The Renewable Virgin Barbara Paul, 1990 Wild Flower, 1924 The American Police Novel Leroy Lad Panek, 2015-09-17 The American police novel emerged soon after World War II and by the end of the century it was one of the most important forms of American crime fiction The vogue for either Holmesian genius or the plucky amateur detective dominated mystery fiction until mid century the police hero offered a way to make the traditional mystery story contemporary The police novel reflects sociology and history and addresses issues tied to the police force such as corruption management and brutality Since the police novel reflects current events the changing natures of crime court procedures and legislation have an impact on its plots and messages An examination of the police novel covers both the evolution of a genre of fiction and American culture in general This work traces the emergence of the police officer as hero and the police novel as a significant popular genre from the cameo appearances of police in detective novels of the 1930s and 1940s through the serial killer and forensic novels of the 1990s It follows the ways in which professional writers and police officers turned writers view the police individually and collectively The work chronicles the ways in which changes in the law and society have affected the actions of the police and shows how the protagonists of police novels have changed in gender race nationality sexual orientation and age over the years The major writers examined begin with Julian Hawthorne in the nineteenth century and include such writers as S S van Dine Ellery Queen Erle Stanley Gardner Ed McBain Chester Himes MacKinley Kantor Hillary Waugh Dorothy Uhnak Joseph Wambaugh Bob Leuci W E B Griffin and Carol O Connor      Meeting Movies Norman Norwood Holland, 2006 Casablanca for example provides millions with a sense of satisfaction Why How did this movie about World War II satisfy an adolescent boy afraid of not being a man but too young to be in the military How did such an outrageously sentimental film enable Holland and many others to deal with the scary state of the world in 1942 and indeed ever since Meeting Movies poses such questions again and again As a professor of literature and film Holland feels compelled to interpret Yet beneath and beyond his intellectualizing a variety of half conscious personal considerations and recurring themes color his feelings and hence his interpretations And this he claims is true for all of us Jacket      Marine Plastics: Innovative Solutions to Tackling Waste Siv Marina Flø Grimstad, Lisbeth Mølgaard Ottosen, Neil A.
