Globalization and European Welfare States Robert Sykes, D. Bouget, Pauline M. Prior, Jo Campling, 2001-06-07 This book seeks to counter the recent trend of speculation about the impact of globalization upon welfare states It begins by asking two related questions What exactly is globalization How if at all has globalization been implicated in recent changes to European welfare states The book combines both theoretical and empirical analysis to provide a critical account of the relationship between globalization and change in European welfare states Firstly the key theoretical and conceptual debates are reviewed and the existing perspectives on globalization and welfare policy change are assessed The text moves on to explore and challenge the more apocalyptic economic perspectives on globalization and welfare that suggest permanent retrenchment The discussion includes an outline and assessment of the role of international organisations such as the World Bank and the EU All the major types of European national welfare system are considered Bismarkian Southern Central and Eastern European Nordic and Liberal Individual chapters outline recent welfare policy changes in the European countries of each system and the role of globalization in such changes This ground breaking text provides new empirical and theoretical perspectives on links between globalization and European welfare state change It will be important reading for students and academics in the fields of social policy politics international relations European studies and related fields     New

Perspectives on China and Aging Jason L. Powell,Ian G. Cook,2007 The first part of the book is entitled Family Transition and Ageing and addresses rapid social and economic changes in China through a kaleidoscope of differential perspectives that focus on how family continues to be an important reference point for the past present and future institution in the care of older people The second part of the book focuses on the tangible social forces associated with managing old age Welfare Consumption and Ageing This section is important in locating the structures and agents of power that are relevant to maintaining trust and social relations between older people the Chinese State and its dualism of state welfare and consumption of welfare     Juvenile Offending Thom Brooks,2023-05-31 Tackling juvenile offending has become a key part of crime reduction strategies The articles selected for this volume examine juvenile offending from various critical perspectives and represent the work of the most influential international figures in the field The issues addressed include the different needs and perspectives of youth offenders whether offenders should be treated differently from others because of their age recommendations of policy changes identification of risk factors issues surrounding the sentencing of juvenile offenders and the relevance of restorative justice     Politics and Society in Poland Frances Millard,2002-09-11 An examination of political social and economic development in Poland since the summer of 1989 with the main focus on democratization

