Reproductive Risks And Prenatal Diagnosis:

Reproductive Risks and Prenatal Diagnosis Mark I. Evans, 1992      Reproductive Genetics, Gender and the Body Elizabeth Ettorre, 2013-04-15 This book is all about reproductive genetics a sociological concept developed to define the use of DNA based technologies in the medical management and supervision of reproduction and pregnant women In a searching analysis Elizabeth Ettorre uncovers the hidden social processes involved in the development of these technologies Focussing on prenatal screening she explores how the key concepts of gender and the body are intertwined with the process of building genetic knowledge and some of the unintended consequences for women These include the injection of biology into social relationships and the development of a gendered discourse of shame and stigmatisation in which the perfect body becomes idealised and new conceptions of disability are shaped It becomes clear that the modernist tradition of scientific disinterestedness is being replaced by a new ethic the making of moral judgements by scientists Reproductive Genetics Gender and the Body draws on interviews with European medical legal and nursing professionals and raises important issues around the gendered female body the site of genetic capital It challenges professional and scholar alike to grapple with and think through their responsibilities in this complex field where the competing issues have yet to be resolved      Risk, Culture, and Health Inequality Barbara H. Harthorn, Laury Oaks, 2003-04-30 Examines the diverse uses and abuses of risk by social actors across a wide range of cultural ethnic and geographical locales The introductory chapter by the two co editors analyzes and contextualizes current scholarly debates on the social cultural and political construction of risk It is followed by an overview on the anthropology of harm reduction that outlines an innovative framework for culturally informed risk analysis The remaining nine chapters are organized into three sections The Cultivation of Fear Perceptions of Health Safety and Hazard Risk Makers and Risk Takers and Regulating Risk and the Public s Health The book aims to address a set of questions of theoretical and practical importance to anthropologists sociologists public health scholars and professionals and public policy advocates among others These questions include How do individuals conceptualize and respond to risk Can risk be a tool of empowerment for individuals and communities who define themselves as at risk How has risk figured recently in the production of health inequality Has the social contract to provide care in its broadest sense expanded or contracted around issues of risk Are risk and the imperative to adhere to risk warnings used by experts as a means of social control The volume s contributors medical anthropologists and sociologists provide rich grounded ethnographic case material on the processes at work in everyday social life around the globe as individuals and groups struggle to make saense of the health risks and inequities in their lives and communities Authors address an array of urgent health concerns ranging from food safety to environment new technologies to infectious disease in such contrasting locales as the US Europe South and Southeast Asia and North Africa and across diverse ethnicities and social classes      Reproductive Genetics Sean Kehoe, Lyn Chitty, Tessa Homfray, 2009-11 This book presents the findings of the RCOG Study Group findings on genetics
