Report On The State Of The European Union 2003-2004:

Report on the State of the European Union E. Laurent, Jacques Le Cacheux, David Jasper, 2014-12-19 This volume is the fourth instalment of the Report on the state of the European Union series It shows that if the EU does not want to be ruled by crisis any longer it must invest in sustainability political economic social and environmental Europe must turn this elusive and ever threatening crisis into a chosen and meaningful transition Agriculture and Eu Enlargement: Seventeenth Report of 2003-2004 Report, Together with Formal Minutes, Oral a Written Evidence Jack Michael, 2004 Agriculture plays a larger role in the economies of the new Member states of the EU than it does in EU 15 There have thus been fears of the market being flooded by cheap agricultural exports and controversy about the extension of CAP payments This report therefore looks at the impact of enlargement on agriculture both in the new Member states and in the UK It concludes that structural fragmentation and the lack of capital investment mean that the new Member states are not in a position to undermine EU agricultural markets However there are concerns about the quality of inspection and food quality For the UK the Committee think that enlargement is more of a challenge than a threat especially if the government does more to help promote UK food exports and investments

The Global Competitiveness Report 2003-2004 World Economic Forum, 2004 The Global Competitiveness Report 2003-2004 is the 24th of the World Economic Forum's annual rankings of the world's leading economies Written in a non technical language and style this report aims to appeal to a broad audience consisting of policy makers business leaders and academics

The Rise and Fall of the EU's Constitutional Treaty Finn Laursen, 2008-07-31 This book analyses the EU's Constitutional Treaty which emerged in draft form from the European Convention in the summer of 2003 and which was finalised by an Intergovernmental Conference IGC in June 2004 It describes the main novelties of the treaty and looks at policies of important actors Member States and Community actors the Commission and European Parliament and the roles played by the Convention and the Italian and Irish Presidencies during the process of deliberation and negotiation that produced the treaty It further studies the failure of ratification in France and the Netherlands and the implications for the process of European integration of this failure It finally touches on the question whether a constitutional equilibrium has been reached Since the new Lisbon Treaty negotiated in 2007 contains much of what was in the Constitutional Treaty the analyses of the book remain pertinent for this latest EU treaty

Parliament. House of Commons. Environment, Food and Rural Affairs Committee, 2004 It is estimated that worldwide about 700 large commercial vessels have to be scrapped each year as they reach the end of their working life Much of the material they are made from can be recycled but many ships also contain hazardous materials such as asbestos PCBs and waste oils which need to be disposed of safely The Committee's report considers how defunct ships are dismantled and why most are currently dismantled in developing countries mostly in Asia health and safety protection for workers and environmental protection standards the international regulatory framework including legislation such as the Basel Convention and EC regulations IMO guidelines and enforcement problems the principles of responsible ship recycling the Government's approach to ship recycling and a UK ship recycling industry Findings include that the Government has an important role to play in ensuring this issue receives sufficient international priority particularly during the UK's forthcoming EU Presidency and chairmanship of the G8 as well at home in helping persuade UK based shipowners to arrange for their vessels to be disposed of responsibly As a first step it should ensure that all naval and other publicly owned vessels are dismantled to the highest health safety and environmental standards

Industrial Relations in the EU, Japan and USA, 2003-2004 Mark Carley, 2005 In an era of deepening globalisation similarities abound between the world's largest economies There also remain however marked differences which separate the three major economic blocs of the European Union Japan and the United States not least in industrial relations In particular the European social model ensures ongoing distinctive characteristics for the European Union in the areas of collective bargaining trade unions employer organisations and labour legislation Since 2000 the Foundation has conducted a study comparing aspects of industrial relations in these three economic blocs on an annual basis The results have enabled us to chart the similarities and trends in this area across the EU Japan and the US But it also provides a clear picture of the differences in both basic structures and developments in these three distinct economies While providing a comprehensive insight into the industrial relations situation the project also allows for a degree of benchmarking of the EU against its major trading competitors The report will provide a useful contribution to understanding European industrial relations in an international context

The Georgian Regime Crisis of 2003-2004 Rebecca S Katz, 2006-04-03 The Republic of Georgia remains characterized by an unstable socio political economy and by gross levels of economic inequality corruption ineffective policing a weak judiciary and a limited free and independent press Currently sixty five percent of the population continue to live under the poverty level thus facilitating participation in crime and corruption to survive economically Following initial independence from the Soviet Union separatist and nationalistic movements resulting in the secession of several regions and the creation of hundreds of thousands of internally displaced Georgians Georgia's post soviet history included violent political purges including inter political party violence bomb attacks and murders Official corruption remains problematic and includes individuals at all levels of government This exploratory narrative analysis of media coverage of crime corruption and politics in post Soviet Georgia illuminates the early development of a free press while reflecting Georgian attitudes about politics and corruption The analysis includes preelection newspaper coverage of the November 2003 parliamentary poll beginning in late August 2003 the Rose Revolution in November 2003 resulting in the resignation of President Eduard Shevardnadze and the socio economic and socio political events preceding and following the election of new President Mikhail Saakashvili from January 2004 through the end of March 2004
