Across the Diaspora Andrea O'Reilly Herrera, 2011-07-11 As an island a geographical space with mutable and porous borders Cuba has never been a fixed cultural political or geographical entity Migration and exile have always informed the Cuban experience and loss and displacement have figured as central preoccupations among Cuban artists and intellectuals A major expression of this experience is the unconventional multi generational itinerant and ongoing art exhibit CAF The Journeys of Cuban Artists In Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora Andrea O'Reilly Herrera focuses on the CAF project to explore Cuba's long and turbulent history of movement and rupture from the perspective of its visual arts and to meditate upon the manner in which one reconstitutes and reinvents the self in the context of diaspora Approaching the Cafeteros art from a cultural studies perspective O'Reilly Herrera examines how the history of Cuba informs their work and establishes their connections to past generations of Cuban artists In interviews with more than thirty artists including Jos Bedia Mar a Brito Leandro Soto Glexis Novoa Baruj Salinas and Ana Albertina Delgado O'Reilly Herrera also raises critical questions regarding the many and sometimes paradoxical ways diasporic subjects self affiliate or situate themselves in the narratives of scattering and displacement She demonstrates how the Cafeteros artmaking involves a process of re-rooting absorption translation and synthesis that simultaneously conserves a series of identifiable Cuban cultural elements while re-inscribing and transforming them in new contexts An important contribution to both diasporic and transnational studies and discussions of contemporary Cuban art Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora ultimately testifies to the fact that a long tradition of Cuban art is indeed flourishing outside the island Cuban-American Literature and Art Isabel Alvarez Borland, Lynette M. Leonardo Padura and Jos Toirac The cultural field is important for the reproduction of the regime in place given its pretense and ambition to be eternally revolutionary and to lead a genuine cultural revolution Cultural actors must be mobilized and handled with care given their presumed disposition to speak their mind and to cherish their autonomy This book argues that cultural actors also seek recognition by the main for a long time the only sponsor and patron of the art in Cuba the curator state The curator state is also a gatekeeper state arbitrarily and selectively opening and closing the space for public expression and for access to foreign currencies and the global market The time when everything was either mandatory or forbidden is over in Cuba The regime seems to have learned from egregious mistakes that led to a massive exodus of artists writers and academics In a country where things change so everything could stay the same the controlled opening in the cultural field playing on the actors ambition and fear illuminates a broader phenomenon the evolving rules of the political game in the longest standing dictatorship of the hemisphere Reading U.S. Latina Writers A.
