Representing Bisexualities Donald E. Hall, Maria Pramaggiore, 1996-07 Is bisexuality coming out in America Bisexual characters are surfacing on popular television shows and in film Newsweek proclaims that a new sexual identity is emerging But amidst this burgeoning acknowledgment of bisexuality is there an understanding of what it means to be bisexual in a monosexual culture RePresenting Bisexualities seeks to answer these questions integrating a recognition of bisexual desire with new theories of gender and sexuality Despite the breakthroughs in gender studies and queer studies of recent years bisexuality has remained largely unexamined Problematic sexual images are usually attributed either to homosexual or heterosexual desire while bisexual readings remain unexplored The essays found in RePresenting Bisexualities discuss fluid sexualities through a variety of readings from the fence covering texts from Emily Dickinson to Nine Inch Nails Each author contributes to the collection a unique view of sexual fluidity and transgressive desire Taken together these essays provide the most comprehensive bisexual theory reader to date

Bisbey, 2022-01-01 Between Camp and Cursi examines the role of humor in portrayals of homosexuality in contemporary Mexican literature Brandon P Bisbey argues that humor based on camp and cursiler a a form of bad taste that expresses a sense of social marginalization is used to represent key social conflicts and contradictions of modernity in Mexico Combining perspectives from queer theory humor theory and Latin American cultural studies Bisbey looks at a corpus of canonical and lesser known texts that treat a range of topics relevant to contemporary discussions of gender sexuality race and human rights in Mexico including sex work transvestitism bisexuality same sex marriage racism classism and homophobic and transphobic violence Emphasizing the subversive possibilities of the comic Between Camp and Cursi considers how this body of twentieth and twenty first century literature has challenged heteronormativity in Mexico and wrestled more broadly with both the colonial underpinnings of modernity and hegemonic Western gender norms

Bisexuality and Queer Theory Jonathan Alexander, Serena Anderlini-D'Onofrio, 2014-04-10 According to David Halperin sexuality in our time is typified by a crisis in contemporary sexual definition What is sexuality What does it mean to have a sexual identity or orientation What is the relationship between sexuality as a knowledge construct on one hand and the often messy flows of desire and practices of love on the other How and why are some sexual erotic and intimate practices normalized and others marginalized Queer Theory has emerged in the West as one of the most provocative analytical tools in the humanities and social sciences It scrutinizes identity and social structures that take heteronormativity for granted that do not question the social construction of heterosexuality as normative in relation to its oppositional binary homosexuality At the same time bisexuality is a practice identity and orientation that challenges the binary logic around which cultural notions of sexuality are organized It is a portal to the imagination of a world of amorous expression beyond that divide This provocative collection presents bisexuality and queer theory as two parallel thought collectives that have made significant contributions to cultural discourses about sexual and amorous practices since the onset of the AIDS era and explores the ideas that circulate in these thought collectives today We learn much about the construction and experience of sexuality and the power it still holds throughout the contemporary Western world to shape identities and practices This volume challenges our understanding of what it means to be sexual to have a sexual identity and to practise the arts of loving This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Bisexuality Postcolonialism Michael Chapman, 2009-03-26 This collection poses two overarching questions Is there a role for the literary imagination in postcolonial studies And where might one locate South Africa or more generally South African perspectives in a field delineated primarily by northern institutional purposes and practices While engaging with contemporary debates the essays seek to turn current postcolonial emphases on theoretical formulations and issue driven interpretation towards the subjective experience of literary texts in specific contexts The Introduction Postcolonialism A Literary Turn suggests a template of late postcolonialism beyond empires writing back to the centre Instead ongoing challenges include settler identity past and present independent or compromised African diasporic voices the character of the postcolony in which the pre modern modern and postmodern contest a single though heterogeneous place or space and the voicing of the silent subaltern alongside the postcolonialising of Nobel laureates Nadine Gordimer and J M Coetzee Despite the utopian political pronouncements of many postcolonial projects the West s own undoing this collection wishes to stimulate us students academics to see afresh and comparatively across worlds In this a literary turn may achieve an ethical dimension Straight Writ Queer Richard Fantina,2006-09-27

The advent of gay and lesbian studies as an academic field opened the door for a new exploration of sexuality in literature Here works generally considered heterosexual are re examined in the light of queer theory The notion of homosexuality is viewed as a social construction that emerged during the 19th century with a definitive difference between biological sex and gendered behavior Heterosexuality is determined by whether sexual performance conforms to society designated gender roles From this wider perspective this book examines literature previously viewed as straight in a search for alternative manifestations of desire and performance relationships that contain an apparent disconnect between gender and desire With broad coverage of many periods authors and genres the 17 essays identify inherently queer heterosexual practices and critique the idea of heteronormativity blurring the line between homo and heterosexuality Topics discussed include sodomy and chastity Victorian literature the relationship between sex gender and desire and the instability in literary portrayals of gender and sexuality George Eliot George Meredith Ernest Hemingway and Rider Haggard are among the many authors discussed A Companion to Ingmar Bergman Daniel Humphrey,Hamish Ford,2025-02-25

Bisexual Spaces Clare Hemmings, 2013-11-12 A largely unexplored area this is an innovative and original examination of bisexual spaces as places that are defined by both geographical boundaries and cultural significance Hemmings applies the ideas of queer theory as well as social and cultural geography in her fascinating investigation into the spaces and places of bisexual life Specifically focusing on Northampton MA and San Francisco she draws on interviews with community members and the town histories showing how and why they have developed into safe places for the gay lesbian and bisexual communities By mapping out a space of bisexuality Bisexual Spaces provides a new and provocative understanding of the concept

