Rue Wilson Monday:

Rue Wilson Monday Anselm Hollo, 2000 Here are Anselm Hollo's notes on rue Wilson Monday When I was invited to spend five months in France in an old hotel long frequented by artists and writers I decided to write something that would NOT be your typical sabbatical poem that familiar rumination by the U S American academic temporary expatriate on the Mona Lisa Baudelaire's grave or how different all this is from back home in Missoula Montana I believe that rue Wilson Monday turned out to be something possibly more interesting a hybrid of day book informal sonnet sequence and extended laminated essay poem with an aesthetic dare I say lyricism perhaps better understood by our younger generation of poets than by their predecessors those mid twentieth century travelogues Works I found particularly inspiring in my endeavor were Ted Berrigan's The Sonnets and Edward Dorn's Abhorrences books that will make me chuckle and weep to the end of my days The book received its title from French poet Guillaume Apollinaire's 1913 poem Lundi rue Christine Monday rue Christine a Cubist work composed almost entirely out of verbatim speech from various conversations in a cafe M In rue Wilson Monday similar conversations take place in and around my head during that stay August 1998 January 1999 at the Hotel Chevillon an artists and writers retreat in the small town of Grez sur Loing Back in 1876 Robert Louis Stevenson came to visit his cousin Robert at this hotel whose present street address is 114 rue Wilson La Rue Grande Main Street back then To invite the reader to participate in my often elliptical conversations with these folks I have provided footnotes and these too are an integral part of the poem and the conversation
