Religious Encounters With Death:

Religious Encounters with death, 1973 Religious Encounters with Death American Academy of Religion, 1977

Religious Encounters with Death American Academy of Religion, 1977 Spiritual Encounters with Unusual Light Phenomena Mark Fox, 2013-06-15 This book is a study of unusual light phenomena based on almost 400 unpublished accounts of modern day encounters with strange lights collected over a period of thirty years held at the University of Wales Lampeter. It is an original and perennially topical book that goes beyond existing studies of unusual light phenomena such as lights encountered during angelic experiences, near death experiences, after death communications in a number of ways. It shows, for example, that experiences of unusual spiritual, religious, and paranormal lights are cross-cultural, trans-historical, and are reported widely in the present day but not necessarily experienced when near to death. It also demonstrates that these experiences share to a remarkable degree a common core, showing by drawing on a large number of vivid unpublished and dramatic testimonies that unusual lights typically manifest at times of crisis and are overwhelmingly benign and loving, producing turning points in the lives of experiencers and typically setting them in new spiritual and creative directions.

Religious Experience and the End of Metaphysics Jeffrey Bloechl, 2003 Does religious thinking stand in opposition to postmodernity? Does the existence of God present the ultimate challenge to metaphysics? Strands of continental thought, especially those running from Kant, Husserl, and Heidegger, focus on individual consciousness as the horizon for all meaning and provide modern philosophy of religion with much of its present ferment. In Religious Experience and the End of Metaphysics, 11 influential continental philosophers share the conviction that religious thinking cannot afford to disengage from the challenges of modern European philosophy. Together they provide a rich and intriguing set of answers to questions surrounding the meaning of religious experience. Topics include subjectivity, selfhood, and rationality; language, community, and ethics; the influence of Jewish and eastern religions on religious experience; God as phenomenology; and religion in the postmodern age. These lucid and arresting essays bring together many of the leading voices in the contemporary continental debate on God and religion.

African Traditional Religion Encounters Christianity John Chitakure, 2017-11-07 Right from the beginning of humankind, God has never deprived a people of his grace and revelation. In fact, God uses people's environment and culture to communicate his will. There is no single religion that can claim to have the exclusive possession of God's revelation, for God is too immense to be confined within one faith. Hence, it was erroneous, blasphemous, and misleading for some of the early Christian missionaries to Africa to claim that they had brought God to Africa, a mentality that implied the non-existence of God in Africa before their arrival. Of course, God was already in Africa, but the missionaries either failed to discern his presence or just disregarded the traces of his existence. This book explores the religious beliefs, practices, and values of the indigenous people of Africa at the time of the early missionaries' arrival, with particular reference to the Shona people of Zimbabwe. It also evaluates the extent of the missionaries' successes and challenges in converting Africans to Christianity It finally surveys how African Christians have remained attached to the indigenous religious beliefs that used to provide answers to their existential questions Understanding Religious Experiences J. Harold Ellens, 2007-11-30

Today most people feel less interested in religion and more interested in spirituality If you ask what they mean they will tell you that organized religion tends to turn them off but nonetheless they feel a hunger in the heart that they cannot seem to fill They do not mean that they would rather have disorganized religion they mean that institutional religion does not seem to satisfy their spirits and feel there must be something more some better way of experiencing whatever that is for which they are hungry Much new experimentation is going on as a result Some of it is a search for the meaning to fill the soul and satisfy the spirit much of it is a search for meaning on the spiritual level itself Spirituality reaches always toward the question about the meaning of God the meaning of relationships with others the meaning of intimacy and the meaning of soul gratifying insights into truth Here Ellens carefully and sensitively explores the full range of our spiritual natures and the variety of spiritual experiences of which we are capable describing the way our souls and psyches work in our hunger and thirst for meaning He explains in an enlightening and unconventional way why and how every human desires to reflect upon learn and share a heartfelt experience of God and of others Readers will find in this book a description of the meaning of the biblical stories about spiritual experiences in addition to descriptions of the kinds of spiritual experiences that ordinary people are having how they are achieving them and the ways in which they are filling their lives with meaning that goes beyond the horizons of material life The author paints this picture in such a way as to let us in on what biblically based authentic spirituality and spiritual experience really is and why it may or may not necessarily have anything to do with traditional institutionalized religion He carefully and vividly explains the notion of spirituality as it is illustrated in the Bible and discusses spiritual experiences such as prayer epiphany visions and other experiences He considers whether spirituality is mainly a connection with God with others or with both Readers hoping to get a better sense of what it means to be spiritual will have many of their questions answered in these pages Religious Encounter and the Making of the Yoruba John

