Renaissance Society and Culture John Monfasani, Ronald G. Musto, 1991 Renaissance Society and Culture John Monfasani, Ronald G. Musto, 1991 The Envy of Angels C. Stephen Jaeger, 2013-08-31 Before the rise of universities cathedral schools educated students in a course of studies aimed at perfecting their physical presence their manners and their eloquence The formula of cathedral schools was letters and manners litterae et mores which asserts a pedagogic program as broad as the modern letters and science The main instrument of what C Stephen Jaeger calls charismatic pedagogy was the master s personality his physical presence radiating a transforming force to his students In The Envy of Angels Jaeger explores this intriguing chapter in the history of ideas and higher learning and opens a new view of intellectual and social life in eleventh and early twelfth century Europe The Origins of the State in Italy, 1300-1600 Julius Kirshner, 2009-05-15 The beginnings of the state in Europe is a central topic of contemporary historical research The making of such early modern Italian regional states as Florence the kingdom of Naples Milan and Venice exemplifies a decisive turn in the state tradition of Western Europe The Origins of the State in Italy 1300 1600 represents the best in American British and Italian scholarship and offers a valuable and critical overview of the key problems of the emergence of the state in Europe Some of the topics covered include the political legitimacy of the aborning regional states the changing legal culture the conflict between church and state the forces shaping public finances and the creation of the Italian League The eight essays in this collection originally appeared in the Journal of Modern History Contributors include Roberto Bizzocchi Giorgio Chittolini Trevor Dean Riccardo Fubini Elena Fasano Guarini Aldo Mazzacane Anthony Molho and Pierangelo Schiera This volume will appeal to historians historical sociologists and historians of political thought The Cambridge Critical Guide to Latin Literature Roy Gibson, Christopher Whitton, 2024-01-18 The Cambridge Critical Guide to Latin Literature offers a critical overview of work on Latin literature Where are we How did we get here Where to next Fifteen commissioned chapters along with an extensive introduction and Mary Beard s postscript approach these questions from a range of angles They aim not to codify the field but to give snapshots of the discipline from different perspectives and to offer provocations for future development The Critical Guide aims to stimulate reflection on how we engage with Latin literature Texts tools and territories are the three areas of focus The Guide situates the study of classical Latin literature within its global context from late antiquity to Neo Latin moving away from an exclusive focus on the pre 200 CE corpus It recalibrates links with adjoining disciplines history philosophy material culture linguistics political thought Greek and takes a fresh look at key tools editing reception intertextuality theory Impagination - Layout and Materiality of Writing and Publication Ku-ming (Kevin) Chang, Anthony Grafton, Glenn Warren Most, 2021-01-18 This volume is the first comparative history that studies the practice of impagination across different ages and civilizations By impagination we mean the act of placing and arranging spatially textual and other information onto a material bearer that could be made of a variety of materials papyrus bamboo slips palm

leaf parchment paper and the computer screen This volume investigates three levels of impagination what is the page or other unit of the material bearer what is written or printed on it and how is writing or print placed on it It also examines the interrelations of two or all three of these levels Collectively it examines the material and materiality of the page the variety of imprints cultural and historical conventions for impagination interlinguistic encounters the control of editors scribes publishers and readers over the page inheritance borrowing and innovation economics aesthetics and socialities of imprints and impagination and the relationship of impagination to philology This volume supplements studies on mise en page and layout an important subject of codicology first by including non codex writings second by taking a closer look at the page or other unit than at the codex or book and third by its aspiration to adopt a globally comparative approach This volume brings together for comparison vast geographical realms of learning including Europe China Tibet Korea Japan and the Near Eastern and European communities in which the Hebrew Bible was transmitted This comparison is significant for Europe China and India all developed great traditions of learning which came into intensive contact The contributions to this volume are firmly rooted in local cultures and together address global comparative themes that are significant for multiple disciplines such as intellectual and cultural history of knowledge both humanistic and scientific global history literary and media studies aesthetics and studies of material culture among other fields

Re-memembering Masculinity in Early Modern Florence Allison Levy, 2017-03-02 From Pliny to Petrarch to Pope Hennessy and beyond many have understood the obvious connection between portraiture and commemorative practice This book expands and nuances our understanding of Renaissance portraiture the author shows it to be complexly generated within a discourse of male anxiety and pre mortuary mourning She argues that portraiture could defer memory loss or at the very least pictorially console the subject against his own potentially unmourned death This book recognizes a socio cultural anxiety the fear not merely of death but also of being forgotten and identifies a set of pictorial literary and theoretical strategies consequently formulated to ensure memory To explore this phenomenon this interdisciplinary but fundamentally art historical project merges early modern visual culture and critical theories of the body The author examines an extensive selection of fifteenth and sixteenth century male and female portraits primarily associated with the Medici family circle and court in and against both historical writings and contemporary discourses including literary and cultural theory psychoanalysis feminism and gender studies and critical theories of race and disability Re membering Masculinity generates new ideas about both male and female portraiture in early modern Florence raises even more questions about the experiences and representations of widowhood and mourning and re configures our understanding of masculinity from the early modern male body to Renaissance Man to postmodern manhood

