Consuming Dance Colleen T. Dunagan, 2018-05-04 Dance in TV advertisements has long been familiar to Americans as a silhouette dancing against a colored screen exhibiting moves from air guitar to breakdance tricks all in service of selling the latest Apple product But as author Colleen T Dunagan shows in Consuming Dance the advertising industry used dance to market items long before iPods In this book Dunagan lays out a comprehensive history and analysis of dance commercials to demonstrate the ways in which the form articulates with informs and reflects U S culture In doing so she examines dance commercials as cultural products looking at the ways in which dance engages with television film and advertising in the production of cultural meaning Throughout the book Dunagan interweaves semiotics choreographic analysis cultural studies and critical theory in an examination of contemporary dance commercials while placing the analysis within a historical context She draws upon connections between individual dance commercials and the discursive and production histories to provide a thorough look into brand identity and advertising's role in constructing social identities

Narratives of Nostalgia and Repair in American Comics and Literature Aanchal Vij, 2025-08-21 Through a study of both novels and comic books of 20th and 21st century this book claims that it is not possible to create any narrative of exceptionalism without also manufacturing a sense of nostalgia for a past that may or may not have existed Acts of personal or historical repair are central to such nostalgia and symptomatic of a desire to both escape and confront difficult pasts The myth of American exceptionalism is one such narrative of nostalgia that in its conception of damage and acts of repair disables histories Through works by Michael Chabon Art Spiegelman Philip Roth Alan Moore and Ta Nehisi Coates this book reframes the idea of heroism and locates it outside of the hegemonic narrative of American exceptionalism This book puts comics studies and literature in dialogue with disability studies to argue that an able history just like an able body is a myth The figure of the superhero or the trope of heroism is central to the moments of historical repair as well as the identity politics of who repairs the damage The corpus illustrates how American escapism and counterfactual conception of a nation's past can prolong the trauma of beleaguered communities cultures bodies and histories This book reveals how prostheticising one version of history can amputate another there is no narrative of exceptionalism that is also not simultaneously a narrative of disability

Etgar Keret's Literature and the Ethos of Coping with Holocaust Remembrance Yael Seliger, 2024-01-16 This book highlights the need for a shift from thinking in terms of memories of traumatic events to changeable modes of remembrance The call for a fundamental change in approaches to commemorative remembrance is exemplified in literature written by the internationally acclaimed writer Etgar Keret Considered the most influential Israeli voice of his generation Keret's storytelling is in congruence with postmodern thinking Through transferring remembrance of the Holocaust from stagnant Holocaust commemoration museums and commemorative ceremonies to unconventional settings such as youngsters playing soccer or being forced to venture outdoors in a COVID 19 pandemic environment Keret's storytelling ushers in a unique approach to coping with remembrance of historical catastrophes The book is a valuable resource for students and scholars interested in pursuing the subjects of Etgar Keret's artistry and literature written in a post modern post Holocaust milieu about personal and collective traumatic remembrance

(Post)apartheid Conditions D. Hook, 2013-08-27 Post apartheid Conditions Psychoanalysis and Social Formation advances a series of psychoanalytic perspectives on contemporary South Africa exploring key psychosocial topics such as space identity social fantasy the body whiteness memory and nostalgia

Narratives of Nostalgia, Gender, and Nationalism Jean Pickering, Suzanne Kehde, 1996 Most Americans think of Betsy Ross as she was depicted in Charles Weisberger's popular painting The Birth of Our Nation's Flag a motherly figure sewing at the hearth In fact as Jo Ann Menezes's analysis in Nostalgia Gender and Nationalism points out Ross was a widowed businesswoman who ran an upholstery shop out of her house In Weisberger's painting all signs of economic industry are erased and Ross's house is transformed into a home rather than the site of cottage industry Ross is constructed as the perfect heroic mother worthy of sacred creation thus our flag was born Ross's transformation into an icon neatly illustrates the conjunction of soaring nationalism and the establishment of woman as a fixed domestic presence and serves as an excellent example of the master narratives revealed in Nostalgia Gender and Nationalism The essays in this provocative anthology explore the connections between nation and gender and the ways in which nostalgia functions to bind these two presumably unrelated constructions together Collectively they suggest that women pay a special fee on behalf of the nation even though it is traditionally represented as an honorarium given to them and that in fact the nation state takes as a foundational principle the subordination of women

