Research Across The Disciplines A Resource Guide:

Reference Guide to Writing Across the Curriculum Charles Bazerman, Joseph Little, 2005-07-04 This reference guide traces the writing across the curriculum movement from its origins in British secondary education through its flourishing in American higher education and extension to American primary and secondary education Resources in Education, 1999-04 Research and Writing Across the Disciplines Katherine H. Adams, Michael Keene, 2000 This pocket sized guide to the research process provides research specifics for eighty disciplines across the curriculum The Easy Access Handbook Michael L. Keene, Katherine H. Adams, 1996 The Bloomsbury Companion to Marx Andrew Pendakis, Imre Szeman, Jeff Diamanti, 2018-12-27 There are very few figures in history that have exerted as much and as varied an influence as Karl Marx His work represents an unrivalled intervention into fields as various as philosophy journalism economics history politics and cultural criticism His name is invoked across the political spectrum in connection to revolution and insurrection social justice and economic transformation The Bloomsbury Companion to Marx is the definitive reference guide to Marx s life and work Written by an international team of leading Marx scholars the book offers comprehensive coverage of Marx s life and contexts sources influences and encounters key writings major themes and topics and reception and influence The defining feature of this Companion is its attention to the new directions in Marxism that animate the theoretical scientific and political sides of Marx s thought Gender and the growing importance of Marxist feminism is treated as equally important to clarifying Marx today as traditional and diverse categories of critique such as class capital and mode of production Similarly this Companion showcases the methodological and political importance of Marxism to environmentalist politics Finally the volume examines in detail non European Marxisms demonstrating the centrality of Marxist thought to political movements both within and beyond the global north This book is the ideal research resource for anyone working on Marx and his ideas today and as an entry point if you are approaching Marx s thought for the first time Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Elizabeth Cleaver, Maxine Lintern, Mike McLinden, 2018-06-28 This book explores best practice approaches to undertaking enquiry into learning and teaching in higher education for staff from all academic disciplines A general introduction to the methods most commonly used in undertaking enquiry in the field of education is complemented by chapters exploring how research methods from a range of disciplinary areas can be adapted and used for educational enquiry New to this second edition Chapters on interdisciplinary educational enquiry in geography and using ethnographic methods for educational enquiry New case studies and suggested activities A reflective final chapter inviting readers and their institutions to develop and promote an organisational culture founded on critical enquiry This is essential reading for anyone undertaking HE qualifications in learning and teaching including PGCTLHE and PGCAP and for academics wishing to apply their skills of research and enquiry to their learning and teaching practice Guide to Reporting Verbs Grant Eckstein, Jacob D. Rawlins, Elizabeth Hanks, 2025-08-08 Guide to Reporting Verbs is an accessible guide to citing sources in academic writing across the disciplines The way writers introduce previous literature is essential to authorial voice Specifically the effective use of reporting verbs can highlight important details about the cited work while allowing writers to present themselves as experts in their field This reference guide lists the most common reporting verbs across various disciplines in the hard and soft sciences and provides important information about how they can be used in academic writing The book lists prevalent reporting verbs across six disciplines applied linguistics biology history philosophy political science and physics provides information on authorial voice for each reporting verb highlights effective use of each reporting verb through inclusion of a definition the lemma along with a few members of the word family stance act s common contextual environments example sentences from academic sources the verb s frequency in academic writing based on two corpora or databases and the verb s relative frequencies across disciplines offers practical tasks and exercises for students as online support material Organized so that readers can use the guide as either a quick reference or a study aide this resource will empower students to use appropriate discipline specific reporting verbs in their academic writing

Handbook of Research on Applying Universal Design for Learning Across Disciplines: Concepts, Case Studies, and Practical Implementation Fovet, Frederic, 2021-01-22 Universal design for learning UDL has been hailed for over a decade as a revolutionary lens that allows campuses to shift their efforts to create inclusive environments In recent years UDL has gone beyond the field of disability and been explored with regards to international and indigenous students There is now a sizable body of literature that details the benefits of implementing UDL in higher education as well as a number of emerging studies examining the strategic challenges of developing UDL across institutions There is however still a relative paucity of research discussing the transformation of instruction or assessment in concrete terms Therefore there is a necessity for research and information on UDL that has already been implemented in classrooms and the practical examples of what this process of transformation looks like The Handbook of Research on Applying Universal Design for Learning Across Disciplines Concepts Case Studies and Practical Implementation offers practical examples of UDL having successfully been embedded in courses within various disciplines and classroom formats as well as across the undergraduate and graduate sectors The chapters provide case studies and concrete examples of what the UDL reflection on practice might look like in specific faculties and departments While highlighting UDL in areas such as educational technology student engagement assignment design and inclusive education this book is ideally intended for inservice and preservice teachers administrators teacher educators higher education professors and leaders practitioners researchers academicians and students interested in the integration of UDL into strategic academic plans

Research Questions in Language Education and Applied Linguistics Hassan Mohebbi, Christine Coombe, 2022-01-13 This volume encompasses the range of research questions on language related problems that arise in language teaching learning and assessment The 150 chapters are written by experts in the field who each offer their insights into current and future directions of research and who suggest several highly relevant research questions Topics include but are not limited to language skills teaching language skills assessment and testing measurement feedback discourse analysis pragmatics semantics language learning through technology CALL MALL ESP EAP ERPP TBLT materials development genre analysis needs analysis corpus content based language teaching language teaching and learning strategies individual differences research methods classroom research form focused instruction age effects literacy proficiency and teacher education and teacher development The book serves as a reference and offers inspiration to researchers and students in language education An important skill in reviewing the research literature is following a study's plan of attack Broadly this means that before accepting and acting upon the findings one considers a the research question Is it clear and focused Measurable b the subjects examined the methods deployed and the measures chosen Do they fit the study's goal and have the potential to yield useful results and c the analysis of the data Do the data lead to the discussion presented Has the author reasonably interpreted results to reach the conclusion Mohebbi and Coombe's book Research Questions in Language Education and Applied Linguistics A Reference Guide helps budding researchers take the first step and develop a solid research question As the field of language education evolves we need continual research to improve our instructional and assessment practices and our understanding of the learners language learning processes This book with its remarkable 150 topics and 10 times the number of potential research questions provides a wealth of ideas that will help early career researchers conduct studies that move our field forward and grow our knowledge base Deborah J Short Ph D Director Academic Language Research Training Past President TESOL International Association 2021-22 As a teacher in graduate programs in TESOL I frequently come across the frustration of students at centering their research interests on a particular topic and developing research questions which are worth pursuing so as to make a contribution to the field This frustration stems from the fact that our field is so vast and interrelated that it is often impossible to properly address all that interests them Hence I wholeheartedly welcome this most relevant and innovative addition to the research literature in the field of TESOL and Applied Linguistics Coombe and Mohebbi have created a real tour de force that stands to inform budding researchers in the field for many years to come Additionally the cutting edge depiction of the field and all it has to offer will no doubt update the research agendas of many seasoned researchers around the world The 150 chapters are organized in a most powerful yet deceptively simple way offering a positioning within the topic suggesting questions that might direct inquiry and offering a basic set of bibliographic tools to start the reader in the path towards research What is more the nine sections in which the chapters are organized leave no area of the field unexplored Dr Gabriel D az Maggioli Academic Advisor Institute of Education Universidad ORT del Uruguay President IATEFL Chapter Metacognition in Academic Writing Learning Dimensions is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer com