David Yeadon Peel, J. D. Y. Peel, 2003-02-21 Peel is by training an anthropologist but one possessed of an acute historical sensibility Indeed this magnificent book achieves a degree of analytical verve rare in either discipline History Today This is scholarship of the highest quality Peel lifts the Yoruba past to a dimension of comparative seriousness that no one else has managed The book teems with ideas about big and compelling matters of very wide interest T C McCaskie In this magisterial book J D Y Peel contends that it is through their encounter with Christian missions in the mid 19th century that the Yoruba came to know themselves as a distinctive people Peel s detailed study of the encounter is based on the rich archives of the Anglican Church Missionary Society which contain the journals written by the African agents of mission who as the first generation of literate Yoruba played a key role in shaping modern Yoruba consciousness This distinguished book pays special attention to the experiences of ordinary men and women and shows how the process of Christian conversion transformed

Christianity into something more deeply Yoruba

The Confusion of Worlds Heiner Schwenke, 2019-01-31 The idea of the resurrection of the physical body and the eternal continuation of life with this body in a future paradisiacal kingdom of God on earth is one of the most enigmatic of religious ideas It fully contradicts our knowledge of the transitoriness of all things in this universe According to the author the origin for this idea lies in certain forms of otherworld experiences as for example reported by people who had near death experiences encounters with the dead in brilliantly beautiful bodies and the experience of paradisiacal seemingly earthly landscapes He observes that cultures with a pre modern cosmology sometimes projected such otherworld experiences onto this world to distant and unknown locations on earth These experiences were the blueprint for an expectation of paradisiacal conditions on earth The author establishes parallels between the reports of otherworld experiences and the eschatological ideas of Zoroastrianism Judaism and Christianity He shows that otherworld experiences can indeed foster the expectation of paradisiacal conditions on earth by referring to the Ghost Dance movement of the Lakota people in 1890 He presumes that the confusion of worlds proved fatal not only for the Lakota people but also for Jesus of Nazareth

The Religious Experience and Prophecies of H. Hutchinson ... Written by Himself Henry HUTCHINSON (of Heighington, Durham.), 1854

Acute Religious Experiences Richard Saville-Smith, 2023-02-09 This book engages the problem of how in the 21st century we are to speak about experiences of the extraordinary anomalous extreme which occur on a transhistorical and transcultural basis Critical re readings of seminal texts show how 20th century theoreticians in the humanities sought to erase madness from their irrational subjects This propensity to sanitize madness in the study of religions was mirrored by the instinct of psychiatrists to degrade religious experiences by reducing mad consciousness to psychosis or dissociation Richard Saville Smith introduces explanatory pluralism as a way of recognizing these disciplinary biases and mad studies as a way of negotiating this understanding The disproportionate significance of madness in shaping the fabric of the human story can then be recovered from both erasure and dismissal to be given the recognition previously denied as acute religious experiences Acute Religious Experiences divides into three sections beginning with re readings of William James's pathological programme Rudolf Otto's numinous T K Oesterreich's possession Mircea Eliade's shamanism Walter Stace's mysticism Walter Pahnke's psychedelic experience and Abraham Maslow's peak experiences These ideas are shown to constitute the beginnings of a fractured discourse on the irrational In part two contemporary psychiatry's Diagnostic and Statistical Manual DSM and Foucault's History of Madness are re read to reposition madness as not necessarily pathological This opens the way for the identification of acute religious experiences as a new holistic and post colonial approach through which religious data can be organized and addressed on a comparative basis In part three The Gospel of Mark is re read as a case study to demonstrate the novel insights which flow from the identification of acute religious experiences Richard Saville Smith draws on his own experiences of madness and his PhD from the School of Divinity at The University of Edinburgh to elucidate his research

Transformative Religious

Experience Joshua Iyadurai, 2015-04-30 What makes a priest of one religion become a preacher of another religion How could a person embrace a religion suddenly that he or she had up to then opposed Why would young women risk their reputation and endanger their lives for the sake of newfound faith How could an alcoholic detest a sip of wine all of a sudden What drives an atheist to become an ardent worshiper of God How could an intelligent person relate to God as to an adult human being Transformative Religious Experience answers these questions with fascinating narratives of conversion These narratives together show how the transforming effects of conversion permeate the daily lives of converts in a multireligious context Joshua Iyadurai analyzes psychologically the mystical turning point in the conversion process and finds that the divine human encounter entails a cognitive restructuring a new set of beliefs values and desires replaces previously held religious beliefs values and desires By drawing insights from the fields of psychology sociology anthropology and theology Iyadurai develops an interdisciplinary step model from a phenomenological perspective to explain the conversion process that incorporates the religious practices and social psychological factors while giving a central place to religious experience