More Than Precious Memories Michael P. Graves, David Fillingim, 2004 Scott Tucker looks at the theme of heaven in six of the Gaither Homecoming songbooks David Fillingim looks at how Southern Gospel Music answers the question of theodicy from the perspective of the rural white working class Robert M McManus explores selected song lyrics to show how Southern Gospel Music helps construct the identity of the community compared to Contemporary Christian Music Darlene R Graves identifies key sustaining personality strengths of women that tend to preserve consistency between their public performance and personal spiritual walk Elizabeth E Desnoyers Colas and Stephanie Howard Asabi explore Southern Gospel and Black Gospel music through the influence of Thomas A Dorsey Michael Graves examines how the culture of Southern Gospel Music deals with its inevitable prodigal sons Raymond D S Anderson analyzes the Gaither Homecoming videos as examples of the postmodern turn in American popular Christian culture John D Keeler presents the first audience study of southern Gospel Music employing a Uses and Gratifications research framework Paul A Creasman examines the ways Southern Gospel Music as a culture memorializes its dead by use of the Internet Naaman Wood reviews significant scholarly approaches to the study of popular music

Revisiting Loss Wojciech Drąg, 2014-07-03 Loss is the core experience which determines the identity of Kazuo Ishiguro's narrators and shapes their subsequent lives Whether a traumatic ordeal an act of social degradation a failed relationship or a loss of home the painful event serves as a sharp dividing line between the earlier meaningful past and the period afterwards which is infused with a sense of lack dissatisfaction and nostalgia Ishiguro's narrators have been unable to confine their loss to the past and remain preoccupied by its legacy which ranges from suppressed guilt to a keen sense of failure or disappointment Their immersion in the past finds expression in the narratives which they weave in order to articulate justify or merely understand their experiences Their reconstructions of the past are interpreted as exercises in misremembering and self deception which enable them to sustain their illusions and save them from despair Revisiting Loss is the first book length study of memory encompassing Ishiguro's entire novelistic output It adopts a highly interdisciplinary approach combining a selection of philosophical Jacques Derrida Paul Ricoeur and Jean Starobinski and psychological perspectives Sigmund Freud Frederic Bartlett Jacques Lacan and Daniel L Schacter The book offers a thoroughly researched critical survey drawing on all published critical monographs and collections of academic articles on Ishiguro's work Forensic Memory Johanne Helbo Bøndergaard, 2017-10-14 This book describes and analyses a particular literary mode that challenges the aesthetics of testimony by approaching the past through detection analysis and archaeological digging How does forensic literature narrate the past in terms of plot language narration and use of visual media This volume examines how forensic literature provides an important corrective to the forensic paradigm and a means of exploring the relationship between visual and material evidence and various forms of testimony This literary engagement with the past is investigated in order to challenge a forensic paradigm that aims to eliminate the problems related to human testimony through scientific objectivity resulting in a fresh and original text in which Bøndergaard argues literature's potential to explore the mechanisms of representation interpretation and narration Cinematic Urban Geographies François Penz, Richard Koeck, 2017-07-12 This book proposes new methodological tools and approaches in order to tease out and elicit the different facets of urban fragmentation through the medium of cinema and the moving image as a contribution to our understanding of cities and their topographies In doing so it makes a significant contribution to the literature in the growing field of cartographic cinema and urban cinematics by charting the many trajectories and points of contact between film and its topographical context Under the influence of new technologies the opening and the availability of previously unexplored archives but also the contribution of new scholars with novel approaches in addition to new work by experienced academics Cinematic Urban Geographies demonstrates how we can reread the cinematic past with a view to construct the urban present and anticipate its future

Postregional Fictions Clare Chadd, 2021-07-07 Drawing from recent debates about the validity of regional studies and skepticism surrounding the efficacy of the concept of authenticity Clare Chadd's Postregional Fictions focuses on questions of southern regional authenticity in fiction published by Barry Hannah from 1972 to 2001 The first monograph on the Mississippi author's work to appear since his death this study considers the ways in which Hannah's novels and short stories challenge established conceptual understandings of the U S South Hannah's writing often features elements of metafiction through which the putative sense of southernness his stories dramatize is complicated by an intense self reflexivity about the extent to which a sense of place has never been foundational or essential but has always been constructed and performed Such texts locate a productive terrain between the local and the global with particular relevance for critical apprehensions of the post South and postsouthern literature Offering sustained close readings of selected stories and focusing especially on Hannah's late work Chadd argues that his fiction reveals the region constantly shifting in a process of mythmaking dialogue and performance In turn she uses Hannah's work to suggest how notions of the South and southernness might survive the various deconstructive approaches leveled against them in recent decades of southern studies scholarship Rather than seeing an impasse between the regional and the global Chadd's reading of Hannah shows the two existing and flourishing in tandem In Postregional Fictions Chadd offers a new interpretation of Hannah based on an appreciation of the vital intersection of southern and postmodern elements in his work Mediating Modernity Lauren B. Strauss, Michael Brenner, 2008-06-02

