A magisterial new novel from the Pulitzer Prize winning and New York Times best selling author of The Overstory and Bewilderment. Four lives are drawn together in a sweeping panoramic new novel from Richard Powers showcasing the Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Overstory at the height of his skills. Twelve year old Evie Beaulieu sinks to the bottom of a swimming pool in Montreal strapped to one of the world's first aqualungs. Ina Aroita grows up on naval bases across the Pacific with art as her only home. Two polar opposites at an elite Chicago high school bond over a three thousand year old board game. Rafi Young will get lost in literature while Todd Keane's work will lead to a startling AI breakthrough. They meet on the history scarred island of Makatea in French Polynesia whose deposits of phosphorus once helped to feed the world. Now the tiny atoll has been chosen for humanity's next adventure: a plan to send floating autonomous cities out onto the open sea. But first the island's residents must vote to greenlight the project or turn the seastealers away. Set in the world's largest ocean, this awe filled book explores that last wild place we have yet to colonize in a still unfolding oceanic game and interweaves beautiful writing, rich characterization, profound themes of technology and the environment, and a deep exploration of our shared humanity in a way only Richard Powers can.

100 Must-read Historical Novels Nick Rennison, 2009-09-21 This latest guide in the highly successful Must Read series depicts 100 of the finest historical fiction tales published with a further 500 recommendations The text covers a wide range of classic works and key authors Ping-Pong Diplomacy Nicholas Griffin, 2014-01-07 Examines how an aristocratic British spy circumvented more than 20 years of antagonistic foreign policy between China and the United States to further a fateful Communist agenda during the World Table Tennis Championships revealing how players were tortured and murdered throughout the Cultural Revolution A Requiem of Sharks Patrick Buchanan, 1973 The Book of Franza and Requiem for Fanny Goldmann Ingeborg Bachmann, 2010-08-31 These two fragments of novels Ingeborg Bachmann's only untranslated works of fiction were intended to follow the widely acclaimed Malina in a cycle to be entitled Todesarten or Ways of Dying Although Bachmann died before completing them The Book of Franza and Requiem for Fanny Goldmann stand on their own continuing Bachmann's tradition of using language to confront the disease plaguing human relationships Through the tales of two women in postwar Austria Bachmann explores the ways of dying inflicted upon the living from outside and from within through history politics religion family gender relations and the self Bachmann's allegiance to the twin muses of memory and history as well as her perception of fascism as not being limited to the context of the war but also existing within the intimate relations of everyday life between husbands and wives brothers and sisters psychiatrists and patients are supremely evident in The Book of Franza Here Bachmann follows a woman who escapes from a sanatorium and after years of silence sends her brother a cryptic telegram Rightly suspecting that she has fled her sadistic husband a renowned Austrian psychiatrist whose intimate relations have merged with his studies of concentration camps her brother finds her in their childhood home Together they travel to Egypt where Franza slowly begins to regain her bearings But Franza's desire to cleanse herself by journeying into the heart of the desert's void ends in tragedy as she becomes the victim of a horrible act of violence. Unlike Franza who attempts to flee her past but fails, the heroine of Requiem for Fanny Goldmann makes no attempt to escape her history. This novel tells of the demise of a Viennese actress who is manipulated by a younger ambitious playwright to advance his career. Deception follows; disloyalty, the final treachery comes when the playwright portrays her in a novel which secures his fame and in Fanny's eyes robs her of her future. Caught in a perpetual stasis, Fanny suffers in total obscurity as her present is stolen from her as well. Whether analyzing the place where the self begins and the power of history ends or the ways in which women are forced to be complicit in their mistreatment at the hands of men, Bachmann's critical approach to the human psyche is unparalleled. Mesmerizing and profound, The Book of Franza and Requiem for Fanny Goldmann constitute the final evidence that Ingeborg Bachmann is the most important female German language writer of the postwar period.

Sharks in the Arts, Vivienne Westbrook, Shaun Collin, Dean Crawford, Mark Nicholls, 2018-05-11. This book is the most thorough exploration to date of the many ways in which a wild creature has been absorbed, reimagined, and represented across the ages in all of the major art forms. The authors consider not only how the identity of sharks in the natural