Readings in Philosophy of Religion Linda Zagzebski, Timothy D. Miller, 2009-03-30 Comprised of readings from ancient to modern times this volume offers a comprehensive introduction to the central questions of the philosophy of religion Provides a history of the philosophy of religion from antiquity up to the twentieth century Each section is preceded by extensive commentary written by the editors followed by readings that are arranged chronologically Designed to be accessible to both undergraduate and graduate students Sacrifice in Religious Experience Albert I.

Baumgartner, 2018-09-24 This book presents revised papers delivered at the 1998 and 1999 Taubes Minerva Center for Religious Anthropology conferences The papers from the 1998 conference discuss the role of sacrifice in religious experience from a comparative perspective Those from the second conference examine alternatives to sacrifice The first theme has been much elaborated in recent scholarship and the essays here participate in that on going inquiry The second theme has been less explored and the goal of this volume is to stimulate examination of the topic by offering a set of test cases In both sections of the volume a wide variety of religious traditions are considered The essays show that in spite of the inclination we may sometimes have to consider sacrifice part of the idolatrous past long overcome it remains a persistent and meaningful part of religious experience

The Cognitive Neuroscience of Religious Experience Patrick McNamara, 2022-06-09 The Cognitive Neuroscience of Religious Experience now updated and expanded in a new edition updates key topics covered in the first edition including decentering and self transformation supernatural agent cognitions mystical states religious language ritualization and religious group agency It expands upon the first edition to include major findings on brain and religious experience over the past decade focusing on methodology future thinking and psychedelics It provides an up to date review of brain based accounts of religious experiences and systematically examines the rationale for utilizing neuroscience approaches to religion While it is primarily intended for religious studies scholars people interested in comparative religion philosophy of religion cultural evolution and personal self transformation will find an account of how such transformation is accomplished within religious contexts If Billy Sunday Comes to Town - Delusion as a Religious Experience? Cor Arends,2014 This book explores how religious delusion can be acknowledged as a religious experience In addition the book presents a detailed case study of the life of Presbyterian minister Anton T Boisen 1876 1965 his crises and the religious delusion that brought him to the brink of the abyss after the trauma he experienced during World War I Back cover

Religious Experience Craig Martin,Russell T. McCutcheon,2014-09-11 Many regard religious experience as the essence of religion arguing that narratives might be created and rituals invented but that these are always secondary to the original experience itself However the concept of experience has come under increasing fire from a range of critics and theorists This Reader presents writings from both those who assume the existence and possible universality of religious experience and those who question the very rhetoric of experience Bringing together both classic and contemporary writings the Reader showcases differing disciplinary approaches to the study of religious experience philosophy literary and cultural theory history psychology anthropology feminist theory as well as writings from within religious studies The essays are structured into pairs with each essay separately introduced with information on its historical and intellectual context The ultimate aim of the Reader is to enable students to explore religious experience as rhetoric created to authorize social identities The book will be an invaluable introduction to the key ideas and approaches for students of Religion as well as Sociology and Anthropology CONTRIBUTORS Robert Desjarlais Diana Eck William James Craig Martin Russell T McCutcheon Wayne Proudfoot Robert Sharf Ann Taves Charles Taylor Joachim Wach Joan Wallach Scott Raymond Williams Reason and Religion Rem B. Edwards,2016-10-13 This book covers a variety of approaches to the main issues usually covered by philosophy of religion textbooks such as the meaning of religion six ways of relating theology to philosophy naturalism versus supernaturalism and their respective difficulties an explanation and defense of process theism or panentheism God s attributes critiques and defenses of the ontological cosmological and teleological arguments religious experience including pluralistic and monistic mysticism verification after death and the future of reason and religion In dealing with the arguments for the existence of God theism wins Though published some decades ago there is very little in this book that the author would change today The Cambridge Companion to Religious Experience Paul K. Moser,Chad Meister,2020-07-16 Offers a state of the art contribution by providing critical analyses of and creative insights to the nature of religious experience The Religious Experience of the Roman People William Warde Fowler,1911
