Remote Control New Media New Ethics:

Remote Control Catharine Lumby, Elspeth Probyn, 2004-01-12 This book examines the ethical challenges posed by new media formats technologies and audiences It considers how these emerging genres and technologies work how they are reshaping the public sphere and how the connections between product and viewer and producer and media consumer are being changed by new shows and formats It includes lively chapters from a range of prominent media commentators and practitioners on a diverse range of issues including reality TV on line media the cash for comment scandal and emerging philosophical approaches to new media ethics With so much interest in contemporary media forms and so many heated debates about media ethics this book will be a must for journalists media practitioners watchers and students Living Media Ethics Michael Bugeja, 2018-10-26 Winner of the Clifford G Christians Award for Research in Media Ethics Michael Bugeja's Living Media Ethics posits that moral convergence is essential to address the complex issues of our high tech media environment As such the book departs from and yet complements traditional pedagogy in media ethics Bugeja covers advertising public relations and major branches of journalism as well as major schools of philosophical thought and historical events that have shaped current media practices Examining topics including responsibility truth falsehood temptation bias fairness and power chapters encourage readers to develop a personal code of ethics that they can turn to throughout their careers Each chapter includes exercises as well as journal writing and creative assignments designed to build test and enhance individual value systems Unlike other texts this media ethics book ends with an assignment to create a digital portfolio with personal ethics code aligned with a desired media position or company Advertising and New Media Christina Spurgeon, 2007-10-31 Clear and comprehensive this book explores the evolving relationship between new media advertising and new media consumers Tracing the shift from mass media to my media examples are taken from across the globe Design and Ethics Emma Felton, Oksana Zelenko, Suzi Vaughan, 2013-06-19 The value of design for contributing to environmental solutions and a sustainable future is increasingly recognised It spans many spheres of everyday life and the ethical dimension of design practice that considers environmental social and economic sustainability is compelling Approaches to design recognise design as a practice that can transform human experience and understanding expanding its role beyond stylistic enhancement The traditional roles of design designer and designed object are therefore redefined through new understanding of the relationship between the material and immaterial aspects of design where the design product and the design process are embodiments of ideas values and beliefs This multi disciplinary approach considers how to create design which is at once aesthetically pleasing and also ethically considered with contributions from fields as diverse as architecture fashion urban design and philosophy The authors also address how to teach design based subjects while instilling a desire in the student to develop ethical work practices both inside and outside the studio Working in Jamie's Kitchen P. Kelly, L. Harrison, 2009-08-28 In the UK in 2002 the celebrity chef Jamie Oliver set out to transform a group of unemployed young Londoners into enterprising passionate workers Their struggles and those that train and manage them to develop a passionate orientation to work highlights many of the challenges we all face in the globalized labour markets of the 21st century

Changing Stations Bridget Griffen-Foley, 2009 Immediate intimate portable and inexpensive radio is the most pervasive medium in Australia Changing Stations is the first full scale national history of commercial radio in Australia from the experiments and schemes of the 1920s through to the eve of the introduction of digital radio in 2009

New Dimensions in Privacy Law Andrew T. Kenyon, Megan Richardson, 2006-11-02 This broad ranging examination of privacy law considers the challenges faced by the law in changing technological commercial and social environments It encompasses three overlapping areas of analysis privacy protection under the general law legislative measures for data protection in digital communications networks and the influence of transnational agreements and other pressures towards harmonised privacy standards Leading internationally recognised authors discuss developments across these three areas in the United Kingdom Europe the United States Australia and New Zealand

Reputation, Celebrity and Defamation Law David Rolph, 2016-04-08 Taking Robert Post's seminal article The Social Foundations of Reputation and the Constitution as a starting point this volume examines how the concept of reputation changes to reflect social political economic cultural and technological developments It suggests that the value of a good reputation is not immutable and analyzes the history and doctrines of defamation law in the US and the UK A selection of Australian case studies illustrates different concepts of defamation law and offers insights into their specific nature Drawing on approaches to celebrity in media and cultural studies the author conceptualizes reputation as a media construct and explains how reputation as celebrity is of great contemporary relevance at this point in the history of defamation law

Reel Politics Lemi Baruh, Ji Hoon Park, 2020-05-22 In the mid 1980s Neil Postman claimed that television made entertainment the natural format for the representation of all experience While Postman's argument still is pertinent to a description of contemporary television shows it also seems increasingly more accurate to argue that reality based entertainment is quickly becoming the referential format for televisual representations of our experience in the 21st century Chapters in this edited volume explore reality television's place within contemporary media landscape in terms of its potential for political engagement The authors engage with a variety of issues such as politics of authenticity and performance audience reception of political issues ethics and media regulation politics of self presentation modernity and collective identity The diversity of perspectives and issues presented in this book cautions readers both against quickly dismissing reality television's potential as a platform for political discourse and against subscribing to the celebratory rhetoric regarding the democratic potential of reality television

Reel Politics Reality Television as a Platform for Political Discourse furthers our understanding of the semiotic openness of the reality text and the variations in social cultural and political contexts across which the reality television genre formulas migrate

Trans-Reality Television Sofie Van Bauwel, Nico Carpentier, 2012-07-10 Trans Reality Television The Transgression of Reality Genre Politics

and Audience offers an overview of contributions which engage with the phenomenon of reality television as a tool to reflect on societal and mediated transformations and transgressions While some contributors delve deep into the theoretical issues others approach the topic at hand through empirical studies of specific reality television formats and programs The chapters in this volume are divided into four sections all of which deal with how we see the fluid social at work in reality television through the trans real trans politics trans genre and trans audience The first section stresses the concept of the trans real These chapters go into the complexity of the construction of reality in reality television The second section which deals with the concept of trans politics offers a diversity of perspectives on the articulation and re articulation of politics and the political In the third section trans genre the chapters analyze how the modern conceptualizations of genre and format are transcended Finally the last set of chapters articulate the concept of trans audiences using case studies of particular audiences and a study of reality celebrities Trans Reality Television concludes by returning to the sense and nonsense of the use of these post concepts

The Shrinking Nation Graeme Turner, 2023-08-01 Over the past two decades Australia has been experiencing a sustained period of accelerated socio cultural change accompanied by existential threats from natural disasters and the Covid pandemic and punctuated by repeated cycles of political upheaval The divisive and hyper partisan version of party politics that has accompanied these events has hamstrung the nation s capacity to respond to the challenges of the day from dealing with climate change to advancing gender equity or to renovating the buckling structures of social welfare At the same time we have seen the quality of our democracy compromised In The Shrinking Nation leading cultural historian Graeme Turner examines a wide range of social and cultural change including the role played by a media environment swamped by misinformation the social consequences of neoliberal economic policy and the divisive legacy of the culture wars before considering how we might strengthen the bonds of community and belonging that tie our nation together

The Top Books of the Year Remote Control New Media New Ethics The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Remote Control New Media New Ethics : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Remote Control New Media New Ethics : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
