Dialectic and Narrative Thomas R. Flynn, Dalia Judovitz, National Endowment for the Humanities Professor of French Dalia Judovitz, 1993-01-01 Dialectic and narrative reflect the respective inclinations of philosophy and literature as disciplines that fix one another in a Sartrean gaze admixing envy with suspicion Ever since Plato and Aristotle distinguished scientific knowledge episteme from opinion doxa and valued demonstration through formal final causes over emplotment mythos the palm has been awarded to dialectic as the proper instrument of rational discourse the arbiter of coherence consistency and ultimately of truth The matter becomes more complicated when we recognize the various uses of the term dialectic in the tradition some of which complement and even overlap the narrative domain By confronting these concepts with one another either de facto or ex professo the following essays not only raise anew the ancient questions of the identities of philosophy and literature but do so in the context of recent postmodern challenges to their relative autonomy Digest of the Decisions of the Courts of Last Resort of the Several States from 1887 to [1911]: Evidence to Municipal bonds Edmund Samson Green, 1904 Representation and Misrepresentation in Later Stuart Britain Mark Knights, 2005 Each side and those ostensibly of no side discerned a culture of passion slander libel lies hypocrisy dissimulation conspiracy private languages and fictions Truth appeared an ambiguous political matter Yet the reaction to partisanship was also creative for it helped to construct an ideal form of political discourse This was one based on reason rather than passion on moderation rather than partisan zeal on critical reading rather than credulity and an increasing realization that these virtues arose from infrequent rather than frequent elections Finding synergies between social political religious scientific literary cultural and intellectual history Representation and Misrepresentation in Later Stuart Britain reinvigorates the debate about the emergence of the public sphere in the later Stuart period Continual Permutations of Action Anselm L. Strauss, 2017-09-08 Richard Bernstein expressed the view that pragmatism was ahead of its time the same has been true of symbolic interactionism These two closely related perspectives one philosophical and the other sociological place human action at the center of their explanatory schemes It has not mattered what aspect of social or psychological behavior was under scrutiny Whether selves minds or emotions or institutions social structures or social change all have been conceptualized as forms of human activity This view is the simple genius of these perspectives Anselm Strauss always took ideas pertaining to action and process seriously Here he makes explicit the theory of action that implicitly guided his research for roughly forty years It is understood that Strauss accepts the proposition that acting or even better interacting causes social structure He lays the basis for this idea in the nineteen assumptions he articulates early in the book assumptions that elaborate and make clearer Herbert Blumer's famous premises of symbolic interactionism The task Strauss put before himself is how to keep the complexity of human group life in front of the researcher theorist and simultaneously articulate an analytical scheme that clarifies and reveals that complexity With these two imperfectly related issues before him Strauss outlines an analytical scheme of society in action It is a scheme that rests not on logical necessity but on research and observation and the concepts he uses are proposed because they do a certain amount of analytical work One would be well advised to take Continual Permutations of Action very seriously      A Treatise on the Law of Vendor and Purchaser of Real Estate and Chattels Real Thomas Cyprian Williams,1906      Philosophy of Biology ,2007-02-05 Philosophy of Biology is a rapidly expanding field It is concerned with explanatory concepts in evolution genetics and ecology This collection of 25 essays by leading researchers provides an overview of the state of the field These essays are wholly new none of them could have been written even ten years ago They demonstrate how philosophical analysis has been able to contribute to sometimes contested areas of scientific theory making Written by internationally acknowledged leaders in the field Entries make original contributions as well as summarizing state of the art discoveries in the field Easy to read and understand      Judicial and Statutory Definitions of Words and Phrases ,1914      American Business Law Abraham B. Baumgarten, Chantal Gagnon, 2016-08-17 This anthology of papers written by Christina Schffner brings together a selection of articles on the theme of translation and politics Written from the perspective of translation studies and critical discourse analysis it provides an overview of the textual and ideological factors that determine processes of translation within the arena of international politics The selected articles afford a fascinating insight into the dynamics of intercultural exchange against the backdrop of European politics from the fall of the Berlin Wall to debates on EU enlargement By taking a context sensitive approach to linguistic description this book will be of interest to scholars in various adjacent fields of research such as applied linguistics intercultural communication studies media studies political science and the sociology of globalisation as well as to relevant higher education programmes around the world The discipline of translation studies has made its mark by conceptualising translation as a form of cross cultural communication that transcends asymmetrical relations of power foregrounding issues such as colonial domination cultural hegemony and ideology To date however there has been no compelling evidence of the linguistic implications of transnational political communication and little research has been done to help us to understand how political discourse at the international level presupposes translation Featuring a wealth of examples from political text and talk each article here links contextual features to the linguistic choices of political actors By moving beyond national and cultural boundaries these analyses help the reader to get to grips with the discursive implications of power politics and to open up a new debate for a novel area of studies that might be termed cross cultural political discourse analysis     The Foundations of Legal Liability: Common-law actions Thomas Atkins Street, 1906

Court of Appeal (3rd Appellate District). Records and Briefs* California (State)., Exiting a Racist Worldview (Revised): A Journey Through Foucault, Said, Marx to Liberation, The Revolution that Failed Daurius Figueira, 2023-12-01 This text was originally published in 2004 as a provisional road map gesturing to a plan of action for liberation at the level of the idea vitally compulsory to dismantle the hegemony of the white world order of power in the 21st century Since 2004 deconstruction of the oeuvre of Frantz Fanon Michel Foucault Derek Walcott the discourse of massa of African enslavement in the Caribbean and the Thought of Xi Jinping for the New Era have been published which has changed the nature of the road map today versus that of 2004 An extensive revision of the text of 2004 was now necessary which focuses on the the nature of hallucinatory whiteness that afflicts non white peoples under the hegemony of massa white world order of power thereby rendering them incapable of liberating themselves at the level of the idea The need now was to uncover hallucinatory whiteness as it constitutes human action and how the nature of this action is the product of hallucinatory whiteness hence it reinforces white hegemony over the non white person at the level of the idea To this end a deconstruction of the writings of Toussaint L Overture of the Haitian Revolution George Jackson of the African Revolution of Amerikkka and skin bleaching in the Caribbean in the 21st century are presented as case studies illustrating potently the debilitating power hallucinatory whiteness wields over the mind of non white persons who insist they are champions of liberation which drives the resilience of massa hegemony over non white peoples of the world