The Routledge History Handbook of Gender and the Urban Experience Deborah Simonton, 2017-02-03 Challenging current perspectives of urbanisation The Routledge History Handbook of Gender and the Urban Experience explores how our towns and cities have shaped and been shaped by cultural spatial and gendered influences This volume

discusses gender in an urban context in European North American and colonial towns from the fourteenth to the twentieth century casting new light on the development of medieval and modern settlements across the globe Organised into six thematic parts covering economy space civic identity material culture emotions and the colonial world this book comprises 36 chapters by key scholars in the field It covers a wide range of topics from women and citizenship in medieval York to gender and tradition in nineteenth and twentieth century South African cities reframing our understanding of the role of gender in constructing the spaces and places that form our urban environment Interdisciplinary and transnational in scope this volume analyses the individual dynamics of each case study while also examining the complex relationships and exchanges between urban cultures It is a valuable resource for all researchers and students interested in gender urban history and their intersection and interaction throughout the past five centuries Juan de Torquemada Thomas M. Izbicki, Jorge Ledo, 2023-05-30 This is the first English translation of one of the most important treatises written during the late Middle Ages in defense of converts from Judaism favoring religious tolerance in the face of religious and racially motivated prejudice and violence The book also includes a fresh Latin edition drawing on all known manuscripts The text was written in response to the actions of the Old Christians of Toledo against the New Christians also called conversos in 1449 A letter of Pope Nicholas V favouring the converts is included Footprints of the Dance: An Early Seventeenth-Century Dance Master's Notebook Jennifer Nevile, 2018-07-23 Footprints of the Dance An Early Seventeenth Century Dance Master's Notebook by Jennifer Nevile provides new fascinating and detailed information on the life of an early seventeenth century dance master in Brussels The dance master's handwritten notebook contains unique material a canon of dance figures and instructions for an exhibition with a pike as well as signatures and general descriptions of his students ballet plots and music associated with dancing Reproduced for the first time are facsimile images of all the dance related material with transcriptions and translations of the ballet plots and instructions for the pike exhibition The dance master is revealed as an active choreographer and performer with strong ties to the French court musical establishment and interested in fireworks and alchemy King's Sister - Queen of Dissent: Marguerite of Navarre (1492-1549) and her Evangelical Network (set 2 volumes) Jonathan Reid, 2009-06-24 This study reconstructs for the first time Marguerite of Navarre's leadership of a broad circle of nobles prelates humanist authors and commoners who sought to advance the reform of the French church along evangelical Protestant lines Hitherto misunderstood in scholarship they are revealed to have pursued despite persecution a consistent reform program from the Meaux experiment to the end of Francis I's reign through a variety of means fostering local church reform publishing a large corpus of religious literature high profile public preaching and attempting to shape the direction of royal policy Their distinctive doctrines relations with major reformers including their erstwhile colleague Calvin involvement in major Reformation events and the impact of their unsuccessful attempt are all explored

Reclaiming Rome Carol M. Richardson, 2009 The fifteenth century was a critical juncture for the College of Cardinals

They were accused of prolonging the exile in Avignon and causing the schism At the councils at the beginning of the period their very existence was questioned They rebuilt their relationship with the popes by playing a fundamental part in reclaiming Rome when the papacy returned to its city in 1420 Because their careers were usually much longer than that of an individual pope the cardinals combined to form a much more effective force for restoring Rome In this book shifting focus from the popes to the cardinals sheds new light on a relatively unknown period for Renaissance art history and the history of Rome Dr Carol M Richardson has been awarded the Philip Leverhulme Prize 2008 in the field of History of Arts

