The Oxford Handbook of Shakespeare and Early Modern Authorship, 2025-09-09. The Oxford Handbook of Shakespeare and Early Modern Authorship draws together leading and emerging scholars of Shakespeare and early modern literature to consider anew how authorship worked in the time in which Shakespeare wrote and to interrogate the construction of the Shakespeare as author figure. Composed of four main sections, it offers fresh analysis of the literary and cultural influences and forces that formed authors in the period, the mechanics of early modern authorship, the mediation of Shakespeare and others' works in performance, manuscript and print, and the critical and popular reimagining across times of Shakespeare as an author figure. Diving into modern debates about early modern authorship, authority and identity politics, contributors supply rich new accounts of the wider scene of professional authorship in early modern England, of how Shakespeare's writings contributed to it and of what made him distinctive within it. Looking beyond Shakespeare, the Handbook seeks to provide a vital testing ground for new research into early modern literature and culture more broadly.

Black Lives Under Nazism Sarah Phillips Casteel, 2024-02-06. In a little known chapter of World War II, Black people living in Nazi Germany and occupied Europe were subjected to ostracization, forced sterilization and incarceration in internment and concentration camps. In the absence of public commemoration, African diaspora writers and artists have preserved the stories of these forgotten victims of the Third Reich. Their works illuminate the relationship between creative expression and wartime survival and the role of art in the formation of collective memory. This groundbreaking book explores a range of largely overlooked literary and artistic works that challenge the invisibility of Black wartime history. Emphasizing Black agency, Sarah Phillips Casteel examines both testimonial art by victims of the Nazi regime and creative works that imaginatively reconstruct the wartime period. Among these are the internment art of Caribbean painter Josef Nassy, the survivor memoir of Black German journalist Hans J. Massaquoi, the jazz fiction of African American novelist John A. Williams and Black Canadian novelist Esi Edugyan and the photomontages of Scottish Ghanaian visual artist Maud Sulter. Bridging Black and Jewish studies, this book identifies the significance of African diaspora experiences and artistic expression for Holocaust history memory and representation