Coping with Homelessness Dragana Avramov,2018-12-17 First published in 1999 The phenomenon of homelessness is not new but it has only recently been perceived as a social problem in European Member States Even in the early 1990s little was known about the paths in and out of homelessness This volume presents the papers arising from EUROHOME Emergency and Transitory Housing for Homeless people Needs and Best Practices This project enabled a review of the state of knowledge in the field an analysis of recent trends and a discussion of the prospects for improvement in the prevention of homelessness and the public response to housing in Europe EUROHOME and this collection thus bring together experts in the study of     Empirical Poverty Research in a Comparative Perspective Hans Jurgen Andreß,2019-05-23 First published in 1998 this books considers defining the concept of poverty as a collective issue through an empitrical view point on an international scale Looking to define poverty by compiling case studies by academics writing from viewpoints in a variety of individual countries     Poverty and Social Exclusion in the New Russia Nataliya Tikhonova,2017-07-05 Presenting the findings of a major research project funded by the EU INTAS this key volume investigates the regional ethnic and socio cultural aspects of poverty and social exclusion in Russia in recent years In depth household interviews and survey data allowed teams from the UK Denmark and Russia to compare different societies and communities in Russia across several different themes the definition of poverty in different regional ethnic and socio cultural settings the reproduction and formation of poverty subcultures in different societies and communities the ethnic national and political values of poor people the readiness of poor people for social protest and a comparison of Russia with other EU countries Offering a wealth of original data collected following a period of rapid impoverishment of the Russian population the study considers the challenge this presents to Western European models of poverty and social exclusion Criminal and Social Justice Dee Cook, 2006-03-22 See Sample Chapters Resources to download the Introduction to Criminal and Social Justice Dee Cook's new book is important innovative and invigorating It brings together two spheres criminal justice and social justice which are usually but as she persuades us unjustifiably kept separate intellectually and in policy and practice Dee Cook makes a powerful case for the inter connectedness of penal policy and social policy bringing together concepts from the two spheres such as social exclusion citizenship and human rights Her innovative approach brings insightful theoretical analysis together with two extended case studies differential treatment of tax fraud and benefit fraud and the third way politics of New Labour This book will make it much more difficult for students policy makers and criminal justice practitioners to ignore the social context in which penal policy evolves and is implemented Professor Barbara Hudson University of Central Lancashire This is an accessible and lively critical account of the inter relationship between social and criminal justice in New Labour Britain It should engage students on a range of programmes particularly social policy criminology and sociology Ruth Lister Professor of Social Policy Loughborough University A cogent demonstration that criminal justice cannot be achieved in the absence of social justice There is a blistering but thoroughly informed critique of New Labour's failure to narrow this justice gap Let's hope the carefully reasoned but impassioned arguments about how to get really tough on the causes of crime and injustice get the attention they deserve Robert Reiner Professor of Criminology London School of Economics and Political Science Criminal and Social Justice provides an important insight into the relationship between social inequality crime and criminalisation In this accessible and innovative account Dee Cook examines the nature of the relationship between criminal and social justice both in theory and in practice Current social economic political and cultural considerations are brought to bear and contemporary examples are used throughout to help the student to consider this relationship The book is essential reading for students and researchers in criminology social policy social work and sociology It is also relevant to practitioners in statutory voluntary and community sector organisations Responses to Poverty Robert Walker, Roger Lawson, Peter Townsend, 1984 Comparison social policy poverty unemployment welfare state Denmark France Germany Federal Republic Netherlands UK resource allocation family welfare social protection low income old age benefits family benefit social assistance wage policy pension schemes care of the aged etc Graphs references statistical tables Critical Multicultural Practice in Social Work Charlotte Williams, 2020-07-16 Critical multicultural practice rather than being a specialism is integral to Australian social work Drawing on critical race theory critical multiculturalism intersectionality and critical reflection as practice theory this major new edited collection challenges many of the dominant assumptions of cross cultural social work and provides instead a new model of transformative engagement Key concepts are considered including identity culture diversity and superdiversity how power and privilege shape everyday interactions and what is meant by citizenship in the contemporary context Part One explores the changing nature of multicultural practice in Australia including our society's changing demographic profile the impact of asylum and refugee migrations race and racism and cultural identity Indigenous perspectives and the relationship with multicultural practice are examined together with the ethical and legal basis for multicultural practice This part concludes with an outline of the editors framework for critical multicultural practice Part Two draws on contributions from a range of practitioners and offers new perspectives on diverse fields including child protection mental health disability ageing homelessness and rural and regional practice Featuring case studies and insights drawn from across the spectrum of practice this book is a vital resource for all social workers practising in Australia today A rich and nuanced analysis of what is happening at the interfaces of our work and the lives of Australian citizens it articulates ways forward that are genuine bold and empathetic From the foreword by Professor Kerry Arabena The University of Melbourne

The Routledge International Handbook to Welfare State Systems Christian Aspalter, 2017-01-12 Developing countries may not have full fledged welfare states like those we find in Europe but certainly they have welfare state systems For comparative social policy research the term welfare state systems has many advantages as there are numerous different types models of welfare state systems around the world This path breaking book edited by Christian Aspalter brings together leading experts to discuss social policy in 25 countries regions around the world From the most advanced welfare state systems in Scandinavia and Western Central Europe to the developing powers of Brazil China India Russia Mexico and Indonesia each country specific chapter provides a historical overview discusses major characteristics of the welfare state system analyzes country specific problems as well as critical current and future trends for further discussions while also providing one additional major focal point issue for greater in depth analysis This book breaks new ground in ideal typical welfare regime theory identifying now in total 10 worlds of welfare capitalism It provides broad perspectives on critical challenges which welfare state systems in the developing and developed world alike must address now and in the future It will be of great interest to all scholars and students of social policy social development development and health economists public policy health policy sociology social work and social policy makers and administrators This book is a reference book for researchers and social policy administrators it can also serve as a textbook for courses on comparative social policy international social policy and international social development