Unmaking Waste Sarah Newman, 2023-05-26 In Unmaking Waste Sarah Newman asks what happens when there are disagreements about what constitutes waste and what one should do with it both at singular moments in time for example when ideas about waste collide in emerging colonial contexts and across time such as between those who left things behind in the past and the archaeologists who recover them Newman examines ancient Mesoamerican understandings of waste Euro American perceptions of waste in New Spain and early modern European ideals of civility and Christian understandings of good and bad expressed metaphorically through cleanliness and filth These differing perceptions Newman argues demands that we rethink centuries of assumptions imposed on other places times and peoples so long as waste remains a category misunderstood to be common sensical and stable archaeological methods will prove unequal to their task Newman instead proposes anamorphic archaeology an approach that emphasizes the possibility that archaeological objects have multiple physical and conceptual lives

Politics and Justice in Late Medieval Bologna Sarah Rubin Blanshei, 2010 Utilizing a uniquely rich collection of trial records and council meeting minutes from late medieval Bologna this book offers the first study of summary justice and oligarchy in an Italian commune demonstrating how new legal institutions arose in response to the increasingly exclusionary policies of the popolo government

Restraining Rage William V. Harris, 2009-07 The angry emotions and the problems they presented were an ancient Greek preoccupation from Homer to late antiquity From the first lines of the Iliad to the church fathers of the fourth century A D the control or elimination of rage was an obsessive concern From the Greek world it passed to the Romans Drawing on a wide range of ancient texts and on recent work in anthropology and psychology Restraining Rage explains the rise and persistence of this concern W V Harris shows that the discourse of anger control was of crucial importance in several different spheres in politics both republican and monarchical in the family and in the slave economy He suggests that it played a special role in maintaining male domination over women He explores the working out of these themes in Attic tragedy in the great Greek historians in Aristotle and the Hellenistic philosophers and in many other kinds of texts From the time of Plato onward educated Greeks developed a strong conscious interest in their own psychic health Emotional control was part of this Harris offers a new theory to explain this interest and a history of the anger therapy that derived from it He ends by suggesting some contemporary lessons that can be drawn from the Greek and Roman experience

Sodomy in Reformation Germany and Switzerland, 1400-1600 Helmut Puff, 2003-06 During the late Middle Ages a considerable number of men in Germany and Switzerland were executed for committing sodomy Even in the seventeenth century simply speaking of the act was cause for censorship Here in the first history of sodomy in these countries Helmut Puff argues that accusations of sodomy during this era were actually crucial to the success of the Protestant Reformation Drawing on both literary and historical evidence Puff shows that speakers of German associated sodomy with Italy and increasingly Catholicism As the Reformation gained momentum the formerly unspeakable crime of sodomy gained a voice as Martin Luther and others deployed accusations of sodomy to discredit the upper ranks of the Church and to create a sense of community among Protestant believers During the sixteenth century reactions against this defamatory rhetoric and fear that mere mention of sodomy would incite sinful acts combined to repress even court cases of sodomy Written with precision and meticulously researched this revealing study will interest historians of gender sexuality and religion as well as scholars of medieval and early modern history and culture Medieval Fabrications E.

Burns,2016-04-30 The varied cultural functions of dress textiles and clothwork are used in this collection of essays to examine long standing assumptions about the Middle Ages At one end of the spectrum questions of dress call up feminist theoretical investigations into the body and subjectivity while broadening those inquiries to include theories of masculinity and queer identity as well At the other extreme the production and distribution of textiles carries us into the domain of economic history and the study of material commodities trade and cultural patterns of exchange within western Europe and between east and west Contributors to this volume represent a broad array of disciplines currently involved in rethinking medieval culture in terms of the material world Heresy in the Middle Ages Andrea Janelle Dickens,2024 Medieval Christianity evolved economic intellectual and theological structures to consolidate authority and test orthodoxy This book investigates the relationships between the medieval church and the growing number of heretical groups highlighting where they were motivated by overlapping concerns such as a zeal to live the apostolic life The Secret of Secrets Steven J.

Williams,2003 A compelling study of a best seller from the Middle Ages The Problem with Multiculturalism John M.

Headley,2017-09-08 The horrors of the past century have done little to advance appreciation for the virtues of Western civilization Criticism of the West has mounted and the West itself has lost sight of its uniqueness Westerners tend to endow other societies with liberal philosophy and practices While politically profitable this fails to educate these societies about their own civilizations contributions to the idea of a common humanity human rights and the legitimacy of dissent and diversity John M Headley argues for the West s uniqueness and universality while critiquing multiculturalism s failure to recognize these special characteristics He looks to civilization rather than to the nation state as the source of the West s achievements arguing that its uniqueness was evident from its beginnings Headley also seeks to advance the ever contentious discussion about secularization He sees secularization as a neutralizing force regarding the religions of other civilizations allowing them to accept Western influence which thus becomes universal To understand secularization and how it operates from a naturalistic perspective one must see civilization itself as a defining element in world affairs