Scholars of Jewish studies German history and religious history will appreciate this timely volume Culturally Responsive Methodologies Mere Berryman, Suzanne SooHoo, Ann Nevin, 2013-01-17 This book offers new methodologies that require the researcher to develop relationships that may enable them to intimately come to respect and know the Other with whom they seek to study Fictions of the War on Terror D. O'Gorman, 2015-06-29 This book argues that there are a number of contemporary novels that challenge the reductive us and them binaries that have been prevalent not only in politics and the global media since 9 11 but also in many works within the emerging genre of 9 11 fiction itself

Masculinity and Film Performance D. Peberdy, 2011-07-19 A lively and engaging study of on screen and off screen performances of masculinity focusing on well known male actors in American film and popular culture in the 1990s and 2000s Peberdy examines specific social cultural historical and political contexts that have affected age race sexuality and fatherhood on screen Literature of the Global Age Maurizio Ascari, 2014-01-10 In an age of world citizenship literary scholarship is focusing increasingly on texts which communicate effectively over cultural lines Advocating a planetary approach to contemporary literature this critical text examines eight novels from eight cultures The writers discussed are Julian Barnes Magda Szabo Abraham B Yehoshua Ian McEwan W G Sebald Murakami Haruki Jonathan Safran Foer and Azar Nafisi Focusing on the authors encouragement to meditate on life s most pressing issues the essays here invite us to reevaluate postmodernism as a current category Reading Our Lives William L. Randall, Elizabeth McKim, 2008-06-03 Against the background of Socrates insight that the unexamined life is not worth living Reading Our Lives The Poetics of Growing Old investigates the often overlooked inside dimensions of aging Despite popular portrayals of mid and later life as entailing inevitable decline this book looks at aging as potentially a process of poesis a creative endeavor of fashioning meaning from the ever accumulating texts memories and reflections that constitute our inner worlds At its center is the conviction that although we are constantly reading our lives to some degree anyway doing so in a mindful matter is critical to our development in the second half of life Drawing on research in numerous disciplines affected by the so called narrative turn including cognitive psychology neuroscience and the psychology of aging authors Randall and McKim articulate a vision of aging that promises to accommodate such time honored concepts as wisdom and spirituality one that understands aging as a matter not merely of getting old but of consciously growing old Subjectivity in the Twenty-First Century Romin W. Tafarodi, 2013-09-23 What is it like to be a person today To think feel and act as an individual in a time of accelerated social cultural technological and political change This question is inspired by the double meaning of subjectivity as both the first personness of consciousness being a subject of experience and the conditioning of that consciousness within society being subject to power authority or influence The contributors to this volume explore the perils and promise of the self in today s world Their shared aim is to describe where we stand and what is at stake as we move ahead in the twenty first century They do so by interrogating the historical moment as a predicament of the subject Their shared focus is on subjectivity as a dialectic of self and other or individual and society and how the defining tensions of subjectivity are reflected in contemporary forms of individualism identity autonomy social connection and political consciousness Rebetiko Worlds Dafni Tragaki, 2009-01-14 Rebetiko Worlds invites the reader to share the experience of rebetiko music making in the city of Thessaloniki today It aims at representing an ethnographic world made of diverse realities united by the melancholic sounds of rebetiko songs Rather than a musicological account on rebetiko music this ethnography is about the human encounters happening in certain rebetiko venues of the Ano Poli area in Thessaloniki How do people perceive practice feel and imagine rebetiko song a music tradition coming from the beginning of the 20th century today What are the worldviews embodied and inspired in the context of the ongoing rebetiko performances And how may the exploration of rebetiko revivalist culture convey understandings of broader music cultural orientations defining contemporary Greek society This ethnography is primarily interested in knowing contemporary rebetiko culture as a lived experience It captures instances of the life worlds of the people involved in the rebetiko revival which unravel the ways local traditions are re defined in the context of the nostalgic re invention of ethnic music in postcolonial times On this level the representation of the discourses and aesthetics associated with rebetiko performances today instigate further interpretations of local cultural trends the visions of our future triggered by the mythicized representations of our past Beyond a window to the rebetiko worlds of today this book recounts the story of an ethnographer engaged in fieldwork at home It aims at communicating the dynamics of reflexivity shaping the ethnographic self by proposing an understanding of the fieldwork experience as a special ontology In this way it reveals the various dilemmas moments of enthusiasm and moments of despair lived in the process of research in an attempt to illuminate the poetics of the subjective cultural knowledge Rebetiko Worlds incites the reader to share the poetics of ethnographic fiction and interpretation and through this the gradual making of the ethnomusicologist in the field
