Religion Ethnicity And Social Change:

Religion, Ethnicity and Social Change L. Fawcett, 2000-03-02 In Religion Ethnicity and Social Change the author argues that the recent focus on religious fundamentalism in ethnic conflict has obscured the ambiguous role of mainstream Western religion The book examines the relationship between the religious and secular spheres at a time of rapid transition in South Africa and Northern Ireland Religion, Social Change, and Fertility Behaviour R. Jayasree, 1989 This Book Based On A Study Carried Out In The Travancore Region Of Kerala Attempts To Explain The Differential Influences Of Many Demographic Developmental And Cultural Variables That Influence Social Change Among Different Religious Groups And Also Ultimately The Fertility Behaviour Religion, Ethnicity, and Social Change Harold J. Abramson, C. Edward Noll, 1966

Religious Identity and Social Change David Radford, 2015-06-19 Religious Identity and Social Change offers a macro and micro analysis of the dynamics of rapid social and religious change occurring within the Muslim world Drawing on rich ethnographic and quantitative research in Kyrgyzstan Central Asia David Radford provides theoretical insight into the nature of religious and social change and ethnic identity transformation exploring significant questions concerning why people convert and what happens when they do so A crisis of identity occurs when religious conversion takes place especially from one major religious tradition Islam to another Christianity and where religious identity is intimately connected to ethnic and national identity Radford argues for the importance of recognising the socially constructed nature of identity involving the dynamic interplay between human agency culture and social networks Kyrgyz Christians have been active agents in bringing religious and identity transformation building upon the contextual parameters in which they are situated Religion,

Ethnicity and Social Change Liz Fawcett, 2000-01 In Religion Ethnicity and Social Change the author argues that the recent focus on religious fundamentalism in ethnic conflict has obscured the ambiguous role of mainstream Western religion The book examines the relationship between the religious and secular spheres at a time of rapid transition in South Africa and Northern Ireland Religion in Higher Education Sophie Gilliat-Ray, 2019-07-16 This title was first published in 2000 The place of religion in universities and institutes of higher education has become increasingly topical and contested in recent years largely due to the growth of religious diversity on campus Issues such as shared worship spaces equal opportunities and the management of inter religious conflict concern university administrators and students alike Based on primary empirical research this book indicates the need for clear guidelines on these issues and provides the data to inform policy making Offering the first study of the practical and sociological implications of the multi faith campus this book provides a context for examining some of the dynamics of religious diversity in Britain more generally as well as providing a useful analysis for the wider international context Key themes covered include religion in institutions inter faith relations the changing roles of religious professionals secularisation and resacralisation and religion youth and identity The Challenge of Religious Discrimination at the Dawn of the New Millennium Nazila Ghanea-Hercock, 2013-11-11 The themes and issues explored in this book religion human rights politics and society could not be more relevant to the post 11 September 2001 world They lie at the heart of global political debate today The collection explores these issues after the passing of just over two decades from the adoption of the United Nations Declaration on the Elimination of all Forms of Intolerance and Discrimination based on Religion or Belief That declaration set out minimum international standards for the elimination of such discrimination Sadly the challenge of intolerance on the basis of religion or belief continues to plague us and tackling it seems to have become increasingly entrenched The complexity of this phenomenon requires expertise from different quarters This collection draws from diplomatic activist and theological quarters and benefits from the analysis of scholars of law history religious studies and sociology The ten chapters of this collection examine the relationship between human rights law and religion offer a typology for the study of religious persecution problematise the consequences flowing from religious establishment in religiously plural society analyse the implications of the directions being taken by the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights and the protections offered by the European Commission council Directive 2000 43 EC outlawing workplace discrimination study the 1981 Declaration and its promotion through the work of the UN Special Rapporteur on Freedom of Religion or Belief and explore the intricacies of this freedom in detail from within the context of the United Kingdom and The Netherlands

Ethnicity, Gender and Social Change Harriet Bradley, Steve Fenton, 1999-02-08 Ethnicity Gender and Social Change explores the social space occupied by both gender and ethnicity As recognition of the sociological importance of gender and ethnicity has grown so has the opportunity for exploring the intersections between them This volume brings together both theoretical reflections and new research in this key area For the sociologist this presents a conceptual challenge while for the individual it may present a series of dilemmas These are intriguingly traced out in studies which take us from Punjabi families in the UK to Surinamese migrants in Amsterdam to Hindu and Muslim women and Black nurses in Britain the African and Asian diasporas and gender identity in post Soviet Latvia

