Racism in the Neoliberal Era Randolph Hohle, 2025-08-22 Racism in the Neoliberal Era explains how simple racial binaries like black white are no longer sufficient to explain the persistence of racism capitalism and elite white power The neoliberal era features the largest Black middle class in US history and extreme racial marginalization Racial languages change the meaning of public and private political economy's two fundamental terms Randolph Hohle focuses on how the origins and expansion of neoliberalism depended on a racial language of white private black public The language of neoliberalism explains how the white racial frame operates like a web of racial meanings that connect social groups with economic policy geography and police brutality When America was racially segregated elites consented to political pressure to develop and fund white public institutions The Black civil rights movement eliminated legal barriers that prevented racial integration The elite white response to Black civic inclusion was to deregulate the Voting Rights Act and banking policy Elites gave themselves tax cuts and implemented austerity measures on government programs to aid the poor They privatized neighborhoods schools and social welfare creating markets around poverty They oversaw the mass incarceration and systemic police brutality against people of color Citizenship was recast as a privilege instead of a right Neoliberalism is the result of an elite white meta strategy to maintain political and economic power This new edition is thoroughly revised and updated to take account of the further history and debates over neoliberalism in the Trump and Biden eras and the significant social and political discussions around race and racism policing housing health care and citizenship as they interconnect with the American neoliberal economic and political system The new edition will be a vital textbook for students instructors and researchers in sociology politics race and economics

Urban Change and Citizenship in Times of Crisis Bryan S. Turner, Hannah Wolf, Gregor Fitzi, Jürgen Mackert, 2020-04-07 At times of triumphant neo liberalism cities increasingly become objects of financial speculation Formally social and political rights might not be abolished yet factually they have become inaccessible for large parts of the population The contributions gathered in this volume shed light on the clash between the perspectives of restructuring and reordering urban environments in the interest of investors and the manifold and innovative agencies of resistance that claim and stand up for the rights of urban citizenship Renewed waves of urban transformation employ state coercion to foster the expulsion of poor and marginalised inhabitants from those urban spaces that attract interest from speculators The intervention of state agencies triggers the work of hegemonic culture for reframing the housing issue and implementing moral and political legitimation as well as legislation that restricts urban citizenship rights The case studies of the volume comparatively show the different and sometimes contradictory patterns of these conflicts in Berlin Sydney Belfast Jerusalem Amsterdam and Istanbul as well as in metropolises of Latin America and China Innovative resistance agencies emerge that paint possible paths for the re-establishment of the right to the city as the core of urban citizenship      Spatialities of Urban Change Lochner

Marais, Gustav Visser, 2008-07-01 It is against a post colonial backdrop that the collection of essays assembled in this book aims to make a contribution to understanding the realities of urban centres which feature less frequently in the academic press The research reported in this collection echoes and highlights many of the themes found in both urban theory derived from the realities of many world cities and the challenges remarked upon in development theory seen in much of the work focused on South Africa's main metropolitan regions
