Jefferson, 2018-06-05 This volume inaugurates the definitive edition of papers from Thomas Jefferson's retirement As the volume opens a new president is installed and Jefferson is anticipating his return to Virginia where he will pursue a fascinating range of personal and intellectual activities He prepares for his final departure from Washington by settling accounts and borrowing to pay his creditors At Monticello he tells of his efforts to restore order at his mismanaged mill complex breed merino sheep and otherwise resume full control of his financial and agricultural affairs Though he is entering retirement he still has one foot firmly planted in the world of public affairs He acknowledges a flood of accolades on his retirement and has frequent exchanges with President James Madison While fielding written requests for money favors and advice from a kaleidoscopic array of relatives acquaintances strangers cranks anonymous writers and a blackmailer he maintains a wide and varied correspondence with scientists and scholars on both sides of the Atlantic The volume's