Bisexuality in the Lives of Men Erich W Steinman, Brett Genny Beemyn, 2014-06-03 Explore the theoretical political psychological and cultural issues surrounding male bisexuality Bisexuality in the Lives of Men is the first anthology to focus on men who love both men and women The theoretical scientific and literary essays in this landmark volume dispel the fictions that bisexual men are greedy promiscuous confused deceptive unfaithful HIV positive the dominant images of bisexual men in our culture Whether portrayed as a coward who can't quite come out into full gayness or a smooth talking serial killer the bisexual man has been vilified in books and movies In scholarly studies they are often ignored or else lumped together with gay men It is now widely acknowledged that human sexuality is more complex and diverse than the narrow categories gay and straight But while the use of the term bisexual has become much more common in the last decade an understanding of bisexuality itself lags far behind A lack of research on how bisexuality is experienced interpreted and encoded in literature film and other aspects of popular culture means that stereotypes stigma and confusion are still prevalent Bisexuality in the Lives of Men is a multidisciplinary examination of this neglected topic bringing together expertise reflecting divergent approaches and fields to show the whole bisexual man Topics include a thoughtful review and analysis of the public health research on the role of bisexual men in HIV transmission a study of the marital consequences of a husband s bisexuality including couples who have stayed together an analysis of the heartfelt discussions taking place in an online bi male community an empirical study of the ways that bi negativity differs from homophobia an essay bringing together queer theory and social constructionist ideas to explain why bisexual men are much less visible than bisexual women The rigorously analytical yet accessible essays in this volume offer new information and perspectives about male bisexuality Bisexuality in the Lives of Men is an essential resource for anyone interested in the theoretical political and cultural issues of male bisexuality Indiscreet Fantasies Andrés Lema-Hincapié, Conxita Domènech, 2020-11-13 Indiscreet Fantasies Iberian Queer Cinema is a collection of fifteen essays each focusing on a queer film by a prominent Iberian filmmaker The films studied here span nearly five decades beginning with Narciso Ib ez Serrador s La residencia The House That Screamed 1970 and ending with Jo o Pedro Rodrigues Ornit logo The Ornithologist 2016 The first of its kind for English speaking readers this book examines the work of filmmakers Ventura Pons Cesc Gay Marta Balleb Coll Paulo Rocha Roberto Cast n Ignacio Vilar and Pedro Almod var among others from various Iberian cultural and linguistic cultures including that of Portugal Catalonia Galicia and the Basque Country Rather than presenting a historical survey of Iberian queer films Indiscreet Fantasies encourages a deep reading of each film sends readers to other related films writings and fosters meditation on the ways these films cast light on particular moments and aspects of contemporary Iberian queer issues in history and society The Masks of Mary Renault Caroline Zilboorg, 2013-10-10 Born Eileen Mary Challans in London in 1905 Mary Renault wrote six successful contemporary novels before turning to the historical fiction about ancient Greece for which she is best known While Renault s novels are still highly regarded her life and work have never been completely examined Caroline Zilboorg seeks to remedy this in The Masks of Mary Renault by exploring Renault s identity as a gifted writer and a sexual woman in a society in which neither of these identities was clear or easy Although Renault s life was anything but ordinary this fact has often been obscured by her writing The daughter of a doctor she grew up comfortably and attended a boarding school in Bristol She received a degree in English from St Hugh s College in Oxford in 1928 but she chose not to pursue an academic career Instead she decided to attend the Radcliffe Infirmary in Oxford where she trained to be a nurse With the outbreak of the Second World War she was assigned to the Winford Emergency Hospital in Bristol and briefly worked with Dunkirk evacuees She went on to work in the Radcliffe Infirmary s brain surgery ward and was there until 1945 It was during her nurse s training that Renault met Julie Mullard who became her lifelong companion This important lesbian relationship both resolved and posed many problems for Renault not the least of which was how she was to write about issues at once intensely personal and socially challenging In 1939 Renault published her first novel under a pseudonym in order to mask her identity It was a time when she was struggling not only with her vocation nursing and writing but also with her sexual identity in the social and moral context of English life during the war In 1948 Renault left England with Mullard for South Africa and never returned It was in South Africa that she made the shift from her early contemporary novels of manners to the mature historical novels of Hellenic life The classical settings allowed Renault to mask material too explosive to deal with directly while simultaneously giving her an academic freedom to write about subjects vital to her among them war peace career women s roles female and male homosexuality and bisexuality Renault s reception complicates an understanding of her achievement for she has a special status within the academic community where she is both widely read and little written about Her interest in sexuality and specifically in homosexuality and bisexuality in fluid gender roles and identities warrants a rereading and reevaluation of her work Eloquently written and extensively researched The Masks of Mary Renault will be of special value to anyone interested in women s studies or English literature

The Contemporary Femme Fatale Katherine Farrimond, 2017-07-06 The femme fatale occupies a precarious yet highly visible space in contemporary cinema From sci fi alien women to teenage bad girls filmmakers continue to draw on the notion of the sexy deadly woman in ways which traverse boundaries of genre and narrative This book charts the articulations of the femme fatale in American cinema of the past twenty years and contends that despite her problematic relationship with feminism she offers a vital means for reading the connections between mainstream cinema and representations of female agency The films discussed raise questions about the limits and potential of positioning women who meet highly normative standards of beauty as powerful icons of female agency They point towards the constant shifting between patriarchal appropriation and feminist recuperation that inevitably accompanies such representations within mainstream media contexts
