Why Do People Discriminate against Jews? Jonathan Fox, Lev Topor, 2021-06-17 A novel analysis that combines traditional theories on anti-Semitism with evidence from 76 nations to explain the determinants that drive discrimination against Jews Why Do People Discriminate against Jews provides a data-rich analysis of the causes of discrimination against Jews across the globe Using the tools of comparative political science Jonathan Fox and Lev Topor examine the causes of both government-based and societal discrimination against Jews in 76 countries As they stress anti

Semitism is an attitude but discrimination is an action In examining anti Jewish discrimination they combine ideas and theories from classic studies of anti Semitism with social science theories on the causes of discrimination On the one hand conspiracy theories a major topic in the anti Semitism literature are relatively unexplored in the social science literature as a potential instigator of discrimination On the other social science theories developed to explain how governments justify discrimination against Muslims are rarely formally applied to the processes that lead to discrimination against Jews Fox and Topor conclude by identifying three potential causes of discrimination religious causes anti Zionism and belief in conspiracy theories about Jewish power and world domination They conclude that while all three influence discrimination against Jews belief in conspiracy theories is the strongest determinant The most rigorous and geographically wide ranging analysis of discrimination against Jews to date this book reshapes our understanding of the persecution of religious minorities in general and the Jewish people in particular

Hate Spin Cherian George, 2016-09-30 How right wing political entrepreneurs around the world use religious offense both given and taken to mobilize supporters and marginalize opponents In the United States elements of the religious right fuel fears of an existential Islamic threat spreading anti Muslim rhetoric into mainstream politics In Indonesia Muslim absolutists urge suppression of churches and minority sects fostering a climate of rising intolerance In India Narendra Modi's radical supporters instigate communal riots and academic censorship in pursuit of their Hindu nationalist vision Outbreaks of religious intolerance are usually assumed to be visceral and spontaneous But in Hate Spin Cherian George shows that they often involve sophisticated campaigns manufactured by political opportunists to mobilize supporters and marginalize opponents Right wing networks orchestrate the giving of offense and the taking of offense as instruments of identity politics exploiting democratic space to promote agendas that undermine democratic values George calls this strategy hate spin a double sided technique that combines hate speech incitement through vilification with manufactured offense taking the performing of righteous indignation It is deployed in societies as diverse as Buddhist Myanmar and Orthodox Christian Russia George looks at the world's three largest democracies where intolerant groups within India's Hindu right America's Christian right and Indonesia's Muslim right are all accomplished users of hate spin He also shows how the Internet and Google have opened up new opportunities for cross border hate spin George argues that governments must protect vulnerable communities by prohibiting calls to action that lead directly to discrimination and violence But laws that try to protect believers' feelings against all provocative expression invariably backfire They arm hate spin agents offense taking campaigns with legal ammunition Anti discrimination laws and a commitment to religious equality will protect communities more meaningfully than misguided attempts to insulate them from insult
