Spectacle of Deformity Nadja Durbach,2009-10-13 In 1847 during the great age of the freak show the British periodical Punch bemoaned the public s prevailing taste for deformity This vividly detailed work argues that far from being purely exploitative displays of anomalous bodies served a deeper social purpose as they generated popular and scientific debates over the meanings attached to bodily difference Nadja Durbach examines freaks both well known and obscure including the Elephant Man Lalloo the Double Bodied Hindoo Boy a set of conjoined twins advertised as half male half female Krao a seven year old hairy Laotian girl who was marketed as Darwin s missing link the Last of the Mysterious Aztecs and African Cannibal Kings who were often merely Irishmen in blackface Upending our tendency to read late twentieth century conceptions of disability onto the bodies of freak show performers Durbach shows that these spectacles helped to articulate the cultural meanings invested in otherness and thus clarified what it meant to be British at a key moment in the making of modern and imperial ideologies and identities The Genial Showman Edward Peron Hingston,1871 Measured by