Religion, Ethnicity, and Gender in Western Hunan during the Modern Era

Paul R. Katz,2021-08-20 This book explores how beliefs and practices have shaped the interactions between different ethnic groups in Western Hunan as well as considering how religious life has adapted to the challenges of modern Chinese history Combining historical and ethnographic methodologies chapters in this book are structured around changes that occurred during the interaction between Miao ritual traditions and religions such as Daoism with particular focus on the commonalities and differences seen between Western Hunan and other areas of Southwest China In addition investigation is made into how gender and ethnicity have shaped such processes and what these phenomena can teach about larger questions of modern Chinese history As such this study transcends existing scholarship on Western Hunan which has stressed the impact of state policies and elite agendas by focusing instead on the roles played by ritual specialists Such findings call into question conventional wisdom about the standardization of Chinese culture as well as the integration of local society into the state by means of written texts Religion Ethnicity and Gender in Western Hunan during the Modern Era will prove valuable to students and scholars of history ethnography anthropology ethnic studies and Asian studies more broadly The Politicization of Ethnicity as Source of Conflict Ademola Adediji,2016-05-11 In view of the explosion of violent conflicts in many parts of the world and the hasty but prevailing assumption that ethnicity is the source of these conflicts this book is encompassed to highlight describe and examine how ethnicity is politicized in many of these current conflicts By deploying the instrumentalist approach and the theory of identity and difference in ethnicity the author identifies the actors involved and depicts how religion is exploited as an instrument of division by reflecting it on the Nigerian situation exploring the examples of the Jos conflicts and the Warri Crisis within a twenty years period 1990 to 2010 Religion and Change in Modern Britain Linda Woodhead,Rebecca Catto,2013-03-01 This book offers a fully up to date and comprehensive guide to religion in Britain since 1945 A team of leading scholars provide a fresh analysis and overview with a particular focus on diversity and change They examine relations between religious and secular beliefs and institutions the evolving role and status of the churches the growth and settlement of non Christian religious communities the spread and diversification of alternative spiritualities religion in welfare education media politics and law theoretical perspectives on religious change The volume presents the latest research including results from the largest ever research initiative on religion in Britain the AHRC ESRC Religion and Society Programme Survey chapters are combined with detailed case studies to give both breadth and depth of coverage The text is accompanied by relevant photographs and a companion website Political Economy of Social Change and Development in Nepal Jeevan R. Sharma,2021-12-30 Political Economy of Social Change and Development in Nepal is an accessible contemporary political economic analysis of social change in Nepal It considers whether and how Nepal s political economy might have been transformed since the 1950s while situating these changes in Nepal s modern history and its location in the global economic system It assembles and builds on the scholarship on Nepal from a multidisciplinary and synoptic perspective Focusing on local discourses experiences and expectations of transformations it draws our attention to how powerful historical processes are experienced and negotiated in Nepal and assess how these may at the same time produce ideas of equality human rights and citizenship while also generating new forms of precarity Multiculturalism and Minority Religions in Britain Malory Nye,2012-12-06 A detailed case study of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness ISKCON in Britain The book studies the particular development of a new religious movement within the context of Britain and issues relating to minority religions place within a multicultural but still hegemonically Christian society Race, Ethnicity, and Social Change John Stone,1977 "The Only True People" Bethany J. Beyette,Lisa J. LeCount,2017-03-01 The Only True People is a timely and rigorous examination of ethnicity among the ancient and modern Maya focusing on ethnogenesis and exploring the complexities of Maya identity how it developed where and when it emerged and why it continues to change over time In the volume a multidisciplinary group of well known scholars including archaeologists linguists ethnographers ethnohistorians and epigraphers investigate ethnicity and other forms of group identity at a number of Maya sites and places from the northern reaches of the Yucatan to the Southern Periphery and across different time periods from the Classic period to the modern day Each contribution challenges the notion of ethnically homogenous Maya peoples for their region and chronology and explores how their work contributes to the definition of ethnicity for ancient Maya society Contributors confront some of the most difficult theoretical debates concerning identity in the literature today how different ethnic groups define themselves in relation to others under what circumstances ethnicity is marked by overt expressions of group membership and when it is hidden from view and the processes that transform ethnic identities and their expressions By addressing the social constructs and conditions behind Maya ethnicity both past and present The Only True People contributes to the understanding of ethnicity as a complex set of relationships among people who lived in real and imagined communities as well as among people separated by social boundaries The volume will be a key resource for Mayanists and will be of interest to students and scholars of ethnography anthropology and cultural studies as well Contributors McCale Ashenbrenner Ellen E Bell Marcello A Canuto Juan Castillo Cocom David A Freidel Wolfgang Gabbert Stanley P Guente Jonathan Hill Charles Andrew Hofling Martha J Macri Damien B Marken Matthew Restall Timoteo Rodriguez Mathew C Samson Edward Schortman Rebecca Storey Social Change in the Gulf Region Md Mizanur Rahman, Amr Al-Azm, 2023-03-21 This open access book comprising thirty nine chapters divided into social cultural economic and political spheres offers a unique opportunity to dive into the complex dynamic and sometimes contradictory transformation of Gulf societies in the last few decades Whilst the Gulf region has at times been seen as impervious to this natural phenomenon of transformation timeless never changing deeply rooted in its ancient tribal customs and traditions and able to blend past and present seamlessly without suffering the wrenching trauma of change this is clearly not the case and the region is not immune to the inevitable forces of social change There is no doubt today that the social change sweeping the Gulf has been profound affecting almost every aspect of life in the Gulf societies This volume has an encyclopedic value as the chapters collectively offer multifaceted and multidisciplinary perspectives to understand social change in the Gulf region Through these chapters the role of economic and educational transformation and the impact of social media migration and urbanization have in driving social change in the Gulf societies is examined in detail with a focus on their directions magnitudes and relevant policy options It also considers how COVID 19 is affecting the lives of the people in the Gulf This book bridges gaps in the understanding of the rapid pace of social change in the Gulf offering practical solutions for policy interventions It is of interest to scholars and students in Middle Eastern studies specifically as well as sociology media studies migration studies and educational policy The Church-as-family and Ethnocentrism in Sub-Saharan Africa Gerald K. Tanye, 2010 Ethnocentrism is one of the greatest obstacles to peace on the African continent Taking the Church as Family of God as a model of evangelization this work explores means of inculturating the Gospel message in African cultures in order to transform them make them blossom and enable Africans to live as authentic Christians in their cultures It examines the values of African extended families and the prospects of interreligious dialogue as means through which the various religious bodies can effectively work together to overcome ethnocentrism and its evil effects and thus establish a wholesome African society where every human person is at home irrespective of family orientation or tribal background
