in Everything—Education and Religion in a Secular Age K. H. (Ina) ter Avest, 2019-11-22 There are two constants in academic and theological discourse throughout history they are the debate around secularization and the dialogue concerning the intersection of religion and education Each age has had its debate about modernizing forces that drive concerns of impending secularization In this publication this theme is approached from perspectives of teachers of students of policy makers and situated in a politico historical context Aware of the fact that in today s plural societies one sacred canopy is non existent anymore cracks of the sacred canopy canopies are described as well as the light that gets in the possible and challenging ways out are roughly sketched      For God and Country Elizabeth "Libi" Sundermann, 2016-01-14 This postsecular study on Conservative and Christian thinkers intellectual ferment leading to England's 1944 Education Act examines how politicians and educationalists promoted Christian civic humanism as the educational philosophy underlying the Act. It argues that Religious Education and secondary and further educational proposals were meant to go hand in hand to shape a national educational system that promoted an English national identity based on ideals of tradition and progress for the war-weary nation. The 1944 Act's historic Religious Education mandate however was overshadowed by the hopes and fears for secondary education for all in the postwar class-conscious English society. The book focuses on the work and collaborations of politicians, educationalists and intellectuals with special attention to three men: Minister of Education R A Butler, educationalist Fred Clarke and sociologist Karl Mannheim. As Christian political and social thinkers, these men worked in public and behind the scenes to create the landmark Education Act in order to bolster postwar England through appeals to God and country.

Dialogues and Natural History of Religion David Hume, 1998 David Hume is the greatest and also one of the most provocative philosophers to have written in the English language. No philosopher is more important for his careful critical and deeply perceptive examination of the grounds for belief in divine powers and for his sceptical accounts of the causes and consequences of religious belief expressed most powerfully in the Dialogues Concerning Natural Religion and The Natural History of Religion. The Dialogues ask if belief in God can be inferred from the nature of the universe or whether it is even consistent with what we know about the universe. The Natural History of Religion investigates the origins of belief and follows its development from harmless polytheism to dogmatic monotheism. Together they constitute the most formidable attack upon the rationality of religious belief ever mounted by a philosopher. This edition also includes Section XI of The Enquiry Concerning Human Understanding and a letter concerning the Dialogues as well as particularly helpful critical apparatus and abstracts of the main texts enabling the reader to locate or relocate key topics.

International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engbretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion. Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion. One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious, spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle. This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education. The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today. Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world
