Religious Life The Challenge Of Tomorrow:

Religious Life Cassian J. Yuhaus, 1994 The chapters in this book were originally talks given at the 25th International Institute for Religious which brought together a group of creative people to reflect on whether religious life has any future and what shape it might take The contributors to this book offer a variety of approaches that suggest the old ways of life are dead while the new ones are coming into focus Religious Life Loan Le, 2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live Religious Life in a New Millennium Volume One Sandra M. Schneiders, I.H.M., The General Chapter in a Religious Institute Elizabeth M. Cotter, 2008 This book examines the historical antecedents of the concept of general chapter the supreme authority in an institute of consecrated life This provides the basis for an examination of the contemporary understanding of the nature of its power and authority as portrayed in the 1983 Code of Canon Law The general chapter is analysed in terms of its juridic status collegial nature participative character and representative function as well as its dynamic aspects and faith dimension The author applies the findings to one institute of consecrated life Institute of the Blessed Virgin Mary Loreto Branch This application provides an example of the challenges inherent in working participatively and collaboratively within a hierarchical structure Because consecrated life has an inalienable ecclesial dimension understanding authority and power and their exercise in institutes of consecrated life has relevance for understanding authority and its exercise in other organs of authority at all levels in the church The Evolution of a Vow Judith Schaefer, 2009 For centuries the vow of obedience has been at the heart of religious life With the renewal efforts of Vatican II the vow has been dramatically restructured but not theologically re envisioned The Evolution of a Vow Obedience as Decision Making in Communion addresses the changes in the vow and proposes a renewed theology that supports the living out of obedience in the twenty first century Obedience in communion as a theological proposal invites vowed religious to create a pattern of limitless listening that everywhere seeks the call of God to communion Against the horizon of communion obedience becomes the singular thread of grace by which vowed religious become who they are called to be Finding the Treasure Sandra Marie Schneiders,2000 Sandra Schneiders brilliant and perceptive analysis projects a new model of religious life Deeply exciting and genuinely consoling from back cover A Life in Conversation Michael A. as well as to the impact of contemporary culture While the impetus to renewal came directly from the Church authority adaptation and change far exceeded what was originally envisioned by those who authorized the process particularly when the institutes responded to the directive to consult all the members The contributors to this book trace the most critical influences that moved religious congregations toward a renewed religious life They embraced a God who does not remain static but who moves in human history a loving God who relates to us in care and compassion a Holy Spirit who dwells within and inspires through discernment the decisions and directions that are to be taken a sense of personal worth and empowerment as women baptized into gospel mission and ministry a response to Church teaching that action on behalf of justice is constitutive of Gospel mission In renewing their religious life women have an important experience to offer the Church for ongoing renewal in the future as reflection upon these essays and continuing dialogue will reveal

Science and Religion J.W. Fennema, Paul Iain, 2012-12-06 The world is increasingly becoming one. It is at the same time one endangered ecosystem and one thriving market place with material and spiritual goods on competitive display. And the good and evil things of life cannot easily be sorted out. The world is becoming one also in the sense that it is better understood today than it was in earlier times that the material good and the spiritual good though seemingly belonging to different realms of fact defined by their respective modes of existence together constitute effectively one and the same reality: the modern world of science, technology, computerized administration and power that calls upon humankind to struggle for a just participatory and sustainable society and to strive for a society of the future that will be the world over both long lived and worth living. The Second European Conference on Science and Religion held on 10-13th March 1988 on the campus of the Universiteit Twente Enschede, The Netherlands was meant to be a modest market place, a forum where standpoints and opinions could be presented and criticized. It was meant to offer an opportunity to meet and to make acquaintances in the expectation that the exchange of thoughts would lead to new conceptual horizons that would challenge what so far had been considered as hard fact or what until now had been looked upon as a distinctive feature of a well established view either of the kingdom of the sciences or of the realm of religion. *Equip For Growth ...
