Representing Women Law Literature And Feminism Post Contemporary Interventions:

Representing Women Susan Sage Heinzelman, 1994 This anthology explores the provocative intersection between feminist literary and legal theories Written by feminist thinkers from law and literature discourses that each produce culturally powerful representations of women these essays contest the boundaries that usually separate these disciplines and thereby alter the possibilities of those representations that have traditionally disempowered women Beginning with an exploration of the ways in which women are represented how they either tell or have their stories told in literature in the law in a courtroom this collection demonstrates the interrelatedness of the legal and the literary Whether considering the status of medieval women readers or assessing the effectiveness and extent of contemporary rape law reform the essays show that power first comes with telling one's own story and that the degree and effect of that power are determined by the cultural significance of the forum in which the story is presented But telling the story is not enough One must also be aware of how the story is contained within traditional constructs or boundaries and is thus limited in its effects as Carol Sanger's essay on mothers and legal sexual identity makes clear One must also recognize how a story might perpetuate an ideological agenda that is not in the best interests of the storyteller as Elizabeth Butler Cullingford shows in her reading of Yeats's Leda and the Swan and one must know the historical context of a story and of its telling as Anne B Goldstein's essay on lesbian narratives discloses Breaking down the boundaries between law and literature this anthology makes evident the ways in which the effect of women's stories has been constrained and expands the range of possibilities for those who represent women tell women's stories or present women's issues Representing Women makes the retelling of old stories about women compelling and the telling of new ones both necessary and possible Contributors Kathryn Abrams Linda Brodkey Rita Copeland Elizabeth Butler Cullingford Margaret Anne Doody Susan B Estrich Michelle Fine Anne B Goldstein Angela P Harris Susan Sage Heinzelman Christine L Krueger Martha Minow Carol Sanger Judy Scales Trent Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print, 1995 Current Publications in Legal and Related Fields, 1994 Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 Recent Acquisitions Ohio State University. reference rather than the postcolonial ideology of empire contemporary African women writers demand fairness and equality By showing how this literature deploys imaginative shifts in perspective with women experiencing unfairness injustice or oppression because of their gender Chielozone Eze argues that by considering feminist empathy discussions open up about how this literature directly addresses the systems that put them in disadvantaged positions This book therefore engages a new ethical and human rights awareness in African literary and cultural discourses highlighting the openness to reality that is compatible with African multi ethnic multi racial and increasingly cosmopolitan communities Squee from the Margins Rukmini Pande, 2018-12-01 Rukmini Pande's examination of race in fan studies is sure to make an immediate contribution to the growing field Until now virtually no sustained examination of race and racism in transnational fan cultures has taken place a lack that is especially concerning given that current fan spaces have never been more vocal about debating issues of privilege and discrimination Pande's study challenges dominant ideas of who fans are and how these complex transnational and cultural spaces function expanding the scope of the field significantly Along with interviewing thirty nine fans from nine different countries about their fan practices she also positions media fandom as a postcolonial cyberspace enabling scholars to take a more inclusive view of fan identity With analysis that spans from historical to contemporary Pande builds a case for the ways in which non white fans have always been present in such spaces though consistently ignored The Canadian Encyclopedia James H. Marsh, 1999 This edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia is the largest most comprehensive book ever published in Canada for the general reader It is COMPLETE every aspect of Canada from its rock formations to its rock bands is represented here It is UNABRIDGED all of the information in the four red volumes of the famous 1988 edition is contained here in this single volume It has been EXPANDED since 1988 teams of researchers have been diligently fleshing out old entries and recording new ones as a result the text from 1988 has grown by 50% to over 4 000 000 words It has been UPDATED the researchers and contributors worked hard to make the information as current as possible Other words apply to this extraordinary work of scholarship AUTHORITATIVE RELIABLE and READABLE Every entry is compiled by an expert Equally important every entry is written for a Canadian reader from the Canadian point of view The finished work many years in the making and the equivalent of forty average sized books is an extraordinary storehouse of information about our country This book deserves pride of place on the bookshelf in every Canadian Home It is no accident that the cover of this book is based on the Canadian flag For the proud truth is that this volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities a variety of tables and photographs and finely detailed illustrations of our wildlife not to mention the colourful informative endpapers But above all the book is encyclopedic which the Canadian Oxford Dictionary describes as embracing all branches of learning This means that with rare exceptions there is satisfaction for the reader who seeks information on any Canadian subject From the first entry A mari usque ad mare from sea to sea which is Canada's motto and a good description of this volume's range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fascination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada's finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada

Being English Sayan Chattopadhyay, 2021-11-29 This book critically examines the cultural desire for anglicisation of the Indian middle class in the context of postcolonial India It looks at the history of anglicised self fashioning as one of the major responses of the Indian middle class to British colonialism The book explores the rich variety of nineteenth and twentieth century writings that document the attempts by the Indian middle class to innovatively interpret their personal histories their putative racial histories and the history of India to appropriate the English language and lay claim to an English identity It discusses this unique quest for Englishness by reading the works of authors like Michael Madhusudan Dutt Rabindranath Tagore Cornelia Sorabji Nirad C Chaudhuri Dom Moraes and Salman Rushdie An important intervention this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of postcolonial studies Indian English literature South Asian studies cultural studies and English literature in general Index to Theses with Abstracts Accepted for Higher Degrees by the Universities of Great Britain and Ireland and the Council for National Academic Awards, 2006

Sociological Abstracts, 2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Forced Migration in the Feminist Imagination Anna Ball, 2021-09-21 Forced Migration in the Feminist Imagination explores how feminist acts of imaginative expression community building scholarship and activism create new possibilities for women experiencing forced migration in the twenty first century Drawing on literature film and art from a range of transnational contexts including Europe the Middle East Central America Australia and the Caribbean this volume reveals the hitherto unrecognised networks of feminist alliance being formulated across borders while reflecting carefully on the complex politics of cross cultural feminist solidarity The book presents a variety of cultural case studies that each reveal a different context in which the transcultural feminist imagination can be seen to operate from the maternal feminism of literary journalism confronting the European refugee crisis to Iran s female film directors building creative collaborations with displaced Afghan women and from artists employing sonic creativities in order to listen to women in U K and Australian detention to LGBTQ poets and video artists articulating new forms of queer feminist community against the backdrop of the hostile environment This is an essential read for scholars in Women s and Gender Studies Feminist and Postcolonial Literary and Cultural Studies and Comparative Literary Studies as well as for those operating in the fields of Gender and Development Studies and Forced Migration Studies Culture and Development ,1998

Enjoying the Beat of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within Representing Women Law Literature And Feminism Post Contemporary Interventions

In a world consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous interaction, the melodic elegance and mental symphony developed by the published word usually disappear into the back ground, eclipsed by the relentless noise and interruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, located within the pages of Representing Women Law Literature And Feminism Post Contemporary Interventions a wonderful literary value overflowing with organic thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant composer of language, that charming masterpiece conducts viewers on a mental trip, well unraveling the concealed songs and profound impact resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of this touching review, we shall discover the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing type, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
