and Christian learning and the task of connecting tradition to culture John Sullivan engages with historical perspectives and contemporary professional and cultural realities in addressing intellectual and spiritual dimensions of Christian education and the endeavor to make tradition both accessible and meaningful to those for whom it is unfamiliar Themes pervading the book include fostering a critical appreciation for and a creative appropriation of the living tradition of Christianity fluency and flexibility in sharing that tradition vocation and vulnerability and a striving for interconnectedness and integration in teaching and learning at school and university Australian Education Index ,1988 A Fresh Look at Islam in a Multi-Faith World Matthew L.N. Wilkinson,2014-10-30 WINNER Cheryl Frank Memorial Prize International Association of Critical Realism A Fresh Look at Islam in a Multi Faith World provides a comprehensively theorised and practical approach to thinking systematically and deeply about Islam and Muslims in a multi faith world It makes the case for a contemporary educational philosophy to help young Muslims surmount the challenges of post modernity and to transcend the hiatuses and obstacles that they face in their interaction and relationships with non Muslims and visa versa It argues that the philosophy of critical realism in its original dialectical and metaReal moments so fittingly underlabours Bhaskar 1975 for the contemporary interpretation clarification and conceptual deepening of Islamic doctrine practice and education as to suggest a distinctive branch of critical realist philosophy specifically suited for this purpose This approach is called Islamic Critical Realism The book proceeds to explain how this Islamic Critical Realist approach can serve the interpretation of the consensual elements of Islamic doctrine such as the six elements of Islamic belief and the five pillars of Islamic practice so that these essential features of the Muslim way of life can help Muslim young people to contribute positively to life in multi faith liberal democracies in a globalising world Finally the book shows how this Islamic Critical Realist approach can be brought to bear in humanities classrooms by history religious education and citizenship teachers to help Muslim young people engage informatively and transformatively with themselves and others in multi faith contexts

An Informed Faith R. J. Rushdoony, 2017-07-11 Our faith should be an informed one because the God who created all things speaks to every sphere of life and all facts should be studied in light of the revelation of God in Scripture This is the foundation of Christian dominion For R J Rushdoony true government was the self government of the Christian life in terms of God s law so he wrote his position papers to better equip Christians to apply their faith to all of life His objective was not to empower the state or the organized church but rather to call every person and institution to God s Word which often put him at odds with both church and state This three volume collection of his position papers 1979 2000 are organized topically and are featured for the first time with an extensive index which will make this material far more accessible to the studious reader This beautiful three volume collection of hardback books topically organizes ALL of Rushdoony s position papers not only the 115 originally published in Roots of Reconstruction but also 118 later essays including six recently discovered unpublished papers

Faith, Race and Inequality amongst Young Adults in South Africa Nadine Bowers Du Toit, 2022-07-04 For many young South African adults often called born frees who were born just before or just after the demise of political apartheid the ongoing realities of poverty and inequality bring to light the question of whether they truly are free in contemporary South Africa Their lived experiences of poverty and inequality seem to be in conflict with theologically laden concepts that remain prominent in social and political life such as reconciliation forgiveness justice and restitution This leads to a bi directional process of contesting and being contested by such notions and discourses Furthermore in light of the double legacy of both the church and youth as resisting injustice this publication seeks to explore the many perspectives from which the Christian faith race and inequality amongst youth can be brought to light
