The Storytelling State Cheng Nien

Yuan, 2025-07-31 In The Storytelling State Cheng Nien Yuan a Singaporean performance scholar and dramaturg charts Singapore's development into a storytelling state since the 2010s In such a state public autobiographical stories of everyday people elicited through visualized narrative interviews proliferate the nation's mediascape Governmental agencies and government linked institutions actively facilitate this phenomenon through campaigns and funding incentives Examining several key campaigns from the period of 2011–2021 Cheng shows how state and society collaborate to cultivate an intimate confessional public Taken together these stories generate a new paradigm of communicating social policy and the Singapore Story by mapping the national archive onto everyday bodies Bite sized pieces of consumable lives are marketed as authentic windows to the private self producing ways of being doing and feeling in the nation in accordance with contemporary societal concerns This book enters a larger debate about storytelling's impact around the world in the digital age Singapore's storytelling state functions within a global network of performing memory with new media Its origins can be traced to popular American models of oral history telling as seen in StoryCorps and Humans of New York with their techniques appropriated for a Singaporean audience Yet even when well intentioned the claims of such projects of giving voice to the non elite and the marginalized can be undermined by injurious effects that are not unique to the Singaporean context At the same time the embodied and emotional nature of these performances make the absolute control of meaning difficult Often they reveal more than they should transgressing the normative demands of the storytelling state At stake here are performances of identity mobility and belonging When the national stage is set for life itself what does it mean to have a life
