Examines religious practices from an anthropological perspective. Religions in Practice 6e offers an issues-oriented perspective on everyday religious behaviors: prayer, sacrifice, initiation, healing, etc. by focusing on such topics as transnationalism, gender, and religious laws. The text examines a full spectrum of religions from small-scale societies to major established religions. The in-depth treatment of Islam, Hinduism, and Christianity is particularly noteworthy and easily supplemented with field projects directly related to the text. MySearchLab is a part of the Bowen program. Research and writing tools, including access to academic journals, help students explore religion in even greater depth. To provide students with flexibility, students can download the eText to a tablet using the free Pearson eText app.

Religion and Gender in the Developing World Tamsin Bradley, 2010-12-07

Faith-based development organizations have become a central part of the lives of the women of rural Rajasthan and have come to represent an important aspect of both individual and collective identities. And yet religious teachings continue to be used to exclude women from public decision-making forums and render them vulnerable to increasing levels of domestic violence. In a unique multi-disciplinary approach combining a range of subjects, Tamsin Bradley provides a unique study of the role of development organizations and faith organizations in the lives of women in rural Rajasthan. Faith and religion emerge as being able to afford a space within which women are able to interact with one another and create an identity for themselves. However, faith proves not just to be a positive sphere in which women are able to assert themselves. Its ambiguity becomes clear as the author explains that religious women often find their visions of social justice and equality marginalised by the dominance of male leadership. Nevertheless, Bradley also looks at how religious women challenge male dominance, drawing on their beliefs and practices in creative and innovative ways. Thus, a complex picture emerges, and including insights from gender studies and anthropology, Bradley argues that religion can both empower and disempower local communities and the women who live within them. By analysing development through the prism of gender studies, Bradley highlights the complex nature of power relationships that are at the very heart of development agendas and organizations and offers an invaluable contribution to the understanding of the nexus of varied disciplines in the analysis of women and religion in Rajasthan. This book will be of interest to students, researchers, and policy makers involved in various fields including those of Development Studies Religion Gender Studies and Social Anthropology empirical facts about historical human civilizations Or is religion what is in essence unpredictable perhaps the very emergence of the new In what ways are the legacies of religion its powers words things and gestures reconfiguring themselves as the elementary forms of life in the twenty first century Given the Latin roots of the word religion and its historical Christian uses what sense if any does it make to talk about religion in other traditions Where might we look for common elements that would enable us to do so Has religion as an overarching concept lost all its currency or does it ineluctably return sometimes in unexpected ways the moment we attempt to do without it This book explores the difficulties and double binds that arise when we ask What is religion Offering a marvelously rich and diverse array of perspectives it begins the task of rethinking religion and religious studies in a contemporary world Opening essays on the question What is religion are followed by clusters exploring the relationships among religion theology and philosophy and the links between religion politics and law Pedagogy is the focus of the following section Religion is then examined in particular contexts from classical times to the present Pentecostal revival leading into an especially rich set of essays on religion materiality and mediatization The final section grapples with the ever changing forms that religion is taking such as spirituality movements and responses to the ecological crisis Featuring the work of leading scholars from a wide array of disciplines traditions and cultures Religion Beyond a Concept will help set the agenda for religious studies for years to come It is the first of five volumes in a collection entitled The Future of the Religious Past the fruit of a major international research initiative funded by the Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research Approaches to the Study of Religion Peter

Connolly,2001-11-30 It has been argued that religious studies is a polymethodic discipline and that the student of religion should be familiar with the approaches of the major disciplines concerned with understanding the nature of religion not least because the approach adopted has profound influence on the phenomena chose for investigation and the conclusions reached This book is the first textbook specifically designed for undergraduate students that provides the essential background on methods of the major relevant disciplines Presenting each of the significant approaches to religion in an informed manner the book brings together experienced researchers from feminism anthropology sociology phenomenology psychology philosophy and theology It presents a consistent approach throughout with each chapter dealing with the same themes the historical development of the approach the characteristics of the approach and the surrounding issues and debates

Anthropological Approaches to the Study of Religion Michael Banton,2004 As the basic questions of social structure were elucidated there came a quickening of interest among social anthropologists in the study of religion Chapters in this book include Religion as a Cultural System Clifford Geertz Colour Classification in Ndembu Religion Victor W Turner Religion Problems of Definition and Explanation Melford E Spiro Fathers Elders and Ghosts in Edo Religion R E Bradbury Territorial Groupings and Religion among the Iraqw Edward H Winter First published in 1966

The Learned Practice of Religion in the Modern University Donald Wiebe,2019-11-14 In these essays Donald Wiebe unveils a significant problem in the academic study of religion in colleges and universities in North America and Europe that studies almost always exhibit a religious bias To explore this issue Wiebe looks at the religious and moral agendas behind the study of religion showing that the boundaries between the objective study of religion and religious education as a tool for bettering society have become blurred As a result he argues religious studies departments have fostered an environment where religion has become a learned or scholarly practice rather than the object of academic scrutiny This book provides a critical history of the failure of 20th and 21st century scholars to follow through on the 19th century ideal of an objective scientific study of religious thought and behaviour Although emancipated from direct ecclesiastical control and to some extent from sectarian theologizing Wiebe argues that research and scholarship in the academic department of religious studies has failed to break free from religious constraints He shows that an objective scientific study of religious thought and practice is not only possible but the only appropriate approach to the study of religious phenomena

New Approaches to the Study of Religion: Regional, critical, and historical approaches Peter Antes,Armin W. Geertz,Randi Ruth Warne,2004 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches

Play and Power in Religion André Droogers,2011-11-30 At a religion s margins a counterpoint can be found for its power center In a creative manner relatively free from clerical control religious virtuosos take new initiatives there Inspired by their experience with the sacred they explore their liberty to play with meanings images and practices Yet the eventual success of such an innovation calls for organization and thus for the exercise of power Accordingly new movements slow down into institutions till a new virtuoso brings the cycle to a fresh start Over the last thirty years Andr Droogers has extensively published on the relation between religion power and play In this collection of essays the most relevant articles are reprinted For this volume Droogers wrote an autobiographical introduction showing how the contingencies of a career may nevertheless lead to a more or less consistent approach In Part I of the book articles are included that represent the basic ideas of Droogers approach with an emphasis on margin inversion ritual and meaning making In part II some of his articles on syncretism and Pentecostalism illustrate his views Part III contains articles that apply the play and power perspective to methodological issues in the study of religion

Topographies of Faith

,2013-04-15 Based on ethnographic explorations in cities across the globe Topographies of Faith offers a unique and compelling analysis of contemporary religious dynamics in metropolitan centers While most scholarship on religion still sidelines questions of spatiality and scale this book creatively draws on perspectives from urban studies to study the spatiality of religion in modern cities It shows how globalization transnational migration and urban expansion in big cities engender new religious forms and practices and their spatial underpinnings Space affects urban religious diversity religious innovations decline or vitality But it also shapes the relationships between religion and social equalities Spanning distances between New York Delhi and Johannesburg the book also engages with issues of secularity and religious vitality in genuinely new ways Contributors include Irene Becci Synn ve Bendixsen Marian Burchardt Jos Casanova Murat Es Ajay Gandhi Weishang Huang Godwin Onuoha Samadia Sadouni Peter van der Veer and Leilah Vevaina Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2004 The Routledge Companion to the Study of Religion ,
