Repeating The Words Of The Buddha:

Repeating the Words of the Buddha Tulku Urgyen Rinpoche, 2006 Tulku Urgyen Rinpoche spent many years in retreat assimilating the teachings within his experience. He spoke with humor and true understanding expressing plainly and simply what he himself had undergone. Consequently his teachings are uniquely accessible with a powerfully beneficial impact on those who hear or read his words. This book a selection of his oral and written teachings spells out the essential points of spiritual practice and leads readers along the same path they would follow in the presence of a master. Through direct pithy instructions students are encouraged to question the master repeatedly while at the same time processing their own experiences. Representing the heart of Rinpoche's teachings Repeating the Words of the Buddha shows that the enlightened essence is present within the mind of any sentient being and that it can be recognized by all who seek it. Repeating the Words of the Buddha Rinpoche Urgyen (Tulku), 1992 The Epic of the Buddha Chittadhar Hridaya, 2019-05-21 A translation of the modern Nepalese classic Winner of the Toshihide Numata Book Award in Buddhism and the Khyentse Foundation Prize for Outstanding Translation. This award winning book contains the English translation of Sugata Saurabha. The Sweet Fragrance of the Buddha an epic poem on the life and teachings of the Buddha. Chittadhar H. Daya a master poet from Nepal wrote this tour de force while imprisoned for subversion in the 1940s and smuggled it out over time on scraps of paper. His consummate skill and poetic artistry are evident throughout as he tells the Buddha's story in dramatic terms drawing on images from the natural world to heighten the description of emotionally charged events. It is peopled with very human characters who experience a wide range of emotions from erotic love to anger jealousy heroism compassion and goodwill. By showing how the central events of the Buddha's life are experienced by Siddhartha as well as by his family members and various disciples the poem communicates a fuller sense of the humanity of everyone involved and the depth and power of the Buddha's loving kindness. For this new edition of the English translation the translators improved the beauty and flow of most every line. The translation is also supplemented with a series of short essays by Todd Lewis one of the translators that articulates how H. Daya incorporated his own Newar cultural traditions in order to connect his readership with the immediacy and relevancy of the Buddha's life and at the same time express his views on political issues ethical principles literary life gender discrimination economic policy and social reform.
